Speaking Desires Can Be Dangerous The Poetics Of The Unconscious:

Speaking Desires can be Dangerous Elizabeth Wright, 2013-05-20 This new book is a lively and original study of psychoanalysis and its relations to the arts Landscapes of Desire in the Poetry of Vittorio Sereni Francesca Southerden, 2012-01-12 This is the first book length study in English on Vittorio Sereni 1913-83 a major figure in Italian 20th century poetry It argues that a key innovation of Sereni's poetry is the way in which it reworks the boundaries of poetic space to construct a lyric I radically repositioned in the textual universe with respect to its predecessors Celluloid Comrades Song Hwee Lim, 2006-08-31 Without question Song Hwee Lim has presented us with an exemplar of quality scholarship in the study of contemporary Chinese cinemas By combining an impressive command of Chinese and Western literary as well as film source materials with a sophisticated mode of analysis and an unassuming argumentative style he has authored an exhilarating book one that not only treats cinematic representations of male homosexuality with great sensitivity but also demonstrates what it means to read with critical intelligence and vision Rey Chow Andrew W Mellon Professor of the Humanities Brown University Celluloid Comrades is a timely demonstration of the importance of queer studies in the field of transnational Chinese cinemas Lim dissects gay sexuality in selective Chinese language films and vigorously contests commonly accepted critical paradigms and theoretical models Readers will find a provocative powerful voice in this new book Sheldon H Lu Professor of Comparative Literature University of California at Davis Celluloid Comrades offers a cogent analytical introduction to the representation of male homosexuality in Chinese cinemas within the last decade It posits that representations of male homosexuality in Chinese film have been polyphonic and multifarious posing a challenge to monolithic and essentialized constructions of both Chineseness and homosexuality Given the artistic achievement and popularity of the films discussed here the position of celluloid comrades can no longer be ignored within both transnational Chinese and global queer cinemas The book also challenges readers to reconceptualize these works in relation to global issues such as homosexuality and gay and lesbian politics and their interaction with local conditions agents and audiences Tracing the engendering conditions within the film industries of China Taiwan and Hong Kong Song Hwee Lim argues that the emergence of Chinese cinemas in the international scene since the 1980s created a public sphere in which representations of marginal sexualities could flourish in its interstices Examining the politics of representation in the age of multiculturalism through debates about the films Lim calls for a rethinking of the limits and hegemony of gay liberationist discourse prevalent in current scholarship and film criticism He provides in depth analyses of key films and auteurs reading them within contexts as varied as premodern transgender practice in Chinese theater to postmodern diasporic forms of sexualities Informed by cultural and postcolonial studies and critical theory this acutely observed and theoretically sophisticated work will be of interest to a wide range of scholars and students as well as general readers looking for a deeper understanding of contemporary Chinese cultural politics cinematic representations and queer culture Contemporary

European Science Fiction Cinemas Aidan Power, 2018-08-14 Contemporary European Science Fiction Cinemas charts the evolution of European science fiction cinema in the 21st century a period in which Europe itself has faced myriad crises Key to this study is an exploration of how European science fiction responds to prevalent issues such as the financial crisis political extremism and violence large scale migration and indeed the potential breakup of the European Union itself What futures does science fiction cinema envision for Europe Is it capable of moving beyond dystopian visions of a continent beset by seemingly omnipresent turbulence Emphasising science fiction's unique ability to estrange exploit and reflect upon popular concerns this book directly engages with such questions accounting for ongoing mutations in the very nature of the European project as it does so

Lacan and Romanticism Daniela Garofalo, David Sigler, 2019-03-25 Draws from the work of Jacques Lacan to provide innovative readings of Romantic literature in the long nineteenth century Lacan and Romanticism uses the work of psychoanalyst Jacques Lacan to deliver progressive readings of Romanticism by examining canonical Romantic authors such as William Wordsworth Mary Shelley John Keats and Jane Austen as well as lesser known writers such as the graveyard poets and Sarah Scott The contributors develop innovative approaches to Lacanian literary studies focusing on neglected or emergent areas of Lacan's thought and approaching Lacan's best known work in unexpected ways The essay topics include the visible and seeable war the death drive nonhuman sexualities sublimation loss and mourning utopia capitalism fantasy and topology and they range from the mid eighteenth through the early decades of the nineteenth centuries The book reveals new ways of thinking about art and literature with psychoanalytic theory and suggests how theoretical approaches can contribute meaningfully to literary studies in general Reading this book may well entice the Romanticist who isn't already engaged in psychoanalytic theory to do so and the Lacanian scholar who may have concluded erroneously that Lacan's last word on Romanticism was his criticism of some well known lines from the Immortality ode to reconsider the value of returning to Romantic literature and visual culture Guinn Batten author of The Orphaned Imagination Melancholy and Commodity Culture in English Romanticism

