Round About a Pound a Week now and join the ranks of those who refuse to turn a blind eye to the suffering of their fellow human beings      Wordsworth, Coleridge, and 'the language of the heavens' Thomas Owens,2019-05-30 Thomas Owens explores some of the exultant visions inspired by Wordsworth's and Coleridge's close scrutiny of the night sky the natural world and the domains of science He examines a set of scientific patterns drawn from natural geometric celestial and astronomical sources which Wordsworth and Coleridge used to express their ideas about poetry religion literary criticism and philosophy and establishes the central importance of analogy in their creative thinking Analogies prompted the poets' imaginings in geometry and cartography in nature representations of the moon and natural history studies of spider webs streams and dew in calculus and conical refraction and in the discovery of infra red and ultraviolet light Although this is primarily a study of the patterns which inspired their writing the findings overturn the prevalent critical consensus that Wordsworth and Coleridge did not have the access interest or capacity to understand the latest developments in nineteenth century astronomy and mathematics which they did in fact possess Wordsworth Coleridge and the language of the heavens reinstates many relationships which the poets had with scientists and their sources Most significantly the book illustrates that these sources are not simply another context or historical lens through which to engage with Wordsworth's and Coleridge's work but are instead a controlling device of the symbolic imagination Exploring the structures behind Wordsworth's and Coleridge's poems and metaphysics stakes out a return to the evidence of the Romantic imagination not for its own sake but in order to reveal that their analogical configuration of the world provided them with a scaffold for thinking an intellectual orrery which ordered artistic consciousness and which they never abandoned      The Delineator R. S. O'Loughlin,H. F. Montgomery,Charles Dwyer,1928      Lydia Paula Gooder,2022-10-06 Winner CRT Christian Book of the Year 2023 The New Testament tells us very little about Lydia a seller of purple cloth who was living in Philippi when she met the apostle Paul on his second missionary journey And yet she is considered the first recorded convert to Christianity in Europe In her second work of fiction Biblical scholar and popular author and speaker Paula Gooder tells Lydia's story who she was the life she lived and her first century faith and in doing so opens up Paul's letter to the Philippians giving a sense of the cultural and historical pressures that shaped Paul's thinking and the faith of the early church Written in the gripping style of Gerd Theissen's The Shadow of the Galilean and similarly rigorously researched this is a book for everyone and anyone who wants to engage more deeply and imaginatively with Paul's theology from one of the UK's foremost New Testament scholars      Designing Museum Experiences Mark Walhimer,2021-12-19 Designing Museum Experiences is a how to book for creating visitor centered museums that emotionally and intellectually connect with museum visitors stakeholders and donors Museums are changing from static monolithic and encyclopedic institutions to institutions that are visitor centric with shared authority that allows museum and visitors to become co creators in content creation Museum content is also changing from static content to dynamic evolving content that is multi cultural and transparent regarding the evolution of facts and histories allowing multi person interpretations of events Designing Museum Experiences leads readers through the methods and tools of the three stages of a museum visit Pre visit In Person Visit and Post visit with a goal of motivating visitors to return and revisit the museum in the future This museum visitation loop creates meaningful intellectual emotional and experiential value for the visitor Using the business world proven methodologies of user centered design Museum Visitor Experience leads the reader through the process of creating value for the visitor Providing consistent messaging at all touchpoints website social media museum staff visitor services museum signage etc creates a trusted bond between visitor and museum The tools used to increase understanding of and encourage empathy for the museum visitor and understand visitor motivations include Empathy Mapping Personas Audience segmentation Visitor Journey Mapping Service Design Blueprints System Mapping Content Mapping Museum Context Mapping Stakeholder Mapping and the Visitor Value Proposition In the end the reason for using the tools is to empower visitors and meet their emotional and intellectual needs with the goal of creating a lifelong bond between museum and visitor This is especially important as museums face a new post COVID 19 reality only the most nimble visitor centered museums are likely to survive The companion website to Designing Museum Experiences features Links to additional visitor centered museum information Downloadable sample documents and templates Bibliography of sources for further reading Online glossary of museum visitor experience terms Daily checklists of how to provide and receive visitor centered experiences More than 50 associated Designing Museum Experiences documents
