That We Might Have Joy:

That We Might Have Joy Howard W. Hunter, 1994 The Last Sermon of Christ Michael E. Cannon Jr., 2012-06-04 Let not your hearts be troubled The opening words from John 14 frame the balance of this sermon to the disciples Immediately following the Passover supper and the washing of their feet our Lord preaches one last sermon to his faithful friends and disciples a sermon full of longing full of promise full of hope and full of disclosures about their future the work of the Holy Spirit and key verses supporting the doctrine of the Trinity John 14 16 presents a fascinating farewell address from Jesus to his disciples These chapters show us the heart of our Savior and his love for his disciples in a time of anxiety not only their anxiety but his own as he knows that the shadow of the cross has now grown dark across him and there is no place else for him to go No ministry remains for him now except to these disciples and then ultimately to the cross itself Even as he in his own humanity was troubled in the prospect of his suffering he turned to minister to the disciples in their time of trouble

The Deepest Belonging Kara K. Root,2021-06-01 Where does God meet us in this life Rooting Christian faith in joy freedom and trust that God interacts with us in this life The Deepest Belonging A Story of Discovering Where God Meets Us invites readers to walk through surprising doorways weakness vulnerability smallness rest and honesty into a new perspective of the Christian life and the role of the pastor Kara Root draws wisdom from three compelling stories all about finding freedom on the other side of fear In one thread Marty a member of the small congregation Root serves learns that he is dying In the second Root finds that her once invincible faith of assurance and answers collapses These stories come together in a third when the congregation does a unique and counterintuitive thing it commissions Marty to a ministry of dying By embracing instead of fleeing death Marty this community and Root herself are infused with life through shared experiences of God They learn to be vulnerable and brave They discover again and profoundly an unguarded faith of wondering and watching for God s presence This is a book for all pastors and church leaders as well as for those disillusioned with Christianity and the church and longing for something more real and honest It explores questions such as How does God meet us What is church for What is a pastor What does it mean to be truly human The Deepest Belonging is a call not to resist but to embrace our vulnerability As a move away from religion seeking security protection and influence this story invites individuals and congregations to return bravely to the core of our humanity our belonging to God and one another
