SpeakOut Wendy Sarkissian, Wiwik Bunjamin-Mau, 2012-05-04 Finding specific advice on inclusive processes for engaging a community in a planning or design process can be a daunting undertaking The latest offering in the Tools for Community Planning Series is the product of nearly two decades of successful practice by internationally acclaimed community planning specialists It is designed to support veterans and people with little or no experience to conduct a wide variety of community engagement events with absolute confidence The book introduces the SpeakOut an innovative interactive drop in engagement process It provides hands on systematic guidance and detailed checklists for managing community engagement processes as well as targeted advice on facilitation recording and training Five international case studies are included This unique illustrated manual is a must have tool for community city and regional planners activists community organizations students in planning and the other land professions and workshop facilitators and trainers everywhere Speaking Out Of Turn Manning Clark, 2013-05-09 This fascinating book brings together forty two selected speeches and lectures by Professor Manning Clark They range over fifty years from What of Germany delivered in 1940 to the last delivered in 1991 just before his death at the launch of Barry Humphries book The Life and Death of Sandy Stone and reveal recurring themes as well as developments in Clark s thinking In one sense they are all of a piece They reflect the values aspirations regrets and laughter of one passionate and intelligent man In another they change and develop during the course of that man s intellectual and emotional career In early manhood he analysed issues and problems ruthlessly in terms of his own values In middle life he portrayed men and women and expounded ideas from a historical perspective Towards his end the elegiac mood prevailed and he sought not always successfully to speak as a life affirmer and to regard all men and women and events with the eye of pity A History of Australia Volumes 1 2 Earliest Times 1838 deals with the pre white settlement era and the earliest years of European colonisation through to the establishment of an increasingly settled society and the expeditions of the great inland explorers Speaking Out Linde Zingaro, 2017-03-02 Many professionals in health education and community service roles are caught in a particular bind of identity they live in a complex social borderland of credibility and professional authority while experiencing or having experienced the same discrimination violence or trauma that they are committed to conquering For some the disclosure of their own stories of marginalization has become a tool for advocacy for telling a larger truth for others self disclosure is a more personal action intended to assist isolated others in developing trust and connection Linde Zingaro a lifelong social service worker and activist interviewed several colleagues who have chosen to speak out in this way talking with them about their ethics and intentions and collaborating to identify some of the risks of negative personal and professional consequences for the practitioner She uses their voices and her own to illustrate some of the ways that these people have learned to safely and effectively use the transformative potential of storytelling as significant social action This examination of speaking out as a meaningful social practice may help other workers activists and community researchers in their efforts to be heard in the interests of a more just society      Speak Out! Kate Shuster, John Meany, 2005 Speak Out is a primer for beginning and intermediate students participating in class and contest debates It offers students clear concise information on public speaking and debating Combining the practical and theoretical the text teaches students about verbal and nonverbal communication how to research and present an argument how to answer arguments how to develop debate strategies and how to conduct a formal debate      Speaking Out: LGBTQ Youth Stand Up Steve Berman, 2011-02-01 Speaking Out features stories for and about LGBT and Q teens by fresh voices and noted authors in the field of young adult literature These are inspiring stories of overcoming adversity against intolerance and homophobia and experiencing life after coming out Queer teens need tales of what might happen next in their lives and editor Steve Berman showcases a diversity of events challenges and especially triumphs      Speaking Out J. Baxter, 2016-01-26 Focusing on the female voice in public contexts language and gender specialists consider the barriers and opportunities encountered by women in gaining recognition in politics law the church education business and the media where people are increasingly judged by their speech and where male and female speech is often evaluated differently      A Social View of Socotra Island Nataša Slak Valek, Ahmad Abdelmoniem Zedan, 2023-08-31 This book focuses on Socotra Island geographically based in Yemen and aims to explore the island from the social sciences point of view This book focuses on people indigenous to Socotra Socotri cultures heritage and also offers contributions from business tourism linguistic communication and anthropology While a lot has been published in natural science about Socotra s endemic species biodiversity and nature in general social scientific research of the island is very limited This book addresses therefore addresses this gap and explores various topics of tourism behaviours cultures