The Athenaeum ,1856 MLA International Bibliography of Books and Articles on the Modern Languages and Literatures ,2007 The Sweet Taste of Empire Kim Hall,2025-08-19 How seventeenth century English literary genres associated with gastronomic and aesthetic pleasure shaped representations of Caribbean colonization and slavery Over the course of the seventeenth century sugar prices fell drastically As this newly affordable luxury made its way from royal entertainments to the closets of home cooks in ever increasing quantities sugar bound England s fortunes to the Caribbean The pursuit of sugar s pleasures and profits generated newly visible and vexed relationships not simply between enslaved and enslaver but also between enslaved and consumer that threatened the English sense of the nation the household and the self The Sweet Taste of Empire explores how the unique emphasis the English placed on confections as a marker of status and national identity offered a framework for grappling with changing notions of race gender labor and domesticity that shaped early colonization Tracing the literal and literary uses of sugar in seventeenth century England Kim F Hall shows how literary genres associated with gastronomic and aesthetic pleasure shaped representations of Caribbean colonization and slavery developing a culinary language that functioned as a discourse of pleasure and white innocence In turn Hall argues Caribbean sugar production influenced domestic consumption and trade in England as well as the very notion of what it meant to be English Drawing on a wide range of early Anglo Caribbean texts from cookbooks and banquet menus to economic poetry to maps and treatises on plantation labor and health Hall uncovers what she calls a plantation aesthetic in which writers mobilize ways of seeing from pastoral georgic and landscape discourses when addressing issues of race and enslavement This plantation aesthetic reveals deep worry over the threat African slavery poses to the imagined idea of English plantations as idealized agrarian life ultimately shaping the history of both English slavery and the later anti slavery response Recentring the Caribbean in early modern literary studies The Sweet Taste of Empire sheds new light on the aesthetic and the poetic in the archives of Caribbean enslavement The Athenæum James Silk Buckingham, John Sterling, Frederick Denison Maurice, Henry Stebbing, Charles Wentworth Dilke, Thomas Kibble Hervey, William Hepworth Dixon, Norman Maccoll, Vernon Horace Rendall, John Middleton Murry, 1908 Athenaeum and Literary Chronicle , 1908 T. P.'s Weekly Thomas Power O'Connor, Holbrook Jackson, 1912 Cultural Theory and Popular Culture John Storey, 1998 This reader is intended as a theoretical analytical and historical introduction to the study of popular culture within cultural studies It is divided into seven representative sections The first six sections each contain a selection of readings from a particular approach to popular culture culture and civilisation tradition culturalism structuralism and post structuralism Marxism feminism and postmodernism providing a comprehensive overview and examples of the main theoretical perspectives The final section contains readings from recent debates within the study of popular culture Together these sections chart the theoretical development of the study of popular culture within cultural studies and provide examples of the analysis of the texts and practices of popular culture within each specific tradition Each section is introduced edited and contextualised by John Storey
