Teaching And Religious Imagination

Teaching And Religious Imagination:

Teaching and Christian Imagination David I. Smith, Susan M. Felch, 2016-01-15 This book offers an energizing Christian vision for the art of teaching. The authors, experienced teachers themselves, encourage teacher readers to reanimate their work by imagining it differently. David Smith and Susan Felch, along with Barbara Carvill, Kurt Schaefer, Timothy Steele, and John Witvliet, creatively use three metaphors: journeys and pilgrimages, gardens and wilderness, buildings and walls, to illuminate a fresh vision of teaching and learning. Stretching beyond familiar clichés, they infuse these metaphors with rich biblical echoes and theological resonances that will inform and inspire Christian teachers everywhere.

Teaching and religious imagination : an essay in the theology of teaching Maria Harris, 1991

Teaching and Religious Imagination Maria Harris, 1987 Explores the art of teaching as an activity of religious imagination in which the incarnation of subject matter leads to the revelation of knowledge.

Converting the Imagination Patrick R. Manning, 2020-05-15 For two thousand years, countless people around the world viewed reality through a Christian lens that endowed their lives with meaning, purpose, and coherence. Today, in an era of unprecedented secularization, many have ceased to find meaning, not only in Christianity but in life in general. In Converting the Imagination, Patrick Manning offers a probing analysis of this crisis of meaning, marshalling historical and psychological research to shed light on the connections among the disintegration of the Christian worldview, religious disaffiliation, and a growing mental health epidemic. As a response, Manning presents an approach to religious education that is at once traditionally grounded in the model of Jesus' own teaching and augmented by modern educational research and cognitive science. Converting the Imagination is an invitation to transform the way we teach about faith and make sense of the world; an invitation that echoes Jesus' invitation to a fuller, more meaningful life. It is sure to captivate scholars and practitioners of religious education, ministers seeking to reengage people who have drifted away from the faith, or to support young people suffering from existential anxiety, and anyone in search of deeper meaning in their religious traditions or in their own lives.

Preaching and Teaching with Imagination Warren W. Wiersbe, 1997-02-01 No more dreary three-point sermon outlines. Wiersbe coaches preachers to creatively proclaim the living Word so hearers experience God's truth, changing their lives.

Christian Education Curriculum for the Digital Generation Jong Soo Park, 2015-02-16 This book is about exploring and presenting a model of digital-based curriculum for Christian education suitable for the digital ways of learning, communicating, and thinking. Park discusses the limitations of analog-based curricula, most of current curricula, and necessities for digital-oriented ones. Then he provides a new model of curriculum: curriculum as software. Curriculum as software is a curricular framework for embracing digital culture like open flat network, service-centered management, interactive communication, and offline/online hybrid learning space. It consists of four spiral stages: analysis, design, simulation, and service. In the process of designing units, 4R Movement, a new learning theory, is utilized to encourage today's young people to construct their own knowledge after critically analyzing various resources of

Embodied Hope Veronice Miles,2021-12-29 Embodied Hope explores implications of an embodied theology of hope for preachers ability to nurture imaginative abundance and purposeful hope filled action in the most chaotic of times Embodied hope is grounded in a theological anthropology that foregrounds humanity s inherent identity as imago Dei and capacity to live as a nondistorting nondestructive reflection of God s presence in the earth The conceptual metaphor embodied Hope represents that which creates within each of us yearning for wholeness and well being the always speaking voice of God s Spirit assuring us of God s power faithfulness and redemptive presence and calling us toward loving just and restorative action in our world today Humans possess the capacity to imagine and live toward a qualitatively better state of existence for all creation but overwhelmed by the despairing realities of life we often feel despondent and drained of imaginative potential Preaching amplifies the voice of Hope bearing witness and inviting us to imagine the possibility and efficacy of a new reality grounded in Jesus s gospel proclamation Embodied Hope invites us to stand at the intersection of Hope and despair as we explore the contours and possibilities of living with Hope in times such as the present

