Training Methodology and Theory

In recent years, the general enthusiasm for workplace learning (WPL) increased tremendously. The development of this topic is closely associated with research of related theories that are considered to guide managers in training their employees. Of the great variety of theories and trends, it is essential to select those that fit a particular company. In this connection, this paper focuses on the critical review of the related literature and its application to the proposed project of The Body Shop employees' training needs. The majority of the existing training approaches to workplace learning consider a narrow component of training. This...
