Comparative Politics of Southeast Asia Aurel Croissant, 2022-09-01 This textbook provides a comprehensive introduction to the political systems of all ASEAN countries and Timor Leste from a comparative perspective It investigates the political institutions actors and processes in eleven states covering democracies as well as autocratic regimes Each country study includes an analysis of the current system of governance the party and electoral system and an assessment of the state its legal system and administrative bodies Students of political science and area studies also learn about processes of democratic transition and autocratic resilience as well as how civil society and the media influence the political culture in each country This second edition features revised and updated versions of all country studies and a new chapter that discusses the trends of democratization and autocratization in Southeast Asia in the late 20th and early 21st centuries

A History of Malaysia Barbara Watson Andaya, Leonard Y. Andaya, 2017-09-16 First published in 1982 this text is widely regarded as a leading general history of the country This new and revised edition brings the story of this fascinating country up to date incorporating the latest scholarship on every period of Malaysian history including recent research into pre modern times This text thus provides a historical framework that helps explain the roots of the issues dominating Malaysian life today and the difficulties of creating a multicultural state where resources are equitably shared and the rights of all citizens are acknowledged This book is a key text for courses on Southeast Asian history and politics Covering a range of disciplinary subjects in the humanities and social sciences it is also useful for anyone interested in the assessment of young modernizing nations New to this Edition A new chapter provides insights into Malaysian history of the last 15 years including the growing influence of the internet and social media in the political sphere Greater attention is paid to the strengthening of civil society movements that have arisen in light of perceived government failures Fresh analysis of Islam's historical role in the Malay world and how it links with the growing Islamization of Malaysia today The Expert Consumer Alain Chatriot, Marie-Emmanuelle Chessel, 2017-09-29 Recent work has focused on the politics of consumption and its manifestation in a number of situations This volume extends these debates providing a tighter focus and contributing to a noticeable gap in the field that numerous scholars are beginning to turn towards that is organizations of consumers themselves who have chosen to speak for all consumers and similar such bodies of experts which act on behalf of consumers The volume is fortunate in drawing upon a number of scholars who are about to publish major works on the subject but who are happy to provide summary versions of their work for the volume The book pays particular attention to specific moments in consumer mobilization and expertise capturing the range of types of expert consumers across the twentieth century from ethical consumer groups at the beginning to intellectuals housewives economists and public officials It addresses questions on the nature of consumer organizing which bodies can speak for consumers whether one consumer voice can ever be identified and the relationship between consumption and citizenship Overview pieces demonstrate the larger narratives involved in the study of the expert consumer whilst more comparative essays set out the nature of transatlantic exchanges Other contributions point to the similarities across seemingly different consumption regimes while case studies of specific organisations and key historical moments draw out the particularities of consumer expertise Islam, Gender, and Democracy in Comparative Perspective Jocelyne Cesari, José Casanova, 2017-04-14 The relationship between secularism democracy religion and gender equality has been a complex one across Western democracies and still remains contested When we turn to Muslim countries the situation is even more multifaceted In the views of many western commentators the question of Women Rights is the litmus test for Muslim societies in the age of democracy and liberalism Especially since the Arab Awakening the issue is usually framed as the opposition between liberal advocates of secular democracy and religious opponents of women's full equality Islam Gender and Democracy in Comparative Perspective critically re-engages this too simple binary opposition by reframing the debate around Islam and women's rights within a broader comparative literature Bringing together leading scholars from a range of disciplines it examines the complex and contingent historical relationships between religion secularism democracy law and gender equality Part One addresses the nexus of religion law gender and democracy through different disciplinary perspectives sociology anthropology political science law Part Two localizes the implementation of this nexus between law gender and democracy and provides contextualized responses to questions raised in Part One The contributors explore the situation of Muslim women's rights in minority conditions to shed light on the gender politics in the modernization of the nation and to ponder on the role of Islam in gender inequality across different Muslim countries      Routledge Handbook of Civil Society in Asia Akihiro Ogawa,2017-09-27 The Routledge Handbook of Civil Society in Asia is an interdisciplinary resource covering one of the most dynamically expanding sectors in contemporary Asia Originally a product of Western thinking civil society represents a particular set of relationships between the state and either society or the individual Each culture however molds its own version of civil society reflecting its most important values and traditions This handbook provides a comprehensive survey of the directions and nuances of civil society featuring contributions by leading specialists on Asian society from the fields of political science sociology anthropology and other disciplines Comprising thirty five essays on critical topics and issues it is divided into two main sections Part I covers country specific reviews including Japan China South Korea India and Singapore Part II offers a series of thematic chapters such as democratization social enterprise civic activism and the media As an analysis of Asian social cultural and political phenomena from the perspective of civil society in the post World War II era this book will be useful to students and scholars of Asian Studies Asian Politics and Comparative Politics      Transnational Activism in Asia Nicola Piper,Anders Uhlin,2004-06-01 This book provides new perspectives on transnational activism with a specific regional focus on Asia By offering an innovative approach its theoretical chapters and empirical case studies examine macro as well as micro aspects of power and how cross border activities of civil society groups are related to problems of democracy      The Oxford Handbook of Islam and Women Asma Afsaruddin,2023 The Oxford Handbook of Islam and Women offers authoritative contributions from well known scholars whose sophisticated and cutting edge research explores the diversity of Muslim women s lives and their accomplishments challenging common stereotypes that are particularly prevalent in the West      The Palgrave Handbook of Women's Political Rights Susan Franceschet,Mona Lena Krook,Netina Tan,2018-10-26 This Palgrave Handbook provides a definitive account of women s political rights across all major regions of the world focusing both on women s right to vote and women s right to run for political office This dual focus makes this the first book to combine historical overviews of debates about enfranchising women alongside analyses of more contemporary efforts to increase women s political representation around the globe Chapter authors map and assess the impact of these groundbreaking reforms providing insight into these dynamics in a wide array of countries where women s suffrage and representation have taken different paths and led to varying degrees of transformation On the eve of many countries celebrating a century of women s suffrage as well as record numbers of women elected and appointed to political office this timely volume offers an important introduction to ongoing developments related to women s political empowerment worldwide It will be of interest to students and scholars across the fields of gender and politics women s studies history and sociology      Islam in Malaysia Khairudin Aljunied,2019-08-30 This book surveys the growth and development of Islam in Malaysia from the eleventh to the twenty first century investigating how Islam has shaped the social lives languages cultures and politics of both Muslims and non Muslims in one of the most populous Muslim regions in the world Khairudin Aljunied shows how Muslims in Malaysia built upon the legacy of their pre Islamic past while benefiting from Islamic ideas values and networks to found flourishing states and societies that have played an influential role in a globalizing world He examines the movement of ideas peoples goods technologies arts and cultures across into and out of Malaysia over the centuries Interactions between Muslims and the local Malay population began as early as the eighth century sustained by trade and the agency of Sufi as well as Arab Indian Persian and Chinese scholars and missionaries Aljunied looks at how Malay states and societies survived under colonial regimes that heightened racial and religious divisions and how Muslims responded through violence as well as reformist movements Although there have been tensions and skirmishes between Muslims and non Muslims in Malaysia they have learned in the main to co exist harmoniously creating a society comprising of a variety of distinct populations This is the first book to provide a seamless account of the millennium old venture of Islam in Malaysia

