Sixty Years On Women Talk About Old Age:

Women & Aging Helen Rippier Wheeler, 1997 Guide with more than two thousand bibliographic entries and cross references It includes journal articles book chapters essays and doctoral dissertations as well as complete books Women In Later Life: Exploring Race And Ethnicity Afshar, Haleh, Franks, Myfanwy, Maynard, Mary Ann, 2008-05-01 This volume is based on feminist qualitative research with older women contextualised within current literature debates in the field of social gerontology The authors provide an overview of current knowledge understanding about the circumstances experiences of older people in relation to gender ethnicity Women Ageing Miriam Bernard, Val Harding Davies, Linda Machin, Judith Phillips, 2005-06-22 Women Ageing provides a better understanding of what ageing is like for women and challenges the myths which have grown up around the ageing process Blending the scholarly the personal and the political it reveals the range of strategies and identities women adopt to manage the transitions of the second half of the life course In doing so it uncovers not only the commonalities and the similarities between mid life and older women but also some of the variation and diversity relating to ethnicity and race class disability and sexual orientation Women Ageing makes the ordinary lives of ordinary women as in this instance they grow older more visible Its findings have important implications for policy and practice All those studying or working with older people will find it an illuminating text Women, Oppression and Social Work Lesley Day, Mary Langan, 2002-09-11 Many of the gains of the women s movement over the past 20 years now seem threatened by the combined effects of prolonged economic insecurity reductions in the scope of welfare provision and a general shift in the climate of public opinion to the right Social workers are faced with the growing demands of a more impoverished and more unstable society with less resources to meet these demands In response to these pressures feminist social work has begun to move beyond some of the limitations of both the traditional and radical social work models of the past The emerging anti discriminatory model recognizes the diversity of oppressions according to race gender and class as well as those of age disability and sexual orientation Women Oppression and Social Work offers a new perspective on feminist social work which takes account of the complexity of the manifold oppressions that affect the lives of most women and most social work clients An Introduction to Gerontology Ian Stuart-Hamilton, 2011-03-31 With the world s population getting increasingly older there has never been a more pressing need for the study of old age and ageing An Introduction to Gerontology provides a wide ranging introduction to this important topic By assuming no prior expert knowledge and avoiding jargon this book will guide students through all the main subjects in gerontology covering both traditional areas such as biological and social ageing and more contemporary areas such as technology the arts and sexuality An Introduction to Gerontology is written by a team of international authors with multidisciplinary backgrounds who draw evidence from a variety of different perspectives and traditions Ageism Bytheway, Bill, 1994-12-01 Ageism has appeared in the media increasingly over the last twenty years What is it How are we affected How does it relate to services for older people This book builds bridges between the wider age conscious culture within which people live their lives and the world of the caring professions In the first part the literature on age prejudice and ageism is reviewed and set in a historical context A wide range of settings in which ageism is clearly apparent are considered and then in the third part the author identifies a series of issues that are basic in determining a theory of ageism The book is written in a style intended to engage the reader s active involvement how does ageism relate to the beliefs the reader might have about older generations the ageing process and personal fears of the future To what extent is chronological age used in social control The book discusses these issues not just in relation to discrimination against the elderly but right across the life course The book is referenced to readily available material such as newspapers and biographies includes case studies to ensure that it relates to familiar everyday aspects of age includes illustrations examples of ageism in advertizing etc

Ageing and Social Policy in Australia Allan Borowski, Sol Encel, Elizabeth Ozanne, 1997-11-17 Industrialised countries worldwide have for years been confronting the prospect of a steadily ageing population This book first published in 1997 reflects the breadth of research into gerontology and analyses the major themes and issues in the area of ageing and social policy in both an Australian context and from an international comparative perspective Topics discussed include unemployment education and housing for the aged Added to this is the contemporary influence of multiculturalism and the challenge it poses to policies and programs that must cater for a growing diversity in the ageing population A special focus is given to the situation of women and Aboriginal Australians and the specific structural disadvantages they face This book is essential reading for students and policy makers in sociology social and public policy gerontology and public health

Older Women in the Criminal Justice System Azrini Wahidin, 2004-06-23 What is life like for the women who grow old behind bars Azrini Wahidin examines in depth the experiences and needs of this overlooked group Illuminating reading for all those working in the prison services probation and the courts Older Women in the Criminal Justice System offers a rare view of what happens to women who grow old in prison

Transnational Migration and Home in Older Age Katie Walsh, Lena Näre, 2016-03-10 This book examines the transformations in home lives arising in later life and resulting from global migrations It provides insight into the ways in which contemporary demographic processes of aging and migration shape the meaning experience and making of home for those in older age Chapters explore how home is negotiated in relation to possibilities for return to the homeland family networks aging and health care cultures and belonging The book deliberately crosses emerging sub fields in transnationalism studies by offering case studies on aging labour migrants retirement migrants and return migrants as well as older people affected by the movement of others including family members and migrant care workers The diversity of people s experiences of home in later life is fully explored and the impact of social class gender and nationality as well as the corporeal dimensions of older age are all in evidence

Gerontology Kevin Morgan, 1992-01-01 excellent reading for both undergraduate and post graduate students studying gerontology a collection of articles which adds considerable depth to our current knowledge in what is loosely known as gerontology Australian Journal on Ageing The book manages as the editor claims to examine a range of approaches methodologies and controversies within gerontology I find the book a good exponent of the breadth and strength of British gerontology Ageing and Society Most of the chapters of this thought provoking book deal with different aspects of ageing in the normal population but several have implications for care of people with dementia Journal of Dementia Care In recent years gerontology has both diversified and specialised to meet the complex challenge of an ageing society This book aims specifically to reflect these developments and includes expert contributions from the disciplines of geography economics sociology and social policy psychology and medicine Contributions have been selected not only to highlight topics of particular concern but also to illustrate the development and deployment of pragmatic responses The chapters address important issues in lifestyle health adult education ethnicity pensions policy development residential care and professional training Attention also focuses on debate within gerontology particularly in the areas of community care dementing illness and health economics
