American Invasions Rocky M Mirza Ph D, 2010-08 American Invasions Canada to Afghanistan 1775 to 2010 is a thought provoking analysis of the reasons for American invasions and warmongering over the last two centuries Contrary to the views expressed by the Western media and Western historians the American Empire is not a force for the promotion of free thinking and democracy but instead a force for imperial conquests and imposed dictatorships through the use of a military industrial complex fed by the American Empire outspending the rest of the world combined on weapons of mass destruction The American Empire has used and will continue to use the most sophisticated weapons from nuclear bombs to bunker busting bombs to land mines to chemical and biological weapons on defenseless men women and children to feed its insatiable appetite for warmongering and imperial expansion It combines military bases around the world with military prisons used for torture and extraction of information Its navy patrols every corner of the globe and its planes can rain down bombs from the heavens on every civilian on the planet

Henry James, Gertrude Stein, and the Biographical Act Charles Caramello, 2000-11-09 Focusing on biographical portraiture Charles Caramello argues that Henry James and Gertrude Stein performed biographical acts in two senses of the phrase they wrote biography but as a cover for autobiography Constructing literary genealogies while creating original literary forms they used their biographical portraits of precursors and contemporaries to portray themselves as exemplary modern artists Caramello advances this argument through close readings of four works that explore themes of artistry and influence and that experiment with forms of biographical portraiture James's early biography of Nathaniel Hawthorne and his much later group biography William Wetmore Story and His Friends and Stein's celebrated Autobiography of Alice B. Toklas and her largely forgotten Four in America which comprises biographies of Ulysses S Grant Wilbur Wright Henry James and George Washington The first comparative study of these two great expatriate writers Henry James Gertrude Stein and the Biographical Act addresses questions of art influence and literary culture by analyzing important biographical portraits that themselves address the same questions Originally published 1996 A UNC Press Enduring Edition UNC Press Enduring Editions use the latest in digital technology to make available again books from our distinguished backlist that were previously out of print These editions are published unaltered from the original and are presented in affordable paperback formats bringing readers both historical and cultural value

Mission Unaccomplished Alan Nadel, 2025 Throughout his career prominent film scholar Alan Nadel has explored the idea of cultural narratives and how every social unit sees and explains the world through the stories we tell In this book he identifies how the war film genre has changed in the 21st century after 9 11 and more specifically Bush s announcement of Mission Accomplished He explains how the traditional war film narrative in which soldiers have a specific mission or objective to achieve in battle changed to one in which war is treated as a daily occupation with no larger mission that will lead even in the long run to peace He examines how films such as Saving Private Ryan at the end of the 20th century have morphed into films such as Jarhead The Hurt Locker and The Green Zone With the indefinite and ill planned occupation of Afghanistan and Iraq including the privatization of many military services through contractors this new situation has led to films in which we follow soldiers day to day lives as they go through their duties or even after they ve come home as in American Sniper Another change in war films during the Global War on Terror puts the emphasis on just surviving and getting out such as in Hacksaw Ridge which even carries over to films about for example WWII such as Dunkirk Again combatants have no specific goal other than escaping or helping others to escape or just surviving long enough to go home Nadel shows how this change has also affected non war films such as Sully Captain Phillips Deepwater Horizon and Get Out and even the television series Lost Nadel deftly moves between political history and film analysis with this wide ranging lucid examination of the changing nature and role of war films
