The Spell of the Rockies Enos Abijah Mills, 2013-09 This historic book may have numerous typos and missing text Purchasers can usually download a free scanned copy of the original book without typos from the publisher Not indexed Not illustrated 1912 edition Excerpt when he imagined I was in danger then he was instantly alert for my defense When the stage overtook us and stopped to let me in he leaped in also and squatted by the driver with such an air of importance that I half expected to see him take the lines and drive I lost him in my rush to make the train at the station He could of course have kept with me had he been without fear or if he had really so desired As the train pulled out I saw him start down street with an air of unconscious confidence that told of wide experience He was a tramp dog The next time I saw him was several months later in Leadville some two hundred miles from where he left me

Where in the mean time he may have rambled what towns he may have visited or what good days or troubles he may have had I have no means of knowing I came walking into Leadville with snowshoes under my arm from two weeks snowshoeing and camping on the upper slopes of the Rockies The ends of broken tree limbs had torn numerous right angled triangles in my clothes my go6 of tfy goc6ie soft hat was unduly slouchy and fourteen nights intimate association with a camp fire along with only an infrequent indifferent contact with water had made me a sight to behold for dogs anyway On the outskirts one snarly cur noticed me and barked in a few minutes at least a dozen dogs were closely following and making me unwelcome to their haunts They grew bold with time numbers and closer inspection of me They crowded unpleasantly close Realizing that if one of them became courageous enough to make a snap at my legs all might follow his example I began to sidle out of the middle of the street intending to leap a fence close by and take refuge in a house Before I      The Spell of the Rockies Enos A.
