A. R. Habib, 2013-02-07 In the nineteenth century literary criticism first developed into an autonomous professional discipline in the universities This volume provides a comprehensive and authoritative study of the vast field of literary criticism between 1830 and 1914 In over thirty essays written from a broad range of perspectives international scholars examine the growth of literary criticism as an institution and the major critical developments in diverse national traditions and in different genres as well as the major movements of Realism Naturalism Symbolism and Decadence The History offers a detailed focus on some of the era's great critical figures such as Sainte Beuve Hippolyte Taine and Matthew Arnold and includes essays devoted to the connections of literary criticism with other disciplines in science the arts and Biblical studies The publication of this volume marks the completion of the monumental Cambridge History of Literary Criticism from antiquity to the present day Polnoe Sobranie Sochinenii Volume 3 - Primary Source Edition Ivan Sergeevich Turgenev, 2014-02-20 This is a reproduction of a book published before 1923 This book may have occasional imperfections such as missing or blurred pages poor pictures errant marks etc that were either part of the original artifact or were introduced by the scanning process We believe this work is culturally important and despite the imperfections have elected to bring it back into print as part of our continuing commitment to the preservation of printed works worldwide We appreciate your understanding of the imperfections in the preservation process and hope you enjoy this valuable book

Romantic Prose Fiction Gerald Ernest Paul Gillespie, Manfred Engel, Bernard Dieterle, 2008 In this volume a team of three dozen international experts presents a fresh picture of literary prose fiction in the Romantic age seen from cross cultural and interdisciplinary perspectives. The work treats the appearance of major themes in characteristically Romantic versions the power of Romantic discourse to reshape imaginative writing and a series of crucial reactions to the impact of Romanticism on cultural life down to the present both in Europe and in the New World Through its combination of chapters on thematic generic and discursive features Romantic Prose Fiction achieves a unique theoretical stance by considering the opinions of primary Romantics and their successors not as guiding truths by which to define the permanent meaning of Romanticism but as data of cultural history that shed important light on an evolving civilization SPECIAL OFFER 30% discount for a complete set order 5 vols The Romanticism series in the Comparative History of Literatures in European Languages is the result of a remarkable international collaboration The editorial team coordinated the efforts of over 100 experts from more than two dozen countries to produce five independently conceived yet interrelated volumes that show not only how Romanticism developed and spread in its principal European homelands and throughout the New World but also the ways in which the affected literatures in reaction to Romanticism have redefined themselves on into Modernism A glance at the index of each volume quickly reveals the extraordinary richness of the series total contents Romantic Irony sets the broader experimental parameters of comparison by concentrating on the myriad expressions of irony as one of the major impulses in the Romantic philosophical and artistic revolution and by combining cross cultural and interdisciplinary studies with special attention also to literatures in less widely diffused language streams Romantic Drama traces creative innovations that deeply altered the understanding of genre at large fed popular imagination through vehicles like the opera and laid the foundations for a modernist theater of the absurd Romantic Poetry demonstrates deep patterns and a sharing of crucial themes of the revolutionary age which underlie the lyrical expression that flourished in so many languages and environments Nonfictional Romantic Prose assists us in coping with the vast array of writings from the personal and intimate sphere to modes of public discourse including Romanticism's own self commentary in theoretical statements on the arts society life the sciences and more Nor are the discursive dimensions of imaginative literature neglected in the closing volume Romantic Prose Fiction where the basic Romantic themes and story types the romance novel novella short story and other narrative forms are considered throughout Europe and the New World This enormous realm is seen not just in terms of Romantic theorizing but in the light of the impact of Romantic ideas and narration on later generations As an aid to readers the introduction to Romantic Prose Fiction explains the relationships among the volumes in the series and carries a listing of their tables of contents in an appendix No other series exists comparable to these volumes which treat the entirety of Romanticism as a cultural happening across the whole breadth of the Old and New Worlds and thus render a complex picture of European spiritual strivings in the late eighteenth and the nineteenth centuries a heritage still very close to our age Russian Thought William Leatherbarrow, Derek Offord, 2010-04-01 The history of ideas has played a central role in Russia s political and social history Understanding its intellectual tradition and the way the intelligentsia have shaped the nation is crucial to understanding the Russia of today This history examines important intellectual and cultural currents the Enlightenment nationalism nihilism and religious revival and key themes conceptions of the West and East the common people and attitudes to capitalism and natural science in Russian intellectual history Concentrating on the Golden Age of Russian thought in the mid nineteenth century the contributors also look back to its eighteenth century origins in the flowering of culture following the reign of Peter the Great and forward to the continuing vitality of Russia's classical intellectual tradition in the Soviet and post Soviet eras With brief biographical details of over fifty key thinkers and an extensive bibliography this book provides a fresh comprehensive overview of Russian intellectual history. The History of the Book in the West: 18001914 Stephen Colclough,2017-03-02 This collection of published papers on the development of the publishing cycle from author to reader includes work by many of the leading authorities on the history of the book in the nineteenth century including James Barnes Simon Eliot Kate Flint Elizabeth McHenry Robert Patten David Vincent and Ronald Zboray It contains examples of different approaches reflecting the fact that scholars come from a variety of disciplinary traditions such as bibliography typography literary studies library studies and the history of science The introduction provides an overview of both the historical context and recent work on the subject The volume is divided into five sections National Publishing Structures in America France and Russia International Trade Publishing Practices Distribution Reading The collection includes work in the tradition of French book history which has focussed on the systems and structures of the publishing industry and Anglo American book history characterised by detailed analyses of the publication of a specific title or the practices of an individual reader