Malaysian Business in the New Era Chris Nyland, 2001-11-28 the book makes a significant contribution to research on Asian business The chapters are deeply researched and will be of considerable value to scholars government policymakers and practitioners Samir Ranjan Chatterjee Asia Pacific Journal of Economics and Business

Civil Society in Asia Wayne Hudson, 2024-11-01 In East and Southeast Asia the creation of civil society is a crucial yet most difficult issue Europeans have had the luxury of centuries in a slow moving world characterised by weak governments in which the foundation institutions norms and values of civil society could ferment and develop Asia however faces this task when a nation s currency can devalue in seconds destabilising its government and when states have far more effective means of surveillance suppression and terror This book examines these issues and shows that a better understanding of civil society in the Asian context is central to promoting contemporary political social and economic reform in Asia It will appeal to students and teachers of politics law and sociology because it provides new perspectives on how to understand civil society drawing on Asian examples as well as indications for rethinking what civil society means in Asia Individual chapters combine theoretical and empirical issues in a way which fills a major gap in the literature Henceforth works about civil society will need to take more account of the Asian evidence and Asianists will need to have a clear idea of what civil society in Asia means Researching the global everyday of women activists 1 1 Researching the global everyday of women activists Experiencing and doing globalisation Going through the broad spectrum of globalisation research and literature one might be astonished at how much it assumes the force of global change and how little of this literature demonstrates this force in an empirically grounded way This study being based on six months of empirical research in Malaysia in 2004 sets out to counter this lack of thick description of globalisation processes It takes up the challenge of researching the global everyday Appadurai 2000 18 of civil society actors in Malaysia and focuses on how social activists belonging to different branches of the women s movement selectively appropriate transform and even create global meanings and materialise them in local practices The methodological endeavour of combining globalisation research and ethnography has been taken up by a diversity of authors Burawoy and his research team have developed a complex methodological framework by focusing on the experiential dimensions of globalisation They want to produce a grounded globalisation or perspectives on globalisations from below Burawoy 2000b 338 341 This perspective is very fruitful as the notion of experiencing globalisation as forces connections and imaginations Burawoy et al eds 2000 relocates the global in the local and ties both together in mutual constitution World Heritage and Urban Politics in Melaka, Malaysia Pierpaolo Giosa, 2025-10-01 Already celebrated as a busy entrep t and the most glorious of the Malay kingdoms of the past Melaka has been on the UNESCO World Heritage List together with George Town since 2008 on the strength of its multi ethnic and multi religious urban fabric Yet contrary to the expectations of heritage experts and aficionados the global mission of safeguarding cultural heritages has become a tumultuous issue on the ground In World Heritage and Urban Politics in Melaka Malaysia A Cityscape below the Winds how the World Heritage label has been and continue to be used by different actors such as international organizations nation states and society at large to generate new economic revenues as well as to attract tourists and investments for large scale real estate development projects is analyzed revealing the complex and often contradictory stories behind heritage designations in urban milieus

