New Media and the New Middle East Philip Seib, 2007-08-06 In this book leading international scholars examine the way new media is reshaping lives and politics Covering topics from women s rights to terrorism and countries from Israel to Saudi Arabia these authors explore the global and regional ramifications of the proliferation of communication technologies and the information they disseminate

Social Semiotics of Arabic Satellite Television Ali Darwish, 2009 Arabic satellite television is a phenomenon that has swept the Arab world in less than two decades and is said to have dramatically changed the Arab region It has created a world of contrasts and contradictions between tradition and liberalism and a polarization of views and opinions all vying for dominance and control This book examines the social semiotics of Arabic satellite television and studies the multimodal representations of Arab social and cultural values and their implied meanings in a communication medium that heavily relies on imported western models

Being Young, Male and Saudi Mark C. Thompson, 2019-10-03 Based on remarkable primary research this unique contemporary account of the lives of young Saudi men reveals a distinct group of voices

Al Jazeera and the Global Media Landscape Tine Ustad Figenschou, 2013-10-15 This book analyzes how and why Al Jazeera English AJE became the channel of choice to understand the massive protests across the Arab world 2011 Aiming to explain the Al Jazeera moment it tracks the channel s bumpy road towards international recognition in a longitudinal in depth analysis of the channel s editorial profile and strategies Studying AJE from its launch in mid November 2006 to the Arab Spring it explains and problematizes the channel s ambitious editorial agenda and strategies examines the internal conflicts practical challenges and minor breakthroughs in its formative years The Al Jazeera phenomenon has received massive attention but it remains under researched The growth of transnational satellite television has transformed the global media landscape into a complex web of multi vocal multimedia and multi directional flows Based on a combination of policy production and content analysis of comprehensive empirical data the book offers an innovative perspective on the theorization of global news contra flows By problematizing the distinctive characteristics of AJE it examines the strategic motivation behind the channel and the ways in which its production processes and news profile are meant to be different from its Anglo American competitors These questions underscore a central nexus of the book the changing relationship between transnational satellite news and power

A Malay-English dictionary Richard James Wilkinson,1901 Mapping Agency Ulrike Lorenz-Carl,Martin Rempe,2016-05-13 Despite regionalism having developed into a global phenomenon the European Union EU is still more often than not presented as the role model of regionalism whose institutional designs and norms are adopted by other regional actors and organizations as part of a rather passive downloading process Reaching beyond such a Eurocentric perception Mapping Agency provides an empirically rich African perspective on regionalisms in Sub Saharan Africa It adopts an actor centred approach but departs from a rather simplified understanding of agency as exerting power and instead scrutinizes to what extent actors actually participate in or are excluded from processes of regionalism The value of this volume derives from the inclusion of historical dimensions its open multi actor approach to both formal and informal processes and its comparative perspective within but also beyond Sub Saharan Africa The chapters offer a multifaceted picture of agency beyond disciplinary divides where the EU is one actor amongst many and where local national regional and global state and non state actors shape and sometimes break processes of regionalisms in Sub Saharan Africa Armed Conflict and Forcible Displacement Elena Katselli Proukaki,2018-03-05 This book addresses the involuntary and arbitrary displacement of individuals resulting from armed conflict and gross human rights violations It shows that forcible displacement constitutes a serious violation of international law and of fundamental community interests Armed Conflict and Forcible Displacement provides a critical legal analysis of the contemporary international framework permeating forcible displacement in these circumstances and explores the rights that individuals possess with specific focus on the right not to be displaced and where this fails the right to return home and to receive property restitution In doing so this volume marries together different fields of international law and builds on the case studies of Cyprus Colombia Cambodia and Syria While the case studies considered here are far from exhaustive they are either little explored or present significant challenges due to the magnitude of displacement or contested international jurisprudence Through this analysis the volume exposes some of the legal challenges that individuals encounter in being protected from forcible displacement as well as the legal obstacles that persist in ensuring the return of and the recovery of property by the displaced It will be of interest to those interested in the fields of international law human rights law as well as conflict and war studies Diversity across the Arabian Peninsula Fabio Gasparini,Kamala Russell,Janet C.E. Watson,2024-10-17 This edited volume brings together a diverse and rich set of contributions on the Arabian Peninsula Ranging from history field linguistics and cultural studies these essays address the diversity of languages ways of life and natural environments that have marked the region throughout its history The book stems from the intellectual exchange and collaboration fostered by a virtual workshop that met regularly in 2020-21 and which drew participants from within and beyond the academy. The contributions gathered in this volume highlight the need for a better understanding of a region that hosts a vast amount of culturally and linguistically diverse material often in a precarious state of conservation. Diversity Across the Arabian Peninsula argues for the importance of holistic community-based and interdisciplinary approaches to linguistic endangerment and deep social and cultural changes; there is no documentation of language without attention to language use, the material lifeworld and its ecology and social and cultural setting. Such research is enriched and made more impactful through collaboration with communities and scholars from the Global South. The essays in this volume thus spearhead a contextualized study of South Arabian linguistic varieties and their connection with the natural and cultural world they inhabit.