Christian Education and the Emerging Church Wendi Sargeant,2015-07-24 All signs point to Christian education having lost its theological location and prominence in the life of the Western Protestant church The Emerging Church movement as an intentionally postmodern approach to ministry in the contemporary context may however offer insights to reinterpret Christian education This significant movement in today s church gives Christian education a new interpretive framework that is theologically located at an intersection of doxology and doctrine In her examination of postmodern faith formation Wendi Sargeant explores the importance of the Christian worshipping community as the most appropriate setting for Christian education Practitioners and students will benefit from the ready to use teaching and learning matrix and all those with interest in the formation of faith in themselves and others will draw much from the way Sargeant situates worship as the basis for enhancing Christian formation and ethos

Teaching Religion and Film Gregory J Watkins,2008-08-22 In a culture increasingly focused on visual media students have learned not only to embrace multimedia presentations in the classroom but to expect them Such expectations are perhaps more prevalent in a field as dynamic and cross disciplinary as religious studies but the practice nevertheless poses some difficult educational issues the use of movies in academic coursework has far outpaced the scholarship on teaching religion and film What does it mean to utilize film in religious studies and what are the best ways to do it In Teaching Religion and Film an interdisciplinary team of scholars thinks about the theoretical and pedagogical concerns involved with the intersection of film and religion in the classroom They examine the use of film to teach specific religious traditions religious theories and perspectives on fundamental human values Some instructors already teach some version of a film and religion course and many have integrated film as an ancillary to achieving central course goals This collection of essays helps them understand the field better and draws the sharp distinction between merely watching movies in the classroom and comprehending film in an informed and critical way The art teaching of the primitive Church Richard St. John Tyrwhitt, 1874 ... How to Teach Religion George Herbert Betts, 1919 Location, Space and Place in Religious Education Martin Rothgangel, Kerstin von Brömssen, Hans-Günter Heimbrock, Geir Skeie, 2017 People form attachments to their home their neighbourhood and environment to the region and nation to which they belong They express feelings about space and place especially so in globalized times In religious studies in theology and in education there is a growing interest in spatial theories either as constructed within national borders or within international and transnational spaces The spatial turn has become an acknowledged term in interdisciplinary discourses Although every practice of religious education is situated and contextually dependent religious education RE research until now has not systematically paid attention to this fundamental insight This volume is devoted specifically to clarifying the close relationship between RE practice and spatial and situational conditions After clarifying the main concepts in Part 1 Part 2 includes chapters related to classroom studies while Part 3 focuses on studies about teachers of religious education Part 4 contains studies beyond the classroom such as school chapels churches and inner space All contributions to this volume were developed in the context of the European Network for Religious Education through Contextual Approaches ENRECA which has focused recently on the central issue of space and place Educating Clergy Charles R. Foster, 2006 Based on extensive literary and field research involving surveys classroom observations and interviews with faculty students and administrators in Roman Catholic mainline and evangelical Protestant and Reform and Conservative Jewish seminaries Educating Clergy explores the influence of their historic traditions and academic settings in contemporary classroom and communal pedagogies The book describes elements in classroom pedagogies shared across these religious traditions that distinctively integrate the cognitive practical and normative apprenticeships to be found in all forms of professional education The Art Teaching of the Primitive Church; with an Index of Subjects, Historical and Emblematic, Etc Richard Saint John TYRWHITT, 1874 Teaching Religion and Literature Daniel Boscaljon, Alan Levinovitz, 2018-09-27 Teaching Religion and Literature provides a practical engagement with the pedagogical possibilities of teaching religion courses using literature teaching literature classes using religion and teaching Religion and Literature as a discipline Featuring chapters written by award winning teachers from a variety of institutional settings the book gives anyone interested in providing interdisciplinary education a set of questions resources and tools that will deepen a classroom's engagement with the field Chapters are grounded in specific texts and religious questions but are oriented toward engaging general pedagogical issues that allow each chapter to improve any instructor's engagement with interdisciplinary education The book offers resources to
