Christian Nurture Series ... ,1917      Sunbeam stories, a selection of the tales by the author of 'A trap to catch a sunbeam'. Matilda Anne Mackarness,1870

Praises, Prayers, and Curses Richard H. Schmidt,2005 Schmidt presents a bold yet refreshing prism of grace on each of the 150 most misinterpreted songs in all of Scripture Countering the notion of the Psalms as meek mild and honey coated he tackles the despair and hurt of the psalmists head on wrestling intimately with some of his own dark places The result is as if to see the Psalms for the first time or for the uninitiated to see in them God s truth and wisdom for his people in all times and seasons

God's Empowered People Steven M. Fettke,2010-12-15 Professional ministers and their work as church leaders have dominated church and pastoral ministry studies Lay ministry studies have been neglected In the local church lay ministries are often defined solely by their voluntary service in the local church and even then are regarded as secondary to the work of the professional minister s leading the local church This study proposes that the word minister should be applied to all believers and that professional ministers and their ministries should serve the larger group doing ministry the laity Lay ministry should not be understood only as that service done in the local church but should be understood as a call received and obeyed by the laity to do the work of ministry in their work places and their neighborhoods as well as their local churches Following Amos Yong's theology of disability and the formation of the L'Arche communities found throughout the world this God's Empowered People will show how the local church can welcome all in Christ's name into a community of the Spirit in which people are loved and respected for who they are. From such a welcoming loving and respectful community can come people of varying abilities who discover their special gifts of ministry then take their gifts into the work world market place and neighborhoods to do the work of ministry in Christ's name. They will be able to go places and do things no professional minister could go or do yet still need the professional minister to help prepare them to do the work of ministry. Thus professional and lay ministries are not competitive but complementary. In such a community of professional and lay ministries operating cooperatively all have the opportunity to express wisely their gifts in their arenas of calling and influence.

Indian Fairy Tales, 1880      God's Eagles, Athletes and Pilgrims Haide S. Sanchez, 2015-06-05 Those who hope in the Lord will renew their strength. They will soar on wings like eagles; they will run and not grow weary, they will walk and not be faint. Isaiah 40v31 NIV. You were created to be an eagle soaring with divine revelation, an athlete running races for God, and a pilgrim walking this earth on your way to a glorious future. This weekly devotional based on Isaiah 40v31 explores what it means to be God's eagle, athlete, and pilgrim and interweaves with this theme the stories and testimonies of people with diverse backgrounds and from different countries. This book will inspire, encourage, exhort, and teach you to view your circumstances and to live your life from a Biblical perspective. This is a fine collection of real people's stories, their challenges, their successes, and their failures, and ultimately their encounters with a gracious, powerful God who has an incredible plan for each one of us. Haide Sanchez intertwines the stories with scriptural insights and challenges in a masterful way. A serious weekly devotional that will inspire the reader to truly soar, run, and walk with God. Marcus Mosey, Lancaster, England, Pastor, Christians Alive Church. This is a beautifully constructed book with detailed and well-researched scriptural references. I believe it will be a blessing and an inspiration to the reader and will be instrumental in bringing many closer to God. Mire Byrne, Dublin, Ireland, proof reader and blog site moderator. This book is awesome, insightful, and timely. It is one of the most interesting devotional books I have ever read, especially because of the stories or testimonies of real people of our decade from a wide swathe of nations and Christian denominations. The one per week devotion is very helpful to busy people for reflection and personal application. Gayle Haffner, Michigan, USA, author of Hands With a Heart: The Personal Biography of Actress ZaSu Pitts, c 2011, Biography First Place International Book Awards.
