Purpose, Practice, and Pedagogy in Rhetorical Criticism Jim A. Kuypers, 2014-02-07 This edited volume fills a void in the literature concerning the purpose practice and pedagogy associated with performing rhetorical criticism Literature regarding these issues predominantly purpose exists primarily as scattered journal articles and as sections within chapters of textbooks on rhetorical criticism This book brings together 15 established rhetorical critics each of whom offers well thought out and argued opinion pieces that stress the more personal nature of criticism The purpose of this book is to serve as a disciplinary resource and as a teaching and learning aid Accessibility across areas of expertise and experience is stressed in this book Critics range from junior faculty to emeritus and represent a broad spectrum of views on criticism In this sense the book offers a snapshot of the views of a wide swath of successfully practicing contemporary rhetorical critics

Rhetoric and Human Consciousness Craig R. Smith, 2017-04-12 For two decades students and instructors have relied on award winning author Craig Smith's detailed description and analysis of rhetorical theories and the historical contexts for major thinkers who advanced them He employs key themes from important philosophical schools in this well researched chronicle of rhetoric and human consciousness One is that rhetoric is a response to uncertainty The modern philosophers like the naturalists of ancient Greece and the Scholastics who preceded them tried to end uncertainty by combining the discoveries of science and psychology with rationalism Their aim was progress and a consensus among experts as to what truth is However where modernism proved ineffective rhetoric was revived to fill the breach Another significant theme is that different conceptions of human consciousness lead to different theories of rhetoric and for every major school of thought another school of thought forms in reaction Classic and contemporary examples demonstrate the usefulness of rhetorical theory especially its ability to inform and guide By providing probes for rhetorical criticism discussions also demonstrate that rhetorical criticism illustrates verifies and refines rhetorical theory Thus the synergistic relationship between theory and criticism in rhetoric is no different than in other arts Theory informs practice analysis of successful practice refines theory Smith's absorbing study has been expanded to include thorough treatments of rhetoric in the Romantic Era feminist and queer theory and historical context for the creation of rhetorical theory and its use in public address

Communication Criticism Jodi R. Cohen, 1998-02-03 This book demonstrates how an understanding of the fundamental principles of communication will help in evaluating the effects effectiveness truthfulness and ethics of every kind of communication from traditional soapbox speeches to reading a magazine talking to a friend watching court proceedings or television news Jodi R Cohen's informally written critical guide introduces classical theories of rhetoric at the beginning of each chapter then expands the discussion with contemporary postmodern theories and concerns such as aesthetics and cultural bias There are question and answer sections in each chapter as well as many examples

Biblical Narrative Learning Tung Chiew Ha, 2015-10-02 Biblical narrative learning is a non critical educational approach for Christian communities with diverse learning backgrounds involving three sets of movement inquire and invent interpret and imagine inspire and imitate and impart It is grounded in humankind s universal capacity to teach and learn through stories and built on practices in narrative learning along with biblical narratives The Gospel of John provides a model for this interpretive process that continues the teaching of living in a loving relationship with God and one another John uses many literary devices to enhance an affective and reflective learning The literary devices create the familiar strange effect John s narrative fosters remembrance of the Story and guides the learner to adequate faith in God It inculcates adequate faith to wait in suspense while the Jesus Story and our stories when they are remembered create new understanding and transform the life experiences of the person
