farming fishing logging and mining Mackie shows how the well capitalized Hudson s Bay Company created a regional economy on the Pacific coast and documents how the Native people played a part in the emerging economy and how in myriad ways they paid for contact with British commerce Scarce Water and Institutional Change Kenneth D. Frederick,2013-10-18 The authors assess alternative approaches to meeting long term water needs and resolving conflicts among competing water users in five areas the Columbia River Basin Kern County California south California Virginia Beach Virginia and northeastern Colorado This book argues that America s water supply problems are caused largely by bad habits and poor policies especially policies that price water far under its true value Originally published in 1986 Carbonizing Properties and Petrographic Composition of Millers Creek Bed Coal from Consolidation No. 155 Mine, Johnson County, Ky Arno Carl Fieldner,1937 Technical Paper - Bureau of Mines United States. Bureau of Mines,1937 The Economic Value of Water Diana C. Gibbons,2013-10-18 Gibbons examines the water supply problem through five case studies The problems faced by these regions and the methods suggested to overcome them provide excellent models for the entire United States The case studies typically expanding supplies but economic efficiency principles lead to emphasizing managing the demand In many cases this means reducing demand by raising prices Natural Resource And Environmental Policy Analysis George M Johnston,2021-11-28 As natural resources have become scarcer issues of environmental policy have become more vital and subject to debate in global as well as local arenas Through the use of case studies especially developed for this book the authors analyze the wide range of institutional contexts in which natural resource and environmental policy issues arise and the processes by which they are resolved The first chapter provides a theoretical framework of key resource and environmental economics concepts an overview that gradually broadens as the student is exposed to alternative methods of analysis including market oriented analysis institutional analysis and modeling The case studies all begin with discussions of the pertinent biological physical social and institutional issues before economic analysis is applied and policy conclusions are drawn Suggested readings and study questions follow each chapter This book is designed for use in upper level college courses in natural resource and environmental economics and graduate courses in resource management It can be used either as a primary text in conjunction with theoretical readings or as a supplemental source of case study readings The cases will also be valuable for natural resource environmental and community development economists The Great Medicine Road, Part 1 Will Bagley,2014 Between 1841 and 1866 more than 500 000 people followed trails to Oregon California and the Salt Lake Valley in one of the greatest mass migrations in American history This collection of travelers accounts of their journeys in the 1840s the first volume in a new series of trail narratives comprises excerpts from pioneer and missionary letters diaries journals and memoirs many previously unpublished accompanied by biographical information and historical background Chief Joseph Candy Moulton,2006-06-27 A portrait of the Nez Perc diplomat and defender covers the 1863 treaty that called for his tribe s removal to an Idaho reservation his people's four month flight toward safety in Canada under his leadership and his war leadership upon their capture forty miles from their destination Chief Joseph 1840 1904 became a legend due to his heroic efforts to keep his people in their homeland in Oregon's Wallowa Valley despite a treaty that ordered them onto a reservation in Idaho In 1877 when the US army forced the Nez Percé away from their lands Joseph led his tribe's people on a 1 500 mile four month flight from western Idaho across Montana through Yellowstone National Park and Wyoming toward safety in Canada During this journey the Army attacked the Indians several times in one battle alone at the Big Hole in western Montana ninety Indian men women and children were killed The Nez Percé's flight ended at the Bear's Paw Mountains in northern Montana just forty miles from the safety of the Canadian border There the Army surrounded the Nez Percé captured their horses killed all but two of their primary chiefs and forced their capitulation When Chief Joseph surrendered to military leaders he told them from where the sun now stands I will fight no more forever Promised by military commanders that they would be returned to Idaho the Nez Percé were instead relocated to Indian Territory in Oklahoma where many died of fever and disease Chief Joseph began a new fight for better conditions for his people and the right to return to their home country His diplomacy and eloquence won public support and ultimately resulted in the Nez Percé return to Idaho and Washington *People of the State of Illinois, Ex.
