Speaking Of Silents First Ladies Of The Screen:

Speaking of Silents William M. Drew, 1989 A fascinating portrait of the early silver screen through interviews with ten of its most glamorous stars The Image of Librarians in Cinema, 1917-1999 Ray Tevis, Brenda Tevis, 2015-03-26 From its earliest days to the present the onscreen image of the librarian has remained largely the same A silent 1921 film set the precedent for two female librarian characters a dowdy spinster wears glasses and a bun hairstyle and an attractive young woman is overworked and underpaid Silent films however employed a variety of characteristics for librarians showed them at work on many different tasks and featured them in a range of dramatic romantic and comedic situations The sound era during which librarians appeared in more than 200 films frequently exaggerated these characteristics and situations strongly influencing the general image of librarians This chronologically arranged work analyzes the stereotypical image of librarians male and female in primarily American and British motion pictures from the silent era to the 21st century The work briefly describes each film offering some critical commentary and then examines its librarian considering every aspect of the total character from socio economic conditions and motivations for leaving or not leaving the library to personal attributes such as clothing hair and age and entanglements with the opposite sex to commonly used props plot situations and lines Shush The work comments on whether librarians and library work are depicted accurately and analyzes the development of the public's image of a librarian The accompanying filmography lists librarian characters and notes stereotypes such as buns and eyeglasses With bibliography and index Buster Keaton: Cut to the Chase Marion Meade, 2014-04-01 An American icon Joseph Frank Buster Keaton is easily acknowledged as one of the greatest filmmakers in early cinema and beyond His elaborate slapstick made audiences scream with laughter But his stone face hid an internal turmoil In BUSTER KEATON CUT TO THE CHASE biographer Marion Meade seamlessly lays out the life and works of this comedy genius who lacked any formal education Buster made his name as a child of vaudeville thrown around the stage by his father in a cartoon pantomime of very real abuse The lessons he carried forward from that experience translated into some of the greatest silent films of all time Keaton wrote directed performed and edited dozens of features and shorts including his masterpiece The General However those early scars also led to decades of drinking and mistreatment of women Keaton saw huge successes Hollywood sex scandals years of neglect from studios and audiences and finally a shaky resurrection that assured his place in Hollywood's film canon Meticulously researched this book brings together four years of research and hundreds of interviews to paint a nuanced portrait of a compelling artist No comedy fan or film buff should miss this insider story of the man behind the stone face Victor Fleming Michael Sragow, 2013-12-10 This definitive biography chronicles the life and work of the legendary director of Gone With the Wind and The Wizard of Oz Victor Fleming was the most sought after director in Hollywood's golden age renowned for his work across an astounding range of genres from gritty westerns to screwball comedies romances boddy pictures and family entertainment Yet this chameleon like versatility has resulted in his relative obscurity today despite his having directed two of the most iconic movies of all time Fleming is best remembered for Gone With the Wind and The Wizard of Oz but he directed more than forty films including classics like Red Dust Test Pilot Dr Jekyll and Mr Hyde and Captains Courageous Fleming created enduring screen personas for Clark Gable Spencer Tracy and Gary Cooper as well as for Ingrid Bergman Clara Bow and Norma Shearer who were among his many lovers In this definitive biography Michael Sragow restores the director to the pantheon of great American filmmakers correcting a major oversight in Hollywood history It is the dramatic story of a man at the center of the most exciting period in American filmmaking

Silent Players Anthony Slide, 2010-09-12 From his unique perspective of friendship with many of the actors and actresses about whom he writes silent film historian Anthony Slide creates vivid portraits of the careers and often eccentric lives of 100 players from the American silent film industry He profiles the era's shining stars such as Lillian Gish and Blanche Sweet leading men including William Bakewell and Robert Harron gifted leading ladies such as Laura La Plante and Alice Terry ingénues like Mary Astor and Mary Brian and even Hollywood's most famous extra Bess Flowers Although each original essay is accompanied by significant documentation and an extensive bibliography Silent Players is not simply a reference book or encyclopedic recitation of facts culled from the pages of fan magazines and trade periodicals It contains a series of insightful portraits of the characters who symbolize an original and pioneering era in motion history and explores their unique talents and extraordinary private lives Slide offers a potentially revisionist view of many of the stars he profiles repudiating the status of some and restoring to fame others who have slipped from view He personally interviewed many of his subjects and knew several of them intimately putting him in a distinctive position to tell their true stories

