The 7th Dawn:

The 7th Dawn Michael Keon, 1961 The 7th Dawn, 1964 Cinema and Unconventional Warfare in the Twentieth Century Paul B. Rich, 2018-08-23 Cinematic representations of unconventional warfare have received sporadic attention to date. However, this pattern has now begun to change with the rise of insurgency and counter insurgency in Iraq and Afghanistan and the growing importance of jihadist terrorism in the wake of 9/11. This ground-breaking study provides a much-needed examination of global unconventional warfare in 20th-century filmmaking with case studies from the United States, Britain, Ireland, France, Italy, and Israel. Paul B. Rich examines Hollywood's treatment of counterterrorism and counterinsurgency in the United States, British postcolonial insurgencies in Malaya and Kenya, and British special operations in the Second World War, the Irish conflict before and during the Troubles, French filmmaking and the reluctance to deal with the bitter war in Algeria in the 1950s, Italian neorealism and its impact on films dealing with urban insurgency by Roberto Rossellini, Nanni Loy, and Gillo Pontecorvo, and Israel and the upsurge of Palestinian terrorism. Whilst only a small number of films on these conflicts have been able to rise above stereotyping insurgents and terrorists in some cases due to a pattern of screen orientalism, Cinema and Unconventional Warfare in the Twentieth Century stresses the positive political gains to be derived from humanizing terrorists and terrorists' movements, especially in the context of modern jihadist terrorism. This is essential reading for academics, postgraduates, and advanced undergraduates interested in 20th-century military history, politics, and international relations, and film studies.

The Malayan Emergency in Film, Literature and Art Jonathan Driskell, Marek W. Rutkowski, Andrew Hock Soon Ng, 2025-01-09 Examining film, literature, and art produced during and after the Malayan Emergency, the guerrilla war fought between the Malayan National Liberation Army and the military forces of the British Commonwealth, this collection demonstrates how art functions as a record of cultural memory that both reinforces and challenges official histories. Beyond that, it also brings new understandings of the Malayan Emergency itself and Malaysia's subsequent development as a postcolonial nation. The first section of the book focuses on films and writings produced during the period of the Emergency to capture the socio-political circumstances of the time and understand its effect on the people. The second section goes on to explore representations of the Emergency generated after the event, highlighting how it was reimagined or reevaluated by later artists and what ideological ends they served. Offering a comparative methodological approach, it investigates works that account for a range of perspectives, including British, Communist, and Malayan/Malaysian. Bringing together the personal and political within individual and collective histories, this collection offers a new understanding of how the Emergency contributed to the formation of postcolonial Malaysia and demonstrates the central role that film, literature, and art play in the creation of cultural memory.

Remapping the Cold War in Asian Cinemas Sangjoon Lee, Darlene Espena, 2025-10-01 This book is about cinema and the cultural Cold War in Asia, set against the larger history of the cultural, political, and institutional linkages between the US, Europe, and Asia at the height of the Cold War. From the popularity of CIA sponsored espionage films in Hong Kong and South Korea to the enduring Cold War rhetoric of brotherly relations in contemporary Sino Indian co production cinema has always been a focal point of the cultural Cold War in Asia Historically both the United States and the Soviet Union viewed cinema as a powerful weapon in the battle to win hearts and minds not just in Europe but also in Asia The Cold War in Asia was properly speaking a hot war with proxy military confrontations between the United States on one side and the Soviet Union and China on the other Amid this political and military turbulence cataclysmic shifts occurred in the culture and history of Asian cinemas as well as in the latitude of US cultural diplomacy in Asia The collection of essays in this volume sheds light on the often forgotten history of the cultural Cold War in Asia Taken together the volume s fifteen chapters examine film cultures and industries in Asia to showcase the magnitude and depth of the Cold War s impact on Asian cinemas societies and politics By shifting the lens to Asia the contributors to this volume re examine the dominant narratives about the global Cold War and highlight the complex and unique ways in which Asian societies negotiated contested and adapted to the politics and cultural manifestations of the Cold War

Queen Victoria's Bomb Ronald Clark,2013-05-14 A sudden intolerably bright fireball lights up a remote and deserted Indian plateau Searing heat melts rock into incandescent pools of glowing liquid The earth heaves A monstrous thunderclap of sound reverberates over the land An ominous mushroom shaped cloud boils skywards For years afterwards strange plants and even stranger human mutants are discovered in the area warped spawn of a mysterious and deadly force Just another atomic test Not exactly Because it was Professor Huxtable s brainchild And the professor is one of the most devoted and loyal servants of Queen Victoria

Guilty Jack G. Shaheen,2012-12-28 Nothing will be the same again Americans scarred by the experience of 9 11 often express this sentiment But what remains the same argues Jack Shaheen is Hollywood s stereotyping of Arabs In his new book about films made after 9 11 Shaheen finds that nearly all of Hollywood s post 9 11 films legitimize a view of Arabs as stereotyped villains and the use of Arabs and Muslims as shorthand for the Enemy or Other Along with an examination of a hundred recent movies Shaheen addresses the cultural issues at play since 9 11 the government s public relations campaigns to win hearts and minds and the impact of 9 11 on citizens and on the imagination He suggests that winning the war on terror would take shattering the centuries old stereotypes of Arabs and frames the solutions needed to begin to tackle the problem and to change the industry and culture at large
