The Golden Grindstone By Graham Angus:

Gold Rush Grub Ann Chandonnet, 2005 Ann Chandonnet brings us a rollicking history of gold rush food complete with hearty recipes ranging from sourdough flapjacks to stewed porcupine. From miners' meals and home remedies to holiday fare, beverages and housekeeping, Gold Rush Grub follows the trail of stampedeers from Sutter's Mill in California to Alaska and the Klondike. The first food history of its kind, Gold Rush Grub presents a panoramic view of an exciting period in American history. The grub that stampedeers ate was affected by everything from arctic weather to Pacific Coast agriculture and Midwest meat packing. For those who struck it rich, there were oysters, ice cream, and cognac. The less fortunate had to make due with beans and nettle soup. Readers with an adventurous palate can experiment with recipes for scalloped grayling and caribou scrapple. Those who prefer to leave the porcupines and bears in peace will enjoy the engaging prose and historic photographs. Gold Rush Grub will appeal to general readers, cookbook aficionados, and anyone who loves a good meal and a great story. There's a heavy dose of gold rush history here which sets it a cut above your normal recipe-oriented cookbook. The Midwest Book Review: A fascinating new culinary history of gold miners in California, Alaska, and the Klondike Northwest. Palate: Chandonnet ably demonstrates how the cuisine, high and low, of the western gold rushes fits into America's culinary mainstream. A unique look at the last great adventure. Bruce Merrell, Alaska Bibliographer, Anchorage Municipal Libraries.

Buxton, 2013-06-01 Harold Innis is widely understood as the proponent of the Laurentian school of historiography which mapped Canadian development along an East-West axis. Harold Innis and the North turns the axis North-South by examining Innis's intense and abiding interest in the North and providing new perspectives on this seminal figure in Canadian political economy and communication studies This collection reveals that Innis's advocacy of the North was closely bound up with his vision of northern Canada as the site of a second industrial revolution based on mining hydro electric power pulp and paper and enabled by new forms of transportation Long preoccupied with Canada's coming of age as a balanced and integrated industrial nation state Innis grappled with the same issues about the North in the Canadian nation that we are dealing with today Chapters explore the breadth of Innis's northern activities including his early studies of the fur trade his biography of eighteenth century explorer and cartographer Peter Pond his review essays on the North for the Canadian Historical Review his leadership of the Rockefeller sponsored Arctic Survey and his trip to the Soviet Union Harold Innis and the North crafts a new narrative about the nature and scope of Innis's intellectual project and provides a unique appreciation of his multi faceted professional identity Contributors include Sergei Arkhipov North Ossetian State University and NGO Vladikavkaz Institute of Economics Jeffrey Brison Queens George Colpitts Calgary Matthew Evenden UBC Barry Gough Churchill College Cambridge and Kings College London Paul Heyer Wilfrid Laurier Jim Mochoruk North Dakota Liza Piper Alberta Shirley Roburn Concordia Peter van Wyck Concordia Jeff Webb Memorial On the Margin Aldous Huxley, 1926 Best Left as Indians Kenneth Coates, 1993 Barely a hundred and fifty years have passed since the first white people arrived at the upper Yukon River basin During this time many non Natives have come and gone and some have stayed Ken Coates examines the interaction between Native people and white Disrobing the Aboriginal Industry Frances Widdowson, Albert Howard, 2008-10-24 By examining the root causes of aboriginal problems Frances Widdowson and Albert Howard expose the industry that has grown up around land claim settlements showing that aboriginal policy development over the past thirty years has been manipulated by non aboriginal lawyers and consultants They analyse all the major aboriginal policies examine issues that have received little critical attention child care health care education traditional knowledge and propose the comprehensive government provision of health education and housing rather than deficient delivery through Native self government Rafting the Snake W. Arctic trails do indeed have their secret tales and one of the best is that of The Mad Trapper of Rat River equal to the legends of Bonnie and Clyde or John Dillinger Now author Dick North of course may have solved the mystery of the Mad Trapper's true identity thereby enhancing the saga Thomas McIntyre author of Seasons Days A Hunting Life A courageous and unrelenting posse on the trail of a furious and desperate wilderness outlaw Lean and bloody meticulously researched The Mad Trapper of Rat River is a dark and haunting story of human endurance adventure and will that speeds along like the best fiction Bob Butz author of Beast of Never Cat of God They called it The Arctic Circle War It was a forty eight day manhunt across the harshest terrain in the world the likes of which we will never see again The quarry Albert Johnson was a loner working a string of traps in the far reaches of Canada's Northwest Territories where winter temperatures average forty degrees below zero The chase began when two Mounties came to ask Johnson about allegations that he had interfered with a neighbor's trap No questions were asked Johnson discharged the first shot through a hole in the wall of his log cabin When the Mounties returned with reinforcements Johnson was gone and The Arctic Circle War had begun On Johnson's heels were a corps of Mounties and an irregular posse on dogsled Johnson on snowshoes seemed superhuman in his ability to evade capture The chase stretched for hundreds of miles and during a blizzard crossed the Richardson Mountains the northernmost extension of the Rockies It culminated in the historic shootout at Eagle River