Loss and the Other in the Visionary Work of Anna Maria Ortese Vilma DeGasperin, 2014-03 Combines theme and genre analysis in a study of the Italian author from her first literary writings in the 1930s to her novels in the 1990s

Phallic Panic Barbara Creed, 2015-08-18 Vampires werewolves cannibals and slashers why do audiences find monsters in movies so terrifying In Phallic Panic Barbara Creed ranges widely across film literature and myth throwing new light on this haunted territory Looking at classic horror films such as Frankenstein The Shining and Jack the Ripper Creed provocatively questions the anxieties fears and the subversive thrills behind some of the most celebrated monsters This follow up to her influential book The Monstrous Feminine is an important and enjoyable read for scholars and students of film cultural studies psychoanalysis and the visual arts

The Uncanny Nicholas Royle,2003 This is the first book length study of the uncanny an important concept for contemporary thinking and debate across a range of disciplines and discourses including literature film architecture cultural studies philosophy psychoanalysis and queer theory Much of this importance can be traced back to Freud s essay of 1919 The uncanny where he was perhaps the first to foreground the distinctive nature of the uncanny as a feeling of something not simply weird or mysterious but more specifically as something strangely familiar As a concept and a feeling however the uncanny has a complex history going back to at least the Enlightenment Nicholas Royle offers a detailed historical account of the emergence of the uncanny together with a series of close readings of different aspects of the topic Following a major introductory historical and critical overview there are chapters on the death drive d j vu silence solitude and darkness the fear of being buried alive doubles ghosts cannibalism telepathy and madness as well as more applied readings concerned for example with teaching politics film and religion This is a major critical study that will be welcomed by students and academics but will also be of interest to the general reader

In and Out of Sight Alix Beeston,2018 Building on work in visual culture studies that emphasizes the interplay between still and moving images In and Out of Sight provides a new account of the relationship between photography and modernist writing revealing the conceptual space of literary modernism to be radically constructed around the instability of female bodies

Kafka's Novels Patrick Bridgwater,2021-11-22 Kafka s three novels to be understood as an ever more intricate portrayal of the inner life of one central character Henry James s centre of consciousness each reflecting the problems of their self critical creator are tantamount to dreams The hieroglyphic pictorial language in which they are written is the symbolic language in which dreams and thoughts on the edge of sleep are visualized Not for nothing did Kafka define his writing as a matter of fantasizing with whole orchestras of free associations Written in a deliberately enhanced hypnagogic state these novels embody the alternative logic of dreams with the emphasis on chains of association and verbal bridges between words and word complexes The product of many years preoccupation with its subject Patrick Bridgwater s new book is an original chapter by chapter study of three extraordinarily detailed novels of each of which it offers a radically new reading that makes more and different sense than any previous reading In Barthes terms these fascinating novels are unreadable but the present book shows that properly read they are entirely if ambiguously readable Rooted in Kafka s use of language it consistently explores in detail i the linguistic implications of the dreamlike nature of his work ii the metaphors he takes literally and iii the ambiguities of so many of the words he chooses to use In doing so it takes account not only of the secondary meanings of German words and the sometimes dated metaphors of which Kafka taking them literally spins his text but also where relevant of Czech and Italian etymology Split for ease of reference into chapters corresponding to the chapters of the novels in the new Originalfassung the book is aimed at all readers of Kafka with a knowledge of German for the author shows that Kafka's texts can be understood only in the language in which they were written because Kafka's meaning is often hidden beneath the surface of the text conveyed via secondary meanings that are specific to German any translation is necessarily an Oberflächensetzung

Somnambulism, Sleepwalking and Secrets in Victorian Literature Zainab Ayoub, 2019-06-28 Never has the role of women in society been so convoluted as the Victorian era From gracious to the grotesque repressed to the risqué it would be an understatement to suggest that the Victorian was the embodiment of all that is meant to be pure In this book the author seeks to delve deeper into the minds of characters in Victorian literature to ascertain just how unstable and universal the issues of suppression the issues of secrets have on these characters

The Child in Question Julie C. Garlen, Lisa Farley, 2021-05-14 What is a child The concept of childhood is so familiar that we tend to assume its universality However the meaning of childhood is always being negotiated not only by the imaginations of adults but also by nations markets history and children themselves Yet as much as the question is considered by the social world the contributions in this book remind readers that children are also active embodied and inquiring agents engaged in figuring a relationship with that the world they inherit This book s unifying theme The child in question emerges from an assertion that childhood has boundaries far more elastic than can be held by the familiar notion of the innocent child developing toward a heteronormative future The title pays homage to the work of sociologist Diana Gittins who over twenty years ago asked how the shifting meanings of children and childhood impact the lives of children The contributions of this book examine contemporary educational policy and practice curriculum material literary and visual representations and teacher narratives to further probe how and why it matters that childhood as a concept and experience remains as multiple and elusive as ever The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of the journal Curriculum Inquiry

Horror Television in the Age of Consumption Kimberly Jackson,Linda Belau,2017-11-15
