New York Chapter, 1928 Special Libraries as Knowledge Management Centres Eva Semertzaki, 2011-06-24 This book focuses on the role of special libraries as knowledge management centres in their organisations It describes the work of a special library and the special library draws on the characteristics that make the nucleus of collecting and organising knowledge which is used for the benefit of the institution By acquiring and sharing knowledge staff will enhance the intellectual capital of the institution Traditionally libraries are the information centres that organise and classify information Further on they are the proper places to create human networks and to organise the knowledge hidden in the minds of the staff This book also examines methods to prove the value of a special library for the parent organisation when it becomes the centre to gather knowledge Draws on the characteristics that make a special library necessary for an organisation Shows the importance of knowledge management in an organisational environment Provides ways to persuade the management of an organisation that the special library is the proper centre for knowledge management Special Libraries James M. Matarazzo Ph.D., Toby Pearlstein, 2013-04-23 Learn why special or corporate libraries must align with their parent organizations in order to survive in these difficult economic times and how to foster and demonstrate this critical relationship Special Libraries A Survival Guide analyzes what has happened and is still continuing to happen to corporate libraries in order to identify the strategies that must be taken to protect their staff's survival Through a careful examination of a series of case studies of corporate library reductions and closures authors James M Matarazzo and Toby Pearlstein suggest key strategies tactics and survival tools that all types of special library managers can use to minimize their chances of becoming a victim The book underscores the importance of collecting data as a survival tool Additionally it identifies what needs to be taught to students currently enrolled in library and information science LIS programs to give them a leg up in careers This advocacy book is essential reading for staff at special corporate libraries in the English speaking world who wish to retain their positions but it also contains information applicable to today's academic public and even school libraries It is appropriate for students in the field of library and information science LIS faculty and corporate executives responsible for the management of the information function
