Six Modern British Novelists:

Six Modern British Novelists George Stade,1965 Six Modern British Novelists ,1974 Six modern British novelists. Edited with an introduction by George Stade George STADE (Chairman of the English Department, at Columbia University.),1974 Six Contemporary British Novelists George Stade, Post-War British Women Novelists and the Canon Nick Turner,2011-11-03 With the increasing number of books on contemporary fiction there is a need for a work that examines whom we value and why These questions lie at the heart of this book which by focusing on four novelists literary and popular interrogates the canon over the last fifty years The argument unfolds to demonstrate that academic trends increasingly control canonicity as do the demands of genre the increasing commercialisation of literature and the power of the literary prize Turner argues that literary excellence demonstrated by style and imaginative power is often missing in many works that have become modern classics and makes a case for the value of the universal in literature Written in a jargon free style with reference to many supporting writers the book raises a number of significant cultural questions about the arts fashions and literary reputations of interest to readers in contemporary literary studies

Contemporary British Novelists Nick Rennison,2004-12-31 Featuring a broad range of contemporary British novelists from Iain Banks to Jeanette Winterson Louis de Bernieres to Irvine Welsh and Salman Rushdie this book offers an excellent introductory guide to the contemporary literary scene Each entry includes concise biographical information on each of the key novelists and analysis of their major works and themes Fully cross referenced and containing extensive guides to further reading Fifty Contemporary British Novelists is the ideal guide to modern British fiction for both the student and the contemporary fiction buff alike Catalog of Copyright Entries. Domestic Space in Eighteenth-Century British Novels Karen Lipsedge,2012-09-28
Examining the work of three authors Richardson Haywood and Burney and their representation of domestic space this book argues that to make such spaces accessible to modern readers they need to have information of the real domestic By recreating specifics of these spaces this book innervates the fictional domestic interior for modern readers
