A German Grammar for Schools and Colleges Based on the Public School German Grammar of A.L. Meissner Edward Southey Joynes, 1905 A German Grammar for Schools and Colleges Edward Southey Joynes, 1905 Reforming the Art of Dying Austra Reinis, 2007 This study focuses on the earliest of Protestant handbooks that addressed the subject of death and dying Beginning with Luther's Sermon on Preparing to Die in 1519 and ending with Jakob Otter's Christlich leben vnd sterben in 1528 it explores how Luther and his colleagues adopted traditional themes and motifs transforming them to accord with their conviction that Christians could be certain of their salvation It further shows how Luther's colleagues drew on his writings not only his teaching on dying but also other writings including his sermons on the sacraments The study concludes that the assurance of salvation that these works offered represented a significant change from traditional teaching on death A German Grammar for Schools and Colleges Albert L. Language Transmission Brigitte E. Lambert, 2008 This book examines the whys and wherefores of family language transmission from the perspective of parents as language planners and managers of their linguistic resources It draws on a qualitative interview based study of twenty families in which German is was or could have been the target language Successive census analyses have charted a marked decline in the number of German speakers in Australia indicating that motivation for transmitting German has waned The situations where it is presently being transmitted are therefore particularly interesting Data analysis was facilitated by a decision map depicting the planning implementation and outcome phases of the transmission undertaking The main findings show that the parents decision is negotiated around their own needs interests and ambitions in terms of child focussed reciprocal and parent centred motives These in turn are linked to transmission strategies and the linguistic outcomes for the children Through an understanding of the motivational issues arising in this context it will hopefully be possible to better predict the effectiveness of the transmission strategies presently applied A grammar of the German language designed for a thorough and practical... George Oliver Curme, 1913