Saudi Arabia and the United Arab Emirates Robert Mason, 2023-01-24. The year 1973 is usually considered the great equaliser among major oil producers. But the Visions strategies of Saudi Arabia and the United Arab Emirates, a so-called middle power and small state in the Middle East regional system, point to broadening economic relations as a great enhancer of economic power. This book explores the impact of regime type and leadership style on the two countries' foreign policies. It reveals how autonomy and influence, threat perception and alliance patterns are folded into the complex and personal royal politics and economic statecraft that sit at the core of their international relations.

Arab Media Noha Mellor, 2011-05-16. A clear and authoritative introduction to the emerging Arab media industries. Covers a range of industries with particular focus on broadcasting, press, publishing, cinema and new media. Written by an experienced author team with broad language and subject coverage.

Palestinians in Jerusalem and Jaffa, 1948 Itamar Radai, 2015-12-14. Between November 1947 and May 1948, war between the Palestinian Arab community and the Jewish community encompassed Palestine, with Jerusalem and Jaffa becoming focal points in the conflict due to their centrality, size and symbolic importance. Palestinians in Jerusalem and Jaffa 1948 examines Palestinian Arab society, institutions and fighters in Jerusalem and Jaffa during the conflict. It is one of the first books in English that deals with the Palestinian Arabs at this crucial and tragic moment in their history, with extensive use of Arabic sources and an inquiry from the Palestinian vantage point. It examines the causes of the social collapse of the Palestinian Arab communities in Jerusalem and Jaffa during the 1948 intercommunal war and the impact of this collapse on the military defeat. This book reveals that the most important internal factors to the Palestinian defeat were the social changes that took place in Arab society during the British Mandate, namely internal migration from rural areas to the cities, the shift from agriculture to wage labour and the rise of the urban middle class. By looking beyond the well-established external factors, this study uncovers how modernity led to a breakdown within Palestinian Arab society, widening social fissures without producing effective institutions and thus alienating social classes both from each other and from the leadership. With careful examination of a range of sources and informed analysis of Palestinian social history, Palestinians in Jerusalem and Jaffa 1948 is a key resource.

Energy Transitions in the Middle East Katherine Wolff, Karen E. Young, 2024-01-25 How do Middle East energy transitions fit into international energy markets In this book energy analysts geopolitical experts and specialists of political economy examine the new energy potential in the Middle East The particular focus surrounds how the region s access to finance combined with the new global regulations and considerations of economic development shape the region s energy transitions overall The Middle East is revealed to be a key site of new energy production sharing and transmission as well as technology innovation At the same time the authors examine the variables that determine the success in each country and energy source including the advantages that hydrocarbon producers will have in renewables and transition fuels and the risk that these might slow down the energy transition overall In doing so the book situates the energy transition in the Middle East in a broader context of economic development financing models and regulations and explains how this context interacts with the development of new energy sources Energy Transitions in the Middle East is an account of the challenges Middle Eastern states will face in navigating the global energy transition as well as their key areas of opportunity

Museums in Arabia Karen Exell, Sarina Wakefield, 2016-05-12 Museum activity has in recent years undergone major and rapid development in the Arabian Peninsula with the regeneration of existing museums as well as the establishment of new ones Alongside such rapid expansion questions are inevitably raised as to the new challenges museums face in this region and whether the museum as a central focus of heritage preservation also runs the risk of overshadowing local forms of heritage performance and preservation With contributions from leading academics from a range of disciplines and heritage practitioners with first hand experience of working in the region this volume addresses the issues and challenges facing museums in Kuwait Saudi Arabia Qatar Yemen and the UAE It focuses on the themes of politics public engagement and the possibility of a new museum paradigm which might appropriately reflect the interests and culture of the region The interdisciplinary approaches analyse museum development from both an inside and outside perspective suggesting that museums do not follow a uniform trajectory across the region but are embedded within each states socio cultural context individual government agendas and political realities Including case study analysis which brings the more marginal nations into the debates as well as new empirical data and critical evaluation of the role of the museum in the Arabian Peninsula societies this book adds fresh perspectives to the study of Gulf heritage and museology It will appeal to regional and international practitioners and academics across the disciplines of museum studies cultural studies and anthropology as well as to anyone with an interest in the Gulf and Middle East The Resilience of Parliamentary Politics in Kuwait Courtney Freer, 2024 The first English language political history of Kuwaiti parliament this book provides an unprecedented holistic treatment of grassroots contemporary Kuwaiti politics in English in over two decades incorporating the country's political dynamics into broader debates about the limits of authoritarianism and the practice of democracy in the Arab world particularly in oil wealthy states Author Courtney Freer uses the lens of parliamentary elections as a means of understanding the political ideologies that have dominated in Kuwait since independence As such it situates the dynamics of Kuwaiti politics within broader political science debates about whether democratic institutions in hybrid regimes are meaningful arenas for popular contestation or only serve to enhance autocratic rule Given the varying portrayals of Kuwait as robust authoritarianism upgraded authoritarianism or a noteworthy site of democratic participation The Resilience of Parliamentary Politics in Kuwait Parliament Rentierism and Society focuses on the ideologies that have mobilized political blocs rather than solely focusing on the institutions of political power themselves Freer includes extensive fieldwork and the use of Arabic and English primary sources to assess and examine the institutional setting that Kuwait presents and traces the dominant ideological strands in the country considering the comparative mobilizational potential of ascriptive identities like tribe and sect
