Purchasers can usually download a free scanned copy of the original book without typos from the publisher. Not indexed. Not illustrated. 1897 edition. Excerpt: captain anyhow I can hardly stand the fellow's insufferable airs. Neither can I chimed in Willie. He it, alwayth after me for going out at night. He got after me too, said Snowden, who was now enjoying his third dish of ice cream. But I shut him up pretty quick. He knows now that there is one man in the team who is not afraid of him. I've a good nothyun, said Willie, to give him a trounthing after the game. Oh, please don't. Willie cried, the society young lady of fourteen clasping her hands together and looking beseechingly into Willie's heroic face. Well, for your thake, answered Willie magnanimously. I'll not do it. I shall control mythelf. The two then made eyes at each other and for the time being were perfectly contented with themselves and the world of which they reckoned themselves shining ornaments. But really it is time to return to the eleven. Besides the regular players Harry Archer and George Hastings were in attendance. Hastings as substitute and Archer as chief counsellor. I suppose Ernest Snowden is taking advantage of the fact that there is no one to fill his place to do just what he pleases, grumbled Dockery. Yes, assented Claude, with the nearest thing to a sigh that could proceed from a boy of his sunny disposition. I've had to swallow a lot of insolence from him. But what can I do? I asked Mr. Keenan about him several times and he told me to follow my own judgment. But when you haven't a man to take his place, where does the judgment come in? Oh, the little less, and That football game and what came of it Francis James Finn, The Cowhide - A High School Football Tradition John David Fischer, 2005 Across the country are hundreds of high school football rivalries. Each might lay claim that it is special in many ways. In the heart of the great central valley of California is one such rivalry that is exceptional in its power over the people who have been part of it. Two high schools, Redwood and Mt. Whitney, began playing an annual football game against each other in 1955. The 50th game of this traditional rivalry was played in 2004 before 10,000 fans and a live television audience. The two schools, located only a few blocks from each other in Visalia, California, a city of 100,000 people, have maintained this intense rivalry for over 50 years like very few schools have ever done The game is played before a packed stadium every year and the community claims it as the biggest event during the entire year Part 1 explores the history of the Cowhide game relating the early humble beginning when the original high school split into two schools The evolution of the game over 50 years is explored Using hundreds of questionnaires newspaper accounts and many interviews with those involved over the years the real meaning of the Cowhide tradition is explored and the reasons are brought out as to why this rivalry has not only endured but has actually increased in strength over the years Part 2 gives a detailed account of each of the 50 games including the teams records coming into the game the results of any subsequent playoffs and a complete roster of the teams for each year The article of the local newspaper about the game is included in each chapter At the end is an appendix of stats a listing of head and assistant coaches and other interesting items over the years Finally there is an index of all the players who played in the game and what years they played
