The Madwoman Of Jogare A Novel:

The Madwoman of Jogare Sohaila Abdulali,1998 Culture and the Making of Identity in Contemporary India Kamala Ganesh,Usha Thakkar,2005-07-13 This collection of 17 original essays provides insights into the many ways in which the interrelated issues of culture identity and Indianness are expressed in contemporary times The contributors map and evaluate the developments in their respective fields over the past 50 years and cover the topics of art music theatre literature philosophy science history and feminism Ecofeminism and the Indian Novel Sangita Patil,2019-07-08 Ecofeminism and the Indian Novel tests the theories of ecofeminism against the background of India s often different perceptions of environmental problems challenging the hegemony of Western culture in thinking about human problems This book moves beyond a simple application of the concepts of ecofeminism instead explaining the uniqueness of Indian novels as narratives of ecofeminism and how they can contribute to the development of the theory of ecofeminism In examining a selection of novels the author argues that Indian texts conceptualize the ecological crisis more as a human problem than as a gender problem The book proposes that we should think of ecofeminism as ecohumanism instead seeing human beings and nature as a part of a complex web Novels analysed within the text include Kamala Markandaya s Nectar in a Sieve 1954 Shivram Karanth s Return to Earth 2002 and Na D Souza s Dweepa 2013 Ecofeminism and the Indian Novel will be of great interest to students and scholars of ecofeminism ecocriticism ecological feminism environmental humanities gender studies ecological humanities feminist studies and Indian literature World Bank Literature Amitava Kumar,2003 World Bank literature is more than a concept it is a provocation a call to arms It is intended to prompt questions about each word to probe globalization political economy and the role of literary and cultural studies As asserted in this major work it signals a radical rewriting of academic debates a rigorous analysis of the World Bank and the International Monetary Fund IMF and a consideration of literature that deals with new global realities Made more relevant than ever by momentous antiglobalization demonstrations in Seattle and Genoa World Bank Literature brings together essays by a distinguished group of economists cultural and literary critics social scientists and public policy analysts to ask how to understand the influence of the World Bank IMF on global economic power relations and cultural production The authors attack this question in myriad ways examining World Bank IMF documents as literature their impact on developing nations the relationship between literature and globalization the connection between the academy and the global economy and the emergence of coalitions confronting the new power World Bank Literature shows above all the multifarious and sometimes nefarious ways that abstract academic debates play themselves out concretely in social policy and cultural mores that reinforce traditional power structures
