The Judgement House Gilbert Parker, 1927 The Judgement House Gilbert Parker, 1922 The Judgement House; a Novel Gilbert Parker, 2012-08 Unlike some other reproductions of classic texts 1 We have not used OCR Optical Character Recognition as this leads to bad quality books with introduced typos 2 In books where there are images such as portraits maps sketches etc We have endeavoured to keep the quality of these images so they represent accurately the original artefact Although occasionally there may be certain imperfections with these old texts we feel they deserve to be made available for future generations to enjoy The Judgement House Gilbert Parker, 1913 Feeling the Future at Christian End-Time Performances Jill C. Stevenson, 2022-02-01 The End is always near The Apocalypse has sparked imaginations for millennia while in more recent times highly publicized predictions have thrust End Time theology briefly into the spotlight In the 21st century fictional depictions of various apocalyptic scenarios are found in an endless stream of films TV shows and novels while real world media coverage of global issues including climate change and the migrant crisis often features an apocalyptic tone Feeling the Future at Christian End Time Performances explores this prevalent human desire to envision the End by analyzing how various live End Time performances allow people to live in and through future time The book's main focus is contemporary Christian End Time performances and how they theatrically construct encounters with future time not just images or ideas of a future but viscerally and immediately real experiences of future time Author Jill Stevenson's examples are Hell Houses and Judgement Houses Rapture House a similarly styled walk through drama in North Carolina Hell's Gates an outdoor reality drama in Dawsonville Georgia Ark Encounter a full size recreation of Noah's Ark and Tribulation Trail an immersive thirteen scene drama ministry based on the Book of Revelation The book's coda considers similarities between these Christian performances and secular survivalist prepper events especially with respect to constructions of and language about time In doing so the author situates these performances within a larger tradition that challenges traditional secular sacred distinctions and illuminates how the End Times has been employed in our current social and political moment Preaching to Convert John Fletcher, 2013-11-13 Preaching to Convert offers an intriguing new perspective on the outreach strategies of U S evangelicals framing them as examples of activist performance broadly defined as acts performed before an audience in the hopes of changing hearts and minds Most writing about activist performance has focused on left progressive causes events and actors Preaching to Convert argues against such a constricted view of activism and for a more nuanced understanding of U S evangelicalism as a movement defined by its desire to win converts and spread the gospel The book positions evangelicals as a diverse complicated group confronting the loss of conservative Christianity's default status in 21st century U S culture In the face of an increasingly secular age evangelicals have been reassessing models of outreach In acts like handing out Bible tracts to strangers on the street or going door to door with a Bible in hand in elaborately staged horror themed morality plays or multimillion dollar creationist discovery centers in megachurch services beamed to dozens of satellite campuses and in controversial ex gay ministries striving to return gays and lesbians to the straight and narrow evangelicals are redefining what it means to be deeply committed in a pluralist world The book's engaging style and careful argumentation make it accessible and appealing to scholars and students across a range of fields

Performing Religion in Public J. Edelman, C. Chambers, S. du Toit, Simon du Toit, 2013-10-10 Religious life and public life are both passionately performed but often understood to exclude one another This book's array of voices investigates the publics hailed by religious performances and the challenges they offer to theories of the democratic public sphere

Playing Dead Montana Miller, 2012-12-15 As the Grim Reaper pulls a student out of class to be a victim of drunk driving in a program called Every 15 Minutes Montana Miller observes the ritual through a folklorist's lens Playing Dead examines why hundreds of American schools and communities each year organize these mock tragedies without any national sponsorship or coordination Often the event is complete with a staged accident in the parking lot a life flight helicopter and faux eulogies for the dead students read in school assemblies Grounding her research in play theory frame theory and theory of folk drama Miller investigates key aspects of this emergent tradition paying particular attention to its unplanned elements enabled by the performance's spontaneous nature and the participants' tendency to stray from the intended frame Miller examines such variations in terms of the program as a whole analyzing its continued popularity and weighing its success as perceived by participants Her fieldwork reveals a surprising aspect of Every 15 Minutes that typical studies of ritual do not include It can be fun Playing Dead is volume two of the series Ritual Festival and Celebration edited by Jack Santino
