Walker,2013-08-08 After the end of World War II General George Patton declared that artillery had won the war Yet howitzers did not achieve victory on their own Crucial to the success of these big guns were forward observers artillerymen on the front lines who directed the artillery fire Until now the vital role of forward observers in ground combat has received little scholarly attention In Bracketing the Enemy John R Walker remedies this oversight by offering the first full length history of forward observer teams during World War II As early as the U S Civil War artillery fire could reach as far as two miles but without an FO forward observer to report where the first shot had landed in relation to the target and to direct subsequent fire by outlining or bracketing the targeted range many of the advantages of longer range fire were wasted During World War II FOs accompanied infantrymen on the front lines Now for the first time gun crews could bring deadly accurate fire on enemy positions immediately as advancing riflemen encountered these enemy strongpoints According to Walker this transition from direct to indirect fire was one of the most important innovations to have occurred in ground combat in centuries Using the 37th Division in the Pacific Theater and the 87th in Europe as case studies Walker presents a vivid picture of the dangers involved in FO duty and shows how vitally important forward observers were to the success of ground operations in a variety of scenarios FO personnel not only performed a vital support function as artillerymen but often transcended their combat role by fighting as infantrymen sometimes even leading soldiers into battle And yet although forward observers lived fought and bled with the infantry they were ineligible to wear the Combat Infantryman s Badge awarded to the riflemen they supported Forward observers are thus among the unsung heroes of World War II Bracketing the Enemy signals a long overdue recognition of their distinguished service

Rommel's Desert Commanders Samuel W. Mitcham Jr., 2007-02-28 Perhaps the most famous and admired soldier to fight in World War II was Field Marshal Erwin Rommel who achieved immortality as the Desert Fox Rommel's first field command during the war was the 7th Panzer Division also known as the Ghost Division which he led in France in 1940

During this campaign the 7th Panzer suffered more casualties than any other division in the German Army at the same time inflicting a disproportionate number of casualties upon the enemy It took 97 486 prisoners captured 458 tanks and armored vehicles 277 field guns 64 anti tank guns and 4 000 to 5 000 trucks It captured or destroyed hundreds of tons of other military equipment shot down 52 aircraft destroyed 15 more aircraft on the ground and captured 12 additional planes It destroyed the French 1st Armored Division and the 4th North African Division punched through the Maginot Line extension near Sivry and checked the largest Allied counteroffensive of the campaign at Arras When France surrendered the Ghost Division was within 200 miles of the Spanish border No doubt about it Rommel had proven himself a great military leader who was capable of greater things His next command in fact would be the Afrika Korps where the legend of the Desert Fox was born Rommel had a great deal of help in France much more than his published papers suggest His staff officers and company battalion and regimental commanders were an extremely capable collection of military leaders that included 12 future generals two of them SS and two colonels who briefly commanded panzer divisions but never reached general rank They also included Colonel Erich von Unger who would no doubt have become a general had he not been killed in action while commanding a motorized rifle brigade on the Eastern Front in 1941 as well as Karl Hanke a Nazi gauleiter who later succeeded Heinrich Himmler as the last Reichsfuehrer SS No historian has ever recognized the talented cast of characters who supported the Desert Fox in 1940 No one has ever attempted to tell their stories This book remedies that deficiency

Germany. Heer,1930 Under the Southern Cross Thomas McKelvey Cleaver,2021-05-13 A vivid narrative history of the Solomons and New Guinea campaigns of World War II which represented key turning points in the U S Navy s campaign against the Japanese in the Pacific From August 7 1942 until February 24 1944 the US Navy fought the most difficult campaign in its history Between the landing of the 1st Marine Division on Guadalcanal and the final withdrawal of the Imperial Japanese Navy from its main South Pacific base at Rabaul the US Navy suffered such high personnel losses that for years it refused to publicly release total casualty figures The Solomons campaign saw the US Navy at its lowest point forced to make use of those ships that had survived the Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor and other units of the pre war navy that had been hastily transferred to the Pacific 140 days after the American victory at Midway USS Enterprise was the only pre war carrier left in the South Pacific and the US Navy would have been overwhelmed in the face of Japanese naval power had there been a third major fleet action At the same time another under resourced campaign had broken out on the island of New Guinea The Japanese attempt to reinforce their position there had led to the Battle of the Coral Sea in May and through to the end of the year American and Australian armed forces were only just able to prevent a Japanese conquest of New Guinea The end of 1942 saw the Japanese stopped in both the Solomons and New Guinea but it would take another 18 hard fought months before Japan was forced to retreat from the South Pacific Under the Southern Cross draws on extensive first hand accounts and new analysis to examine the Solomons and New Guinea campaigns which laid the groundwork for Allied victory in the Pacific War

The Complete Clarksburg Ohio World War II Guide Victor Cleary, 2012-01-19 The Complete Clarksburg Ohio World War II Guide is one of the country s most thorough case studies analyzing one village s involvement during WWII Research letters a veteran index and over 80 photographs highlight the service of 222 veterans from Clarksburg who served our country and details a number of experiences from training to battle Clarksburg sent one in five of its residents to war when the national average was one in eight and an astounding 45%% of Clarksburg s infantrymen and just over one third of its aerial crewmembers were either killed or wounded Even more noteworthy was the high number of aircraft crashes suffered by Clarksburg s heavy bomber crews Even though Clarksburg had its share of decorated soldiers a majority of the village s veterans filled common roles They were common men called upon every day to face uncommon responsibilities and a significant number found themselves in positions of authority and in a place to perform heroically in some of the war s fiercest battles
