Women, War, and the Making of Bangladesh Yasmin Saikia, 2011-08-10 Bangladeshi women recall the sexualized violence of the war of 1971 fought between India and what was then East and West Pakistan

A Talent for War Ramdhir Singh, 2013-10-18 Lt Gen Sagat Singh is unarguably the only military genius post independence India has produced He commenced his military career through humble beginnings in the Bikaner State Forces with only a smattering knowledge of English At the outbreak of World War 2 he was commissioned as an officer and served in the Middle East with his Battalion and on staff By the time the War was over he was the only officer to have done two staff courses including the prestigious course at Quetta On being absorbed into the Indian Army after Independence he was transferred to 3rd Gorkha Rifles where he commanded two battalions He was given command of the Para Brigade on promotion and led it in the Goa Operations with aplomb He was primarily responsible for liberating this Portuguese Colony Sagat's drive and energy stood out On promotion as Major General he commanded 17 Mountain Division in Sikkim where in 1967 in a bloody skirmish which lasted several days he gave the Chinese a bloody nose proving that the Indian Army was no pushover That year he was transferred to Shillong and tasked to curb the Mizo Insurgency In two years he succeeded in doing so effectively In 1970 he was promoted to Lt Gen and given command of 4 Corps It seemed his whole life was geared to leading a Corps into battle In 1971 in a major logistic achievement he moved and staged his Corps at Agartala When operations commenced to liberate Bangladesh his Corps relentlessly attacked and defeated Pakistan forces crossed river lines and terrain considered impassable His innovative use of helicopters has never been repeated His is the only example in the Indian Army of a successful corps level campaign which can stand out historically His knowledge of the operational art was perhaps without parallel He retired in Dec 1974 and settled down in Jaipur where till his death in 2001 he tried to ameliorate the lives of ex servicemen and his people His achievements were recognised by the Government of Bangladesh when the President publicly and formally honoured his son and daughter in law in Mar 2013

The Civilianization of War Andrew Barros, Martin Thomas, 2018-08-09 Distinguishing between civilians and combatants is a central aspect of modern conflicts Yet such distinctions are rarely upheld in practice The Civilianization of War offers new ways of understanding civilians exposure to violence in war Each chapter explores a particular approach to the political legal or cultural distinctions between civilians and combatants during twentieth century and contemporary conflicts The volume as a whole suggests that the distinction between combatants and non combatants is dynamic and oft times unpredictable rather than fixed and reciprocally understood Contributors offer new insights into why civilian targeting has become a strategy for some and how in practice its avoidance can be so difficult to achieve Several discuss distinct population groups that have been particularly exposed to wartime violence including urban populations facing aerial bombing child soldiers captives and victims of sexual violence The book thus offers multiple perspectives on the civil military divide within modern conflicts an issue whose powerful contemporary resonance is all too apparent

Fighting to the End C. Christine Fair, 2014 Pakistan's army has dominated the state for most of its 66 years It has locked the country in an enduring rivalry with India to revise the maps in Kashmir and to resist India's slow but inevitable rise To prosecute these dangerous policies the army employs non state actors under the security of its ever expanding nuclear umbrella The Pakistan army started three wars with India over Kashmir in 1947 1965 and 1999 and failed to win any of them It has sustained a proxy war in Kashmir since 1989 using Islamist militants some of whom have now turned their guns against the Pakistani state The Pakistan army has supported non Islamist insurgencies throughout India as well as a country wide Islamist terror campaign that have brought the two countries to the brink of war on several occasions Despite Pakistan's efforts to coerce India it has only achieved modest successes Even though India vivisected Pakistan in 1971 Pakistan continues to see itself as India's equal and demands the world do the same The tools that the army prefers to use non state actors under a nuclear umbrella has brought international opprobrium upon the country and the army In recent years erstwhile proxies have turned their gun on the Pakistani state itself and its peoples Why does the army persist in pursuing these revisionist policies that have come to imperil the very viability of the state itself from which the army feeds This volume argues that the answer lies at least partially in the strategic culture of the army From the army's distorted view of history the army is victorious as long as can resist India's purported hegemony and the territorial status quo To acquiesce is defeat Because the army is unlikely to abandon these preferences the world must prepare for an ever more dangerous future Pakistan

Hindus and Muslims as separate nations who practiced mingled faiths and the Hindu Muslim and Sikh renaissances that created a twentieth century clash of communities and led to partition Political Conflict in Pakistan addresses multiple clashes between the high culture as a mission to transform society and the low culture of the land and the people between those committed to the establishment s institutional constitutional framework and those seeking to dismantle the colonial state between the corrupt and those seeking to hold them to account between the political class and the middle class and between civil and military power The author exposes how the ruling elite centralised power through the militarisation and judicialization of politics rendering the federalist arrangement an empty shell and thus grossly alienating the provinces He sets all this within the contexts of education and media as breeders of conflict the difficulties of establishing an anti terrorist regime and the state s pragmatic attempts at conflict resolution by seeking to keep the outsiders inside This is a wide ranging account of a country of contestations

Conditions of Violence Christian Gerlach,2024-11-04 Mass violence comes not only from states but also from people By analyzing mass violence as social interaction through survivor accounts and other sources this book presents understudied agents aims and practices of direct violence and ways of action of those under persecution Sound history examining the noises of mass violence and persecution is particularly telling about such practices This volume shows that violence can become socially hegemonic and some people claim a freedom to kill as a political right To scrutinize indirect violence which is often imperialist in character and claims many victims the book proposes the concept of conditions of violence These conditions are produced by definable groups of actors and foreseeably harm definable groups which differs from the anonymous and static structural violence This is exemplified in a case study concerning famines in World War II and another on COVID 19 as mass violence Less global in character other case studies in this volume deal with Rwanda Bangladesh East Pakistan and the Soviet Union
