Family Affair Gil L. Robertson, 2009-03-01 It's no secret that the African American community is in crisis. From health disparities and political injustice to crime statistics and a variety of social ills, it is a community teetering on the edge. Through personal stories and essays, Family Affair addresses this imbalance, offering insight on issues and topics that the majority of African Americans only talk about in secret. The goal is to stimulate dialogue that supports reflection, healing, and understanding. Family Affair comprises five sections representing the key features that influence the African American identity: History, Politics, Behavior, Beliefs, and Self-evaluation. The book showcases a wide cross-section of contributors representing various elements of the black community. Each section features at least one religious leader and one institutional leader, as well as many celebrities from the worlds of music and broadcasting along with ordinary people with extraordinary stories. The Family Shakspeare ... in which Nothing is Added to the Original Text William Shakespeare, 1825

Family and Feuding at the Court of James I Johanna Luthman, 2024-02-23 After a marriage linking them flourished, the feuding Lake and Cecil families hurled terrible accusations at each other: adultery, incest, poisoning, impotence, fraud. The resulting scandals impacted the court of King James I and beyond. Luthman's study of the scandals provides a window into the culture, society, and politics of Jacobean England. The Local Preachers' Magazine and Christian Family Record, 1864

Bretter, Ulrich Leben, Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), 1998

Although his brief but productive career as a cabinetmaker in New York lasted a mere sixteen years, the French-born maître ebeniste Charles Honoré Lannuier (1779-1819) was a leading figure in the development of a distinctive and highly refined style of furniture in the Late Federal period. A contemporary of the renowned master Duncan Phyfe, Lannuier like him made fashionable gilded card tables, marble-topped pier tables, bedsteads, and seating furniture for wealthy clients numbering among the mercantile and social elite of New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Richmond, and Savannah. This volume, which complements the exhibition Honoré Lannuier: Parisian Cabinetmaker in Federal New York held at The Metropolitan Museum of Art, New York, in spring 1998, represents the most complete study of Lannuier's life and work published to date. The family commentary: or New Testament with notes,
