Space, Politics, and Cultural Representation in Modern China Enhua Zhang,2016-12-08 Regarding revolution as a spatial practice this book explores modes of spatial construction in modern China through a panoramic overview of major Chinese revolutionary events and nuanced analysis of cultural representations Examining the relationship between revolution space and culture in modern China the author takes five spatially significant revolutionary events as case studies the territorial dispute between Russia and the Qing dynasty in 1892 the Land Reform in the 1920s the Long March 1934 36 the mainland Taiwan split in 1949 and the Cultural Revolution 1966 76 and analyses how revolution constructs conceives and transforms space Using materials associated with these events including primarily literature as well as maps political treatises historiography plays film and art the book argues that in addition to redirecting the flow of Chinese history revolutionary movements operate in and on space in three main ways maintaining territorial sovereignty redefining social relations and governing an imaginary realm Arguing for reconsideration of revolution as a reorganization of space as much as time this book will appeal to students and scholars of Chinese culture society history and literature

Space Shuttle Challenger Ben Evans,2007-07-05 Ironically the loss of Challenger in January 1986 fired my interest in space exploration more than any other single event I was nine years old My parents were at the time midway through moving house and luckily the TV was one of the few domestic items still to be packed I watched the entire horror unfold live on all of the network stations Admittedly my fascination with rockets and astronauts stars and planets had begun several years earlier but Challenger s destruction turned it from an occasional hobby to a fascination which has remained with me ever since In September 1988 aged 11 I came home from school to watch STS 26 return the Shuttle fleet to orbital operations Five years later I gave a speech on the STS 51L disaster to my teacher as part of my GCSE English assessment Another decade passed and now a teacher myself I returned to my school one cold Monday morning to explain to my pupils what had happened to Challenger's sister ship Columbia a few days earlier In some ways the loss of Columbia affected me more deeply than Challenger
