The Man Awakened From Dreams One Mans Life In A North China Village 1857 194:

The Man Awakened from Dreams Henrietta Harrison, 2023-05-25 A vivid study of China's modernization through the lens of one schoolteacher's life A tour de force of originality clarity and skillful organization Chinese Historical Review In this beautifully crafted study of one emblematic life Henrietta Harrison addresses large themes in Chinese history while conveying with great immediacy the textures and rhythms of everyday existence in the countryside in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries Liu Dapeng was a provincial degree holder who never held government office Through the story of his family the author illustrates the decline of the countryside in relation to the cities as a result of modernization and the transformation of Confucian ideology as a result of these changes Based on nearly four hundred volumes of Liu's diary and other writings the book illustrates what it was like to study in an academy and to be a schoolteacher the pressures of changing family relationships the daily grind of work in industry and agriculture people's experience with government and life under the Japanese occupation Should be on any short list of necessary books on modern China American Historical Review Harrison does nothing less than open up for us a whole new world Journal of Asian Studies The Chinese Historical Review, 2006 Connoisseurship Christina M. Anderson, Peter Stewart, 2023 This collection of essays considers the concept of connoisseurship afresh by investigating its practice in familiar places such as Western art history while also incorporating a global perspective with Chinese numismatics and walnut collecting wine and coffee expertise the market for geological specimens and the resonances between Morellian connoisseurship and modern forensics These essays resonate with one another in surprising ways and create new dialogues about connoisseurship's meaning and application demonstrating that its practice can be both intuitive and scientific Famine Relief in Warlord China Pierre Fuller, 2021-03-01 Famine Relief in Warlord China is a reexamination of disaster responses during the greatest ecological crisis of the pre Nationalist Chinese republic In 1920 1921 drought and ensuing famine devastated more than 300 counties in five northern provinces leading to some 500 000 deaths Long credited to international intervention the relief effort Pierre Fuller shows actually began from within Chinese social circles Indigenous action from the household to the national level modeled after Qing era relief protocol sustained the lives of millions of the destitute in Beijing in the surrounding districts of Zhili Hebei Province and along the migrant and refugee trail in Manchuria all before joint foreign Chinese international relief groups became a force of any significance Using district gazetteers stele inscriptions and the era's vibrant Chinese press Fuller reveals how a hybrid civic sphere of military authorities working with the public mobilized aid and coordinated migrant movement within stricken communities and across military domains Ultimately the book's spotlight on disaster governance in northern China in 1920 offers new insights into the social landscape just before the region's descent over the next decade into incessant warfare political struggle and finally the normalization of disaster itself 1971-2006 中国现代史学百年, 2007 24 Internationale Bibliographie der Rezensionen wissenschaftlicher Literatur, 2007
