The story begins with the details surrounding the discovery of Silas Blackburn's body in an abandoned room in his home which had long been avoided due to its disturbing history of deaths of family members. To make things even more puzzling is the fact that Silas appeared to have been locked inside the room. The story then goes back to the day before Silas's body was discovered and features his grandson Bobby, a young man leading a lively lifestyle much to his grandfather's dismay. Consequently, her way of life is threatened by her grandfather's warning to have her removed from her will and thus leaving her without a substantial amount of money to fund her carefree lifestyle. After having a chat with his good friend Hartley Graham who advises him to visit his grandfather, Bobby decides to listen to his advice but quickly goes off on a dinner date with Carlos Paredes and Mar a. The next morning Bobby wakes up in an old house near his grandfather's house though he can't remember how he got there or any of the post dinner events. Ashamed of being seen by his grandfather in such conditions, he decides to return to New York but on his way is intercepted by a county detective who accuses him of the death of his grandfather. With no recollection of the night before, Bobby finds himself in a state of doubt and things only escalate when even more mysterious events unfold inside the mansion.