Anthropology and the New Cosmopolitanism Pnina Werbner, 2020-05-21 Anthropology and the New Cosmopolitanism inaugurates a new situated cosmopolitan anthropology It examines the rise of postcolonial movements responsive to global rights movements which espouse a politics of dignity cultural difference democracy dissent and tolerance The book starts from the premise that cosmopolitanism is not and never has been a western elitist ideal exclusively The book s major innovation is to show the way cosmopolitans beyond the North in Papua New Guinea Indonesia and Malaysia India Africa the Middle East and Mexico juggle universalist commitments with roots in local cultural milieus and particular communities Anthropology and the New Cosmopolitanism breaks new ground in theorizing the role of social anthropology as a discipline that engages with the moral economic legal and political transformations and dislocations of a globalizing world It introduces the reader to key debates surrounding cosmopolitanism in the social sciences and is written clearly and accessibly for undergraduates in anthropology and related subjects Politics in Malaysia Edmund Terence Gomez, 2007-04-11 Examining some of the most critical issues in Malaysian politics today including human rights law and democracy gender and Islam this book explores the contours of the contemporary landscape of Malaysian politics focusing especially on politics among the majority ethnic Malay community In particular the book explains why changes in patterns of political mobilization and the rhetoric of the dominant parties particularly the PAS and UMNO have been so limited despite the overt and growing dissatisfaction shown by Malaysians with the state of their political system and the ability of these parties to represent their interests It considers the recent history of events and discourses within Malaysian society and UMNO and PAS and goes on to analyze why important transitions have occurred in society yet political parties have not adapted themselves to these changes and remained reticent about instituting meaningful reforms involving these matters      Media, Liberty and Politics in Malaysia: Comparative Studies on Local Dynamics and Regional Concerns (UUM Press) Mohd Azizuddin Mohd

Sani, 2014-04-01 Media Liberty and Politics in Malaysia Comparative Studies on Local Dynamics and Regional Concerns is based on a collection of twelve academic papers This book traces the development and progress of Malaysia as a nation that embraces issues of media liberty and politics as essential parts of its culture policy and well being of the people In between the 2008 and the 2013 General Elections Malaysians have transformed themselves and demanded to form a more democratic society Issues of political freedom human rights good governance and human dignity have become important and will determine the future of the Malaysian society Besides this book also tries to compare democratic practices in Malaysia with its neighbours such as Indonesia Thailand and Australia plus the Association of Southeast Asian Nations ASEAN as an organisation to promote democratisation and strong ties between its members This book is suitable for all particularly the academics students of politics and international relations journalists legal practitioners and the general public who are interested in the issues of media liberty and politics in Malaysia      Civil Society in Southeast Asia Lee Hock Guan, 2004

What is the relevance of civil society to people empowerment effective governance and deepening democracy This book addresses this question by examining the activities and public participation of non governmental organizations NGOs in the areas of religion ethnicity gender and the environment Examples are taken from Indonesia Malaysia the Philippines Singapore Thailand and Vietnam State regimes attempts to co opt the concept or reject it as alien to Asian values have apparently not turned out as expected This is evident from the fact that many Southeast Asian citizens are inspired by the civil society concept and now engage in public discourse and participation The experience of civil society in Southeast Asia shows that its impact or lack of impact on democratization and democracy depends on a variety of factors not only within civil society itself but also within the state      Historical Dictionary of Malaysia Ooi Keat Gin, 2017-12-18 Malaysia is one of the most intriguing countries in Asia in many respects It consists of several distinct areas not only geographically but ethnically as well along with Malays and related groups the country has a very large Indian and Chinese population The spoken languages obviously vary at home although Bahasa Malaysia is the official language and nearly everyone speaks English There is also a mixture of religions with Islam predominating among the Malays and others Hinduism and Sikhism among the Indians mainly Daoism and Confucianism among the Chinese but also some Christians as well as older indigenous beliefs in certain places This second edition of Historical Dictionary of Malaysia contains a chronology an introduction appendixes and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 500 cross referenced entries on important personalities politics economy foreign relations religion and culture This book is an excellent resource for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Malaysia
