The Gentleman From San Francisco And Other Stories:

The Gentleman from San Francisco, and Other Stories Ivan Alekseevich Bunin, 2019-11-19 In The Gentleman from San Francisco and Other Stories Ivan Alekseevich Bunin masterfully weaves tales that encapsulate the complexities of human experience against the backdrop of a tumultuous era. The collection features intricate character studies and evocative imagery employing a lyrical prose style that captures the ephemerality of life. Set in the early 20th century, these narratives reflect Bunin's acute observations of society, exploring themes of love, loss, and existential contemplation with a poignant depth that resonates universally. Bunin, the first Russian to win the Nobel Prize in Literature, brought with him a profound sensitivity to the human condition, shaped by his experiences amidst the upheavals of the Russian Revolution and subsequent emigration. His keen insight into the contrasts between wealth and poverty, civilization and nature, is evident throughout this collection. A traditionalist at heart yet innovative in his approach to storytelling, Bunin sought to blend lyrical realism with philosophical reflection, which greatly informed his writing in this collection. This anthology is highly recommended for readers who appreciate literary finesse and profound thematic exploration. Bunin's narratives invite contemplation about the fragility of existence and the transient nature of happiness, making it a crucial read for those drawn to the depths of human emotion and the beauty of finely crafted prose.

We have not used OCR (Optical Character Recognition) as this leads to bad quality books with introduced typos. 2. In books where there are images such as portraits, maps, sketches, etc., we have endeavoured to keep the quality of these images so they represent accurately the original artefact. Although occasionally there may be certain imperfections with these old texts, we feel they deserve to be made available for future generations to enjoy.

The Gentleman from San Francisco, and Other Stories Ivan Alekseevich Bunin, 2019-03-04 A much neglected literary figure, Ivan Bunin is one of Russia's major writers and ranks with Tolstoy and Chekhov at the forefront of the Russian Realists. Drawing artistic inspiration from his personal experience, these powerful evocative stories are set in the late nineteenth and early twentieth-century Russia of his youth, in the countries that he visited and in France where he spent the last thirty years of his life. In the title story, for example, a family's tour of fashionable European resorts comes to an unexpected end. Late Hour describes an old man's return to the little Russian town in the steppes that he has not seen since his early youth, while Mitya's Love explores the darker emotional reverberations of sexual experience Throughout his stories there is a sense of the precariousness of existence an omnipresent awareness of the impermanence of human aspirations and achievements Goodreads The Gentleman from San Francisco and Other Stories Ivan A.