and language This book focuses on a clear social science approach of Socotra The purpose of this book is to publish research about the people behaviors heritage and potential tourism of Socotra The Socotra Archipelago has long been a land of mystery It is unknown as a tourism destination for many however is a popular destination for adventurers photographers and travelers who like to travel to remote and undeveloped places This book explains how Socotra has limited resources of electricity which is provided by diesel generators Internet is very slow and limited to certain points on the island There are no shopping malls or five star hotels Roads schools and hospitals have been built only recently This book shoes how these island people do not know the development as we do which makes it principally interesting to research Previous interviewers of Socotri people about tourism development in the island have faced many challenges such as language barriers lack of understanding the meanings and interviewing content lack of support for the anticipated research results This book successfully undertakes this challenge as not only in understanding the language but understanding phenomena like e g tourism Whilst acknowledging the ways in which indigenous island people have never travelled or seen a developed city Thus words like developed tourism destination or washing machine may be unfamiliar terms for them Therefore new and innovative research methods that are sensitive to Socotra people were implemented in the creation of this book      Jhb:

Inside Speaking Out JHB,2011-10-06 none      Tales Out of School Jo Keroes,1999 Jo Keroes's scope is wide she examines the teacher as represented in fiction and film in works ranging from the twelfth century letters of Abelard and Heloise to contemporary films such as Dangerous Minds and Educating Rita And from the twelfth through the twentieth century Keroes shows the teaching encounter is essentially erotic Tracing the roots of eros from cultural as well as psychological perspectives Keroes defines erotic in terms broader than the merely sexual She analyzes ways in which teachers serve as convenient figures on whom to map conflicts about gender power and desire To show how portrayals of men and women differ she examines pairs of texts using a film or a novel with a woman protagonist Up the Down Staircase for example as counterpoint to one featuring a male teacher Blackboard Jungle or The Prime of Miss Jean Brodie balanced against Dead Poets Society The portrayals of teachers like all images a culture presents of itself reveal much about our private and social selves Keroes points out authentic accounts of authoritative women teachers who are admired and respected by colleagues and students alike Real teachers differ from the stereotypes we see in fiction and film however Male teachers are often portrayed as heroes in film and fallibly human in fiction whereas women in either genre are likely to be monstrous or muddled and are virtually never women of color Among other things Keroes demonstrates the tension between reality and representation reveals society's ambivalence about power in the hands of women      From Violence to Speaking Out Leonard Lawlor,2016-08-30 Drawing on a career long exploration of 1960s French philosophy Leonard Lawlor seeks a solution to the problem of the worst violence The worst violence is the reaction of total apocalypse without remainder it is the reaction of complete negation and death it is nihilism Lawlor argues that it is not just transcendental violence that must be minimised all violence must itself be reduced to its lowest level He offers new ways of speaking to best achieve the least violence which he creatively appropriates from Foucault Derrida and Deleuze and Guattari as speaking freely speaking distantly and speaking in tongues      [ ]( ),2004      Sitting in and Speaking Out Jeffrey A. Turner,2010 In Sitting In and Speaking Out Jeffrey A. Turner examines student movements in the South to grasp the nature of activism in the region during the turbulent 1960s Turner argues that the story of student activism is too often focused on national groups like Students for a Democratic Society and events at schools like Columbia University and the University of California at Berkeley Examining the activism of black and white students he shows that the South responded to national developments but that the response had its own trajectory one that was rooted in race Turner looks at such events as the initial desegregation of campuses integration's long aftermath as students learned to share institutions the Black Power movement and the antiwar movement Escalating protest against the Vietnam War tested southern distinctiveness says Turner The South's tendency toward hawkishness impeded antiwar activism but once that activism arrived it was as in other parts of the country oriented toward events at national and global scales Nevertheless southern student activism retained some of its core characteristics Even in the late 1960s southern protesters demands tended toward reform often eschewing calls to revolution increasingly heard elsewhere Based on primary research at more than twenty public and private institutions in the deep and upper South including historically black schools Sitting In and Speaking Out is a wide ranging and sensitive portrait of southern students navigating a remarkably dynamic era     Speaking Out Albert Camus,2022-02-15 The Nobel Prize winner s most influential and enduring lectures and speeches newly translated by Quintin Hoare in what