American Institute of Architects,2011-09-26 Written by The American Institute of Architects this is the definitive textbook on practice issues written specifically for architecture students Specifically written for emerging architects this is the first unabridged guide specifically for architecture students about to begin their careers It is required reading in a professional practice course that architecture students must take within their final two years of school Cutting Costs and Generating Revenues in Education Tim L. Adsit,George R. Murdock,2011 At no time in the history of public education has there been such a dramatic discrepancy between accelerated standards and expectations and adequate funding for our schools Much has been written about how to achieve new expectations in the realm of student achievement Much has also been written about the need for accountability and the restructuring of how education dollars are spent Unfortunately most of the input regarding the need for belt tightening is unaccompanied by any tangible solutions or suggestions and results only in hollow rhetoric or convenient political sound bytes Tim Adsit and George Murdock s journey into meaningful avenues for cost savings in public education is clearly an exception In this book readers will find many practical ideas for saving money which can be readily implemented Camera Craft ,1913 Overcoming Passive-Aggression, Revised Edition Tim Murphy,Loriann Oberlin,2016-10-25 In Overcoming Passive Aggression Dr Tim Murphy and Loriann Hoff Oberlin provide an in depth look at a topic we ve all faced but haven t always recognized Hidden anger When people don t express their views and feel compelled to conceal their true beliefs and emotions behaving in ways that don t match what they honestly think there can be serious physical and psychological results for everyone involved For the first time Murphy and Oberlin offer a clear definition of passive aggression and show readers not only how to end the behavior but also how to avoid falling victim to other people s hidden anger In clear compassionate language they cover everything from the childhood origins of the condition to the devastating effect it has on work and personal relationships to the latest research on the subject and offer practical proven strategies for the angry person as well as the individual who finds himself the target of someone else s passive aggression The Student's Business Methods Or Commercial Practice Arthur Fieldhouse,1906 Higher Education Outcomes Assessment for the Twenty-First Century Peter Hernon,Robert E. Dugan,Candy Schwartz,2013-05-09 This book discusses recent trends in outcomes assessment examines how state governments are reshaping the national discussion with higher education and explains how libraries must respond to these changes Higher Education Outcomes Assessment for the Twenty first Century focuses on recent developments in outcomes assessment especially from the perspectives of the federal government and state governments as well as foundations concerned about the state of higher education The authors identify the significant changes that these stakeholders call for information that academic librarians and anyone following outcomes assessment need to be aware of and interpret the discussions to identify implications for libraries Building upon the foundation of knowledge presented in the previous two Libraries Unlimited Outcomes Assessment in Higher Education titles this book provides readers with up to date coverage of topics such as the emerging metrics used to define student and institutional success the increased importance of accountability and the need to compare and assess the performance of programs and institutions rather than individual courses and the shift in prioritizing student outcomes over student learning outcomes The authors also spotlight the critical need for libraries to fit their role within the national discussion and suggest ways in which library managers and directors can play a role in redirecting the discussion to their benefit
