Ancient Maritime Spice Route Steven E. Sidebotham, 2011-02-02 The legendary overland silk road was not the only way to reach Asia for ancient travelers from the Mediterranean During the Roman Empire's heyday equally important maritime routes reached from the Egyptian Red Sea across the Indian Ocean The ancient city of Berenike located approximately 500 miles south of today's Suez Canal was a significant port among these conduits In this book Steven E Sidebotham the archaeologist who excavated Berenike uncovers the role the city played in the regional local and global economies during the eight centuries of its existence Sidebotham analyzes many of the artifacts botanical and faunal remains and hundreds of the texts he and his team found in excavations providing a profoundly intimate glimpse of the people who lived worked and died in this emporium between the classical Mediterranean world and Asia Practical Industrial Data Networks Steve

Mackay, 2004-04-19 There are many data communications titles covering design installation etc but almost none that specifically focus on industrial networks which are an essential part of the day to day work of industrial control systems engineers and the main focus of an increasingly large group of network specialists The focus of this book makes it uniquely relevant to control engineers and network designers working in this area The industrial application of networking is explored in terms of design installation and troubleshooting building the skills required to identify prevent and fix common industrial data communications problems both at the design stage and in the maintenance phase The focus of this book is outside the box The emphasis goes beyond typical communications issues and theory to provide the necessary toolkit of knowledge to solve industrial communications problems covering RS 232 RS 485 Modbus Fieldbus DeviceNet Ethernet and TCP IP The idea of the book is that in reading it you should be able to walk onto your plant or facility and troubleshoot and fix communications problems as quickly as possible This book is the only title that addresses the nuts and bolts issues involved in design installation and troubleshooting that are the day to day concern of engineers and network specialists working in industry Provides a unique focus on the industrial application of data networks Emphasis goes beyond typical communications issues and theory to provide the necessary toolkit of knowledge to solve industrial communications problems Provides the tools to allow engineers in various plants or facilities to troubleshoot and fix communications problems as quickly as possible

The Guiana Travels of Robert Schomburgk Volume II The Boundary Survey, 1840-1844 Peter Rivière, 2021-12-17 This is the second of a pair of volumes publishing the unedited full reports of Schomburgk's travels in Guiana between 1835 and 1844 previously available only in greatly abridged and heavily edited versions After his explorations in Guiana between 1835 and 1839 on behalf of the Royal Geographical Society which are the subject of Volume I of The Guiana Travels of Robert Schomburgk 1835-1844 Robert Schomburgk travelled to London He was appointed Her Majesty's Commissioner for Boundaries with the duty to survey the boundaries of British Guiana hitherto undefined His surveys between 1841 and 1843 consisted of three journeys The first took him to the mouth of the Orinoco River from where he traced the boundary south westward to the Cuyuni River before returning to Georgetown The second journey involved the survey of the boundary with Brazil first south to the sources of the Takutu River and then north to Mount Roraima In the third he covered the boundary with Dutch Guiana modern Surinam which involved an arduous trip down the length of the Corentyne River Schomburgk returned to London in 1844 and was knighted for his services Volume II of The Guiana Travels contains his reports of these journeys In abbreviated form they appeared in the Journal of the Royal Geographical Society Here they are published in full including the material censored by the Colonial Office which mainly details abuses of the native population committed by Venezuelans and Brazilians In an Epilogue an account is provided of his later career The volume also includes two appendices a summary of the boundary disputes which arose as a result of Schomburgk's survey and a vocabulary of vernacular plant names

Women and Migration(s) II Kalia Brooks, Cheryl Finley, Ellyn Toscano, Deborah Willis, 2022-11-14 Women and Migration s II draws together contributions from scholars and artists showcasing the breadth of intersectional experiences of migration from diaspora to internal displacement Building on conversations initiated in Women and Migration Responses in Art and History this edited volume features a range of written styles from memoir to artists statements to journalistic and critical essays The collection shows how women's experiences of migration have been articulated through art film poetry and even food This varied approach aims to aid understanding of the lived experiences of home loss family belonging isolation borders and identity issues salient both in experiences of migration and in the epochal times in which we find ourselves today These are stories of trauma and fear but also stories of the strength perseverance hope and even joy of women surviving their own moments of disorientation disenfranchisement and dislocation This collection engages with current issues in an effort to deepen understanding encourage ongoing reflection and build a more just future It will appeal to artists and scholars of the humanities social sciences and public policy as well as general readers with an interest in women s experiences of migration
