Leadership Strategies, Technology Everywhere Brian L. Hawkins, Julia A. Rudy, William H. Wallace, Jr., 2002-10-16 Information technology IT has transformed human resource management across our society and its influence on higher education has been profound Technology Everywhere addresses the dual role played by colleges and universities that must recruit hire and train knowledge worker professionals and educate IT learners to manage the ever increasing flow of information both on campus and off Each chapter in this much needed volume addresses a critical phase of IT human resource management identifies key issues and offers practical advice based on actual experiences that can help colleges and universities develop a plan of action to respond effectively to the IT workforce challenge Framework for Developing Skill Standards for Workplace Literacy Eunice Nicholson Askov, 1996 Framework for Developing Skill Standards for Workplace Literacy Eunice N. Hull, 1992 International Perspectives on Workforce Education and Development Jay W. Rojewski, 2004-12-01 Development of this text has been based on the notion that workforce education and development WFED systems such as secondary and postsecondary vocational and technical education VTE career education and guidance human resource and organizational development HROD and adult training and retraining including literacy programs have essential roles to play in supporting both individual and national efforts to successfully participate in and reap the benefits offered by globalization While this assumption has intuitive appeal not everyone believes that vocational preparation programs result in positive outcomes Psacharopoulos 1997 an outspoken international critic of vocational education and training argues that WFED programs often have a low rate of return on a country's investment when compared to that of the general academic curriculum He contends that WFED initiatives often fail because too much emphasis is placed on these efforts to address myriad complex issues and that decision makers do not utilize the available evidence about VTE to make prudent informed choices Instead major players in the global economy like the World Bank tout basic academic education as an essential priority for developing countries wanting to enter into global markets and exchange