Stuntwomen Mollie Gregory, 2015-11-19 Gives voice to the women who have risked their lives for a few perilous moments on the big screen A fascinating look at a risky profession The Washington Post They've traded punches in knockdown brawls crashed biplanes through barns and raced to the rescue in fast cars They add suspense and drama to the story portraying the swimmer stalked by the menacing shark the heroine dangling twenty feet below a soaring hot air balloon or the woman leaping nine feet over a wall to escape a dog attack Only an expert can make such feats of daring look easy and stuntwomen with the skills to perform and survive great moments of action in movies have been hitting their mark in Hollywood since the beginning of film Here Mollie Gregory presents the first history of stuntwomen in the film industry from the silent era to the twenty first century In the early years of motion pictures women were highly involved in all aspects of film production but they were marginalized as movies became popular and more important profitable Capable stuntwomen were replaced by men in wigs and very few worked between the 1930s and 1960s As late as the 1990s men wore wigs and women s clothes to double as actresses and were even painted down for some performances while men and women of color were regularly denied stunt work For decades stuntwomen have faced institutional discrimination unequal pay and sexual harassment even as they jumped from speeding trains and raced horse drawn carriages away from burning buildings Featuring sixty five interviews Stuntwomen showcases the absorbing stories and uncommon courage of women who make their living planning and performing action packed sequences that keep viewers hearts racing Syd Chaplin Lisa K. Stein,2014-01-10 This is the first study of the life and art of Sydney Chaplin Charlie Chaplin s brother a person notable not only for his importance in establishing his brother s career but in several other early Hollywood enterprises including the founding of United Artists and the Syd Chaplin Aircraft Corporation America s first domestic airline Sydney also had a successful film career beginning in 1914 with Keystone and culminating with a string of popular films for Warner Bros in the 1920s Sydney s film career ended in 1929 because of an assault charge by an actress This incident proved to be only the last in a string of scandals each causing him to move to another place another studio or another business venture Gloria Swanson Tricia Welsch,2013-07-27 A biography of the Queen of Hollywood and her decades of successes and comebacks in film art fashion and journalism The Last Silent Picture Show William M.

Drew,2010-08-27 In 1927 The Jazz Singer heralded a revolution in the moviemaking industry with the advent of synchronized sound in full length motion pictures While movie studios adapted their production facilities to accommodate the new technology and movie theatres converted to sound filmmakers continued to produce silents albeit in dwindling numbers And though talkies would overtake the industry and the public s demand soon enough the silent motion picture did not disappear immediately The Last Silent Picture Show Silent Films on American Screens in the 1930s looks at this cultural shift Drawing primarily on contemporary records this book details the fate of an entire art form the silent cinema in the United States during the 1930s and how it managed to survive the onslaught of sound Through the most diverse venues from tent shows to universities political meetings to picture palaces ghetto theaters to art houses the silent film continued to play an important role in American culture in the Depression years culminating in the first efforts to chronicle and preserve cinema history Through the voices of the audiences critics editors and artists Drew relates the impact of various silent films whether new releases reissues or foreign imports on the public and culture of the 30s how they affected both the popular and intellectual environment and how they were promoted for their audiences Providing an in depth examination of the transitional period which led to the birth of modern film studies The Last Silent Picture Show is aimed not only at academics but also the large

The Griffith Project, Volume 12 Paolo Cherchi Usai, 2019-07-25 THE GRIFFITH PROJECT Paolo Cherchi Usai General Editor Volume 12 Essays on D W Griffith Edited by Paolo Cherchi Usai and Cynthia Rowell With contributions by William M Drew Helmut F rber Andr Gaudreault Philippe Gauthier Lea Jacobs Joyce Jesionowski Charlie Keil Richard Koszarski Arthur Lennig Pat Loughney David Mayer Russell Merritt Jan Olsson Paul Spehr Yuri Tsivian Linda Williams In early 1996 an international group of 35 specialists in silent cinema volunteered to write commentaries on more than six hundred films directed written produced and supervised by D W Griffith or featuring him as a performer for the eleven volume series The Griffith Project the largest monograph ever assembled on an individual film director in conjunction with the massive retrospective held at the Pordenone Silent Film Festival from 1996 to 2008 All authors involved in The Griffith Project were bound to strict editorial rules most notably the fact that all titles in the series would be assigned to them in pre determined groups rather than as a result of their own individual preference for this or that specific entry The patience and commitment demonstrated by all scholars in this endeavor requires at least a symbolic recognition We therefore invited the members of the project team to write an essay on a D W Griffith related topic of their own choice The papers included in this volume constitute the response to our carte blanche invitation Our offer was also extended to other experts on D W Griffith who for various reasons were unable to participate in The Griffith Project but consistently supported it with their generous advice and insight This volume brings The Griffith Project to completion as 2008 sees the last installment of the D W Griffith program at the Pordenone Silent Film Festival with the screening of his films produced between 1925 and 1931 Not surprisingly twelve years of research on D W Griffith have unearthed an impressive wealth of knowledge but also an equally amazing array of new questions certainly enough of them to fill several more volumes Some of them including the increasingly complex issue of D W Griffith's role as production supervisor are only introduced or barely mentioned here but we are confident that what we have called the Griffith Project will continue at the Giornate and elsewhere with more research and newly found or preserved prints PAOLO CHERCHI USAI is Director of the National Film and Sound Archive of Australia He is co founder of the Pordenone Silent Film Festival and of the L Jeffrey Selznick School of Film Preservation at George Eastman House Rochester New York He directed the experimental feature film Passio 2007 His latest book is David Wark Griffith Editrice Il Castoro 2008
