The illustration depicts a man in a dark suit and a woman in a red dress in a tense moment. The man is holding a handgun, and the woman is looking at him with a concerned expression. In the background, there are domed buildings, suggesting an exotic or Middle Eastern setting. The overall style is that of a classic pulp magazine cover.

An Island Out of Time Tom Horton,1996 A classic of Chesapeake Bay literature Tom Horton s An Island Out of Time chronicles the three years Horton and his family spent on Smith Island a marshy archipelago in the middle of Maryland s famous estuary The result is an intimate portrait of a deeply traditional community that lived much as their ancestors did three hundred years before attuned to the habits of blue crab oyster and waterfowl In a new afterword for this edition Horton brings the story of Smith Island and its people up to the present

Mind Traps and Breaking Free Through God's Love Judith Shannon,2017-09-07 Mind Traps and Breaking Free Through God s Love explains how our own thinking brings us into offense rejection and depression It is not caused by circumstances or people as some would suggest Mind traps operate opposite of the characteristics of love that God has placed in our hearts This book teaches

how to recognize and circumvent wrong thinking and stop the progression into depression It is possible to overcome this destructive pattern that makes our lives a painful roller coaster existence God promises in His Word that we can be more than conquerors Romans 8 37 We can live free from a tormenting thought life and enjoy God s rest in our souls Learn how to be victorious in Christ today and overcome debilitating mind traps Much Ado About Mothing James Lowen, 2021-05-27

James Lowen narrates a year long quest to see Britain s rarest and more remarkable moths Although mostly unseen by us moths are everywhere And their capacity to delight astounds Inspired by a revelatory encounter with a Poplar Hawk moth a huge velvety winged wonder wrapped in silver James Lowen embarks on a year long quest to celebrate the joy of Britain s rarest and most remarkable moths By hiking up mountains wading through marshes and roaming by night amid ancient woodlands James follows the trails of both Victorian collectors and present day conservationists Seeking to understand why they and many ordinary folk love what the general public purports to hate his investigations reveal a heady world of criminality and controversy derring do and determination From Cornwall to the Cairngorms James explores British landscapes to coax these much maligned creatures out from the cover of darkness and into the light Moths are revealed to be attractive astonishing and approachable capable of migratory feats and camouflage mastery moths have much to tell us on the state of the nation s wild and not so wild habitats As a counterweight to his travels James and his young daughter track the seasons through a kaleidoscope of moth species living innocently yet covertly in their suburban garden Without even leaving home they bond over a shared joy in the uncommon beauty of common creatures for perhaps the greatest virtue of moths we learn is their accessibility Moths may be everywhere but above all they are here Quite unexpectedly no animals may be better placed to inspire the environmentalists of the future
