The Journey Of Ibn Fattouma:

The Journey of Ibn Fattouma Naguib Mahfouz, 1993-10-01 In this provocative and dreamy parable a young man disillusioned by the corruption of his homeland sets out on a quest to find Gebel the land of perfection from which no one has ever returned On his way Ibn Fattouma passes through a series of very different lands realms where the moon is worshipped where marriage does not exist where kings are treated like gods and where freedom toleration and justice are alternately held as the highest goods All of these places however are inevitably marred by the specter of war and Ibn Fattouma finds himself continually driven onward ever seeking Like the protagonists of A Pilgrim s Progress and Gulliver s Travels Naguib Mahfouz s hero travels not through any recognizable historical landscape but through timeless aspects of human possibility

The Individual and Utopia Clint Jones, Cameron Ellis, 2016-03-09 Central to the idea of a perfect society is the idea that communities must be strong and bound together with shared ideologies However while this may be true rarely are the individuals that comprise a community given primacy of place as central to a strong communal theory This volume moves away from the dominant current macro level theorising on the subject of identity and its relationship to and with globalising trends focusing instead on the individual s relationship with utopia so as to offer new interpretive approaches for engaging with and examining utopian individuality Interdisciplinary in scope and bringing together work from around the world The Individual and Utopia enquires after the nature of the utopian as citizen demonstrating the inherent value of making the individual central to utopian theorizing and highlighting the methodologies necessary for examining the utopian individual The various approaches employed reveal what it is to be an individual yoked by the idea of citizenship and challenge the ways that we have traditionally been taught to think of the individual as citizen As such it will appeal to scholars with interests in social theory philosophy literature cultural studies architecture and feminist thought whose work intersects with political thought utopian theorizing or the study of humanity or human nature The Road to New Islam:

Mahfouz, Arkoun, Abu Zaid, Kassim, & Other Muslim & Non-Muslim Thinkers Akef R. Abadir PHD., 2021-08-10 The author Akef R Abadir born in Tanta Egypt was living in Alexandria as the colonial period was drawing to an end in the 1950s and early 1960s At the time Alexandria Egypt was a multiethnic and cosmopolitan city The social fabric was composed of an aggregate of Egyptians Europeans and other minorities These different communities and denominations coexisted in relative peace and respect of one another However despite what was shared in common Europeans in general whether at home or abroad seemed to be more progressive than most Egyptians This discrepancy became even more dramatic as one left the urban centers such as Cairo and Alexandria and ventured into rural areas where poverty and illiteracy prevailed Looking back at life in this Mediterranean city nothing seemed to point to an answer where religion would be a major factor In fact in reaction to a prolonged foreign presence Egyptian society had been undergoing a gradual cultural change characterized by a return to a more restrictive interpretation and practice of Islam This observation launched the author Akef Abadir on a long period of exploration and research that led to the writing of this book Currently East West relationship is experiencing a period of great instability It has been suggested that the resolution of this conflict requires reaching a political compromise based on mutual acceptance and understanding To achieve this goal it is imperative to address the problem of Islamic modernism and examine the context in which it is taking shape From the authors viewpoint what has been written regarding Islamic modernity has not provided a comprehensive overview of the subject This book intends to address this gap and examine the core issues that have confronted Islam starting from the seventh century to the present The objective of this book is not to predict when Islam will modernize but rather to explore the current process of change taking place and the obstacles it is facing The aim is to ultimately promote a constructive dialogue between the Muslim community and the outside world particularly the West 1 fouz in1 his Trillogy The Journey of Ibn Fattouma Naguib Mahfouz, 1992

Islam on the Street Muḥsin Jāsim Mūsawī, 2009-09-16 Islam on the Street deals with the popular side of Islam as described not only in tracts and manuals written by Sufi shaykhs and Islamist thinkers from among the more militant groups in Islam but also in writings by other more secular thinkers who have also influenced public opinion A scholar of Arabic literature Muhsin al Musawi explains the growing rift that has occurred between the secular intellectual the forerunner of Arab and Islamic modernity since the late nineteenth century and the upsurge of Islamic fervor in the street at the grassroots level and what these secular intellectuals can do to reconnect with the masses Using some of the most important Arabic and Islamic poetry prose and fiction to come out of the twentieth century Al Musawi provides context for the complex images of Arab and Islamic culture given by the various social religious and political groups providing the motivations Readers interested in the influence of religion and secularism within modern Islamic Arabic literature will find that the author addresses the presence of Islam and Sufism in ways that secular commentators have been incapable of doing
