

A still from a video. The scene is a silhouette of a person standing on a dark, possibly metallic, structure that looks like a fence or a wall. The person is facing away from the camera, looking out over a vast, flat, and hazy landscape. The sky is a pale, hazy blue, and the ground is a mix of light and dark patches, suggesting a dry, open area. The overall color palette is muted, with a lot of greys and blues, giving it a somber or contemplative feel.

Three-Quarters: War's Resilience and Our Peace Pasquale De Marco, 2025-07-14 In a world scarred by the ravages of war the yearning for peace echoes through the hearts of humanity Three Quarters War's Resilience and Our Peace embarks on a profound journey exploring the intricate relationship between war and peace resilience and reconciliation challenges and opportunities This thought provoking book delves into the enduring legacy of war examining its far reaching consequences on individuals societies and the fabric of human existence It unveils the lessons learned and forgotten the ripple effects that transcend generations and the imperative to break the cycle of violence Yet amidst the devastation and despair the indomitable spirit of humanity shines through The crucible of conflict often ignites innovation and progress fostering unity and empathy where once there was division This book celebrates the resilience of the human spirit showcasing the remarkable capacity to overcome adversity and build bridges across divides Three Quarters underscores the significance of diplomacy conflict resolution and education as cornerstones of peacebuilding It emphasizes the power of dialogue in transforming adversarial relationships the importance of addressing root causes of conflict and the vital role of education in cultivating a culture of peace The path to reconciliation is paved with challenges but this book offers a beacon of hope It highlights the transformative power of acknowledgment apology forgiveness and empathy in healing the wounds of the past By promoting understanding and reconciliation societies can embark on a journey towards a shared future rooted in peace and harmony Three Quarters envisions a world where the fruits of peace flourish It paints a picture of economic prosperity social progress cultural exchange and environmental stewardship It challenges readers to imagine a world without war a world where creativity innovation and human potential can thrive unhindered If you like this book write a review

Learning to Speak Christian Stanley Hauerwas, 2014-07-24 The crucial challenge for theology is that when it is read the reader thinks This is true Recognizing claims that are true enables readers to identify an honest expression of life's complexities The trick is to show that theological claims the words that must be used to speak of God are necessary if the theologian is to speak honestly of the complexities of life The worst betrayal of the task of theology comes when the theologian fears that the words he or she must use are not necessary Memoir of David Hale David Hale, Joseph Parrish Thompson, 1850 The Works Of The Learned and Faithful Minister of Gods Word, Mr. William Fenner ... William Fenner, 1651 Recognition and Revelation Margaret Laurence, 2020-09-23 Margaret Laurence best known for her germinal novels set in the Canadian prairies is one of the nation's most respected authors She was also an accomplished essayist yet today her nonfiction writing is largely unavailable and therefore little known In Recognition and Revelation Nora Foster Stovel brings together Laurence's short nonfiction works including many that have not previously been collected and some that have never before been published These works including over fifty essays and addresses that span Laurence's writing career from the 1960s to the 1980s reveal her passionate concern for Canadian literature and for the land and peoples of Canada Based on extensive archival research Stovel s introduction contextualizes Laurence s nonfiction writings in her life as a creative artist and political activist and as a woman writing in the twentieth century The texts range from essays on Laurence s own writings and on other works of Canadian literature to autobiographical essays several focusing on environmental concerns to sociopolitical essays and writing advocating for peace and nuclear disarmament By revealing Laurence as a socially and politically committed artist this collection of lively and provocative essays illuminates the undercurrents of her creative writing and places her fiction often informed by her nonfiction writing in a new light Speak Your Healing from the Homosexual Deception Bonnie M. Egglehand,2014-10-08 The lies of homosexuality dissipate because a life of purity in Christ Jesus decidedly removes the homosexual deception Each step toward Jesus brings us closer to His image and we are changed We emerge free to be exactly whom Father God created us to be Leaving all secrets with honesty and transparency before God and man forgiving ourselves and all abusers we emerge in our true identity with a heterosexual desire This desire for the opposite sex is as natural as apple pie Leaving the judgments the facades the sins and all idols the stark truth remains Our true identity is found in Jesus Christ alone The Works of W. Fenner William FENNER (B.D.),1657

Speak to It! Bishop Dr. Barbara Ward Farmer,2014-09-18 Speak to it is the first non musical book of Dr Barbara Ward Farmer that deals with helping and assuring all readers that silence is not golden when you are sick beaten rejected or being denied of the essence and promise of life itself This book will give the reader a deeper insight on the authority and power one has to speak over speak into and speak about the walls barriers giants and death itself that often hinder block and even eliminate our faith in God to trust him to change our situations just by taking the courage to speak to those things that are not as though they were Resources in education ,1988-08 Our Journal ,1915 The Fruit of the Spirit Al L. Holloway,2008-11 Though the schism of valuing spirituality with respect to social work practice has lessened over the years there continues to be a gap in our understanding as to exactly what spirituality is and how one might incorporate it within social work practice It is my contention that social workers should not only be incorporating spirituality within their practice but also they should become spiritual exemplars themselves Fruit of the Spirit A Primer for Spiritually minded Social Workers provides some provocative notions that will spur the reader forward on his her spiritual development It introduces to the reader the notion of spiritual differentiation from the animalistic notion of self which I describe as the indifferent heart realm to the development of humanistic principles craving heart realm to the ultimate experience of our purposeful journey of being fully cognizant of our spiritual selves pure heart realm This process is exemplified with a gardening metaphor which the reader can progress from seeding awareness of one s spiritual self and the sowing of spiritual seeds weeding the structure and care of developing our spiritual selves and the harvesting the ingesting and granting of spiritual fruits that has been produced Traditional knowledge of social work practice helps to elucidate the student whereas embracing spiritual principles is about transforming and transcending the student to higher levels The fruits that are gathered are the attributes of God e g love peace goodness etc There are exercises at the end of each chapter that will assist the reader in developing his her spirituality     The Scottish Christian herald ,1840     The Church of England Magazine ,1843     God Is at Eye Level Jan Phillips,2000-05-01 For amateurs and professionals alike this book is the story of photography s power to renew the spirit Jan Phillips helps us transform sight into vision leading us to see that images can be mirrors for our deepest truths even in our simple snapshots The real thing about photography Jan says is that it brings you home to yourself connects you to what fulfills your deepest longings Every step in the process is a step toward the light an encounter with the God who is at eye level whose image I see wherever I look There s something holy about this work Like the pilgrim s journey it s heaven all the way     Be the One You Need Sophia A.
