

Chapter 1: Why Communication Matters:

Objectives:

- Explore the importance of communication skills
- Examine your personal communication style
- Understand how identity influences communication choices

Introduction:

- According to Harvard psychologists it takes seven seconds to make a first impression
 - Individuals take this time to assess verbal and nonverbal cues and communication practices
- Most business executives are hiring managers found that the ability to communicate orally was ranked as the most important college learning outcome
 - Oral communication, along with leadership and team building are vital to long-term success in business
- Through effective oral communication skills, speakers have the opportunity to:
 - Advocate for important issues
 - Improve upward social mobility through presentation and interviewing skills
 - Create interpersonal connections that can make a huge difference in someone's life
- When information is discussed in a way that makes sense to everyone, information is accessible
 - Accessibility is an important component in persuasion
 - Developing strong oral communication skills can help to effectively share one's knowledge, experiences, and perspectives
 - And help make a positive difference in local and global communities
- How you decide to approach and frame a topic and orally present your thoughts can be a game changer
 - How we regularly communicate in our lives affects who wants to be our friend, the opportunities we get, and how we receive messages from others
 - How you communicate and model your communication may also influence what others think about you
 - Rightfully or wrongfully, everyone we interact with will assess our communication skills and will use these skills to determine who we are and who we could be

Communication Style:

- As individuals, we have agency in deciding what we want our communication style to be and how we want to communicate to and with the world around us
- As individuals we get to choose how we use words, develop ideas, and share our ideas, experiences and perspectives with others
