The Journals and Letters of George Finlay George Finlay,1995 The Journals and Letters of George Finlay: The journals George Finlay,1995 The Journals and Letters of George Finlay George Finlay,1995 Letters and Journals: Letters, 1822-1824 George Gordon Byron Baron Byron,1904 Proceedings of the 4th Biennial of Architectural and Urban Restoration. Host of the Itinerant Congress Hidden Cultural Heritage: Under Water, Under Ground and Within Buildings ,2018-09-02 The Biennial of Architectural and Urban Restoration is composed by a series of cultural events like seminars shows art exhibitions projections of documentaries debates visits all open and also aimed to the public The purpose of these activities is to bring out the architectural and urban local heritage and raise public awareness to its protection creating an international forum of discussion between countries with similar problems but various economic and socio political situations The Greek Revolution Mark Mazower,2022-11-22 Winner of the Duff Cooper Prize Named a top history book of the year by The Economist From one of our leading historians the definitive history of the Greek War of Independence The Greek War of Independence was an unlikely cause a disorganized collection of Greek patriots up against what was still one of the most storied empires in the world the Ottomans The revolutionaries needed all the help they could get And they got it as Europeans and Americans embraced the idea that the heirs to ancient Greece the wellspring of Western civilization were fighting for their freedom against the proverbial Eastern despot the Turkish sultan Mazower does full justice to the more complicated reality on the ground as a revolutionary conspiracy triggered outright rebellion By the time the dust settled Greece was free and Europe was changed forever It was a victory for a completely new kind of politics international in its range and affiliations popular in its origins romantic in its sentiments and radical in its goals The Greek War of Independence was the first war in which a people claimed liberty for themselves and overthrew an entire empire to attain it inaugurating a new world of nation states the world in which we still live In Search of Agamemnon Nektarios Karadimas,Dudley Moore,Edward Rowlands,2014-03-17 Although many books focus on the fascinating story of Heinrich Schliemann little has been written on Mycenae before his excavations This book therefore fills this gap It looks at the English speaking pioneers who visited the citadel at Mycenae before Schliemann providing additional biographic references in the footnotes and bibliography and associated sources The book's primary purpose is to bring back to life the thoughts of these pioneers on Mycenae It is also a reflection on dating theories of the site during the nineteenth century At that time the general consensus concerning the beginning of the Greek world was the classical civilisation of the fifth century BC This was not the view of many of these travellers The ancients too had a fascination with Mycenae The Homeric tales of Agamemnon King of Mycenae led to popular sixth and fifth century BC plays from the likes of Aeschylus Sophocles and Euripides But what did these ancient writers and later travellers such as Pausanias actually see Finally there is a need to be reminded of some of the pioneer travellers to Mycenae and their descriptions of the Lion Gate citadel and the Treasury of Atreus as they are of

Art and Identity in Thirteenth-Century Byzantium Antony Eastmond, 2017-03-02 The church of Hagia Sophia in Trebizond built by the emperor Manuel I Grand Komnenos 1238-63 in the aftermath of the fall of Constantinople to the Fourth Crusade is the finest surviving Byzantine imperial monument of its period Art and Identity in Thirteenth Century Byzantium is the first investigation of the church in more than thirty years and is extensively illustrated in colour and black and white with many images that have never previously been published Antony Eastmond examines the architectural sculptural and painted decorations of the church placing them in the context of contemporary developments elsewhere in the Byzantine world in Seljuq Anatolia and among the Caucasian neighbours of Trebizond Knowledge of this area has been transformed in the last twenty years following the collapse of the Soviet Union The new evidence that has emerged enables a radically different interpretation of the church to be reached and raises questions of cultural interchange on the borders of the Christian and Muslim worlds of eastern Anatolia the Caucasus and Persia This study uses the church and its decoration to examine questions of Byzantine identity and imperial ideology in the thirteenth century This is central to any understanding of the period as the fall of Constantinople in 1204 divided the Byzantine empire and forced the successor states in Nicaea Epiros and Trebizond to redefine their concepts of empire in exile Art is here exploited as significant historical evidence for the nature of imperial power in a contested empire It is suggested that imperial identity was determined as much by craftsmen and expectations of imperial power as by the emperor s decree and that this was a credible alternative Byzantine identity to that developed in the empire of Nicaea