is the first English language publication of this collection Albert Camus 1913 1960 is unsurpassed among writers for a body of work that animates the wonder and absurdity of existence Speaking Out Lectures and Speeches 1938 1958 brings together for the first time thirty four public statements from across Camus s career that reveal his radical commitment to justice around the world and his role as a public intellectual From his 1946 lecture at Columbia University about humanity s moral decline his 1951 BBC broadcast commenting on Britain s general election and his strident appeal during the Algerian conflict for a civilian truce between Algeria and France to his speeches on Dostoevsky and Don Quixote this crucial new collection reflects the scope of Camus s political and cultural influence     The Sign of the End of the Age Paul Kalbach,2016-12-13 There is a small groundswell of thinking in the evangelical church that we may not have achieved a proper biblical understanding of end times events It is important for us to return to a careful study of these things because the time is near In The Sign of the End of the Age What Jesus Taught about the Future in Matthew 24 author Paul Kalbach helps you discover or rediscover the Olivet Discourse the Lords clear road map that all other prophetic Scriptures must reckon with To understand the discourse we must answer one critical question what is Matthew 24 about the future program for Israel or the end of the age events for all believers including the church Kalbach presents extensive arguments that show a different timing and sequence of events than is usually taught by proponents of the pretribulation rapture position His in depth study adheres to a most literal interpretation method The Sign of the End of the Age seeks to bring a deeper understanding of the end times period vital in a world that shows every sign that this time is near     Speaking Out and Silencing A. Speaking Out Matthew Kohut,2024-09-02 Abortion Ukraine Voting rights Climate change These are just a few of the issues that Fortune 500 CEOs addressed publicly in the past twelve months Speaking Out The New Rules of Business Leadership Communication defines the changing landscape of CEO communication at a time when corporate leaders are expected to navigate an increasing range of complex political and social issues Skeptics have already dubbed this change the victory of woke politics over the corporate sector Others warn CEOs about the talking trap of speaking out on every issue du jour But these critiques overlook the need for corporate leaders to manage political and social risks Chief executives whose only strategy is to avoid risk by saying nothing do so at their peril The ultimate question is not just what leaders say but what they do Speaking Out provides case studies of leaders who have spoken out and backed words with action as well as others who have had mixed records on accountability failed to show progress on public commitments or faced consequences for taking a stance Speaking Out offers a new lens for understanding the difference between PR efforts that can be easily dismissed as spin and authentic communication that enhances credibility and trust

Speaking Out in Vietnam Benedict J. Tria Kerkvliet,2019-06-15 Since 1990 public political criticism has evolved into a prominent feature of Vietnam s political landscape So argues Benedict Kerkvliet in his analysis of Communist Party ruled Vietnam Speaking Out in Vietnam assesses the rise and diversity of these public displays of disagreement showing that it has morphed from family whispers to large scale use of electronic media In discussing how such criticism has become widespread over the last three decades Kerkvliet focuses on four clusters of critics factory workers demanding better wages and living standards villagers demonstrating and petitioning against corruption and land confiscations citizens opposing China s encroachment into Vietnam and criticizing China Vietnam relations and dissidents objecting to the party state regime and pressing for democratization He finds that public political criticism ranges from lambasting corrupt authorities to condemning repression of bloggers to protesting about working conditions Speaking Out in Vietnam shows that although we may think that the party state represses public criticism in fact Vietnamese authorities often tolerate and respond positively to such public and open protests     A Time to Speak Out Anne Karpf, Barbara Rosenbaum, Brian Klug, Jacqueline Rose, 2020-05-05 In A Time to Speak Out a collection of strong Jewish voices come together to explore some of the most challenging issues facing diaspora Jews. With articles on such topics as international law, the Holocaust, varieties of Zionism, self-hatred, the multiplicity of Jewish identities, and human rights, these essays provide powerful evidence of the vitality of independent Jewish opinion, as well as demonstrating that criticism of Israel has a crucial role to play in the continuing history of a Jewish concern for social justice. At once sober and radical, A Time To Speak Out reclaims an often intemperate debate for those both inside and outside Israel who prefer to confront uncomfortable truths. Nearly all contributors were associated with the Independent Jewish Voices declaration, which when launched in Britain in 2007 opened a floodgate of responses. Independent Jewish Voices is a group of Jews in Britain from diverse backgrounds, occupations, and affiliations who have in common a strong commitment to social justice and universal human rights.
