The AIDS Crisis Is Ridiculous and Other Writings, 1986-2003 Gregg Bordowitz, 2006-02-17 The first collection of writings by a noted artist and activist whose work has focused on the AIDS epidemic The HIV epidemic animates this collection of essays by a noted artist writer and activist So total was the burden of illness mine and others that the only viable response other than to cease making art entirely was to adjust to the gravity of the predicament by using the crisis as a lens writes Gregg Bordowitz a film and video maker whose best known works Fast Trip 1993 and Habit 2001 address AIDS globally and personally In The AIDS Crisis Is Ridiculous the title essay is inspired by Charles Ludlam founder of the Ridiculous Theater Company Bordowitz follows in the tradition of artist writers Robert Smithson and Yvonne Rainer by making writing an integral part of an artistic practice Bordowitz has left his earliest writings for the most part unchanged to preserve he says both the youthful exuberance and the palpable sense of fear created by the early days of the AIDS crisis After these early essays the writing becomes more experimental sometimes mixing fiction and fact included here is a selection of Bordowitz's columns from the journal Documents New York Was Yesterday Finally in his newest essays he reformulates early themes and in My Postmodernism written for Artforum's fortieth anniversary issue and More Operative Assumptions written especially for this book he reexamines the underlying ideas of his practice and sums up his theoretical concerns In his mature work Bordowitz seeks to join the subjective the experience of having a disease and the objective the fact of the disease as a global problem He believes that this conjunction is necessary for understanding and fighting the crisis If it can be written he says then it can be realized The AIDS Epidemic in Newark and Detroit United States. Congress. House. Committee on Government Operations. Human Resources and Intergovernmental Relations Subcommittee, 1990

AIDS Issues United States. Congress. House. Committee on Energy and Commerce. Subcommittee on Health and the Environment, 1988 North Carolina and the Problem of AIDS Stephen J. Inrig, 2011-12-01 Thirty years after AIDS was first recognized the American South constitutes the epicenter of the United States epidemic Southern states claim the highest rates of new infections the most AIDS related deaths and the largest number of adults and adolescents living with the virus Moreover the epidemic disproportionately affects African American communities across the region Using the history of HIV in North Carolina as a case study Stephen Inrig examines the rise of AIDS in the South in the period from the early spread and discovery of the disease through the late nineties Drawing on epidemiological archival and oral history sources Inrig probes the social determinants of health that put poor rural and minority communities at greater risk of HIV infection in the American South He also examines the difficulties that health workers and AIDS organizations faced in reaching those communities especially in the early years of the epidemic His analysis provides an important counterweight to most accounts of the early history of the disease which focus on urban areas and the spread of AIDS in the gay community As one of the first historical studies of AIDS in a southern state North Carolina and the Problem of AIDS provides powerful insight into the forces and factors that have made AIDS such an intractable health problem in the American South and the greater United States Global Health Care: Issues and Policies Carol Holtz, 2020-09-01 Global Health Care Issues and Policies Fourth Edition is a comprehensive resource for nursing students focused on critical and timely global health topics Where to from here: Advancing patient and public involvement in health technology assessment (HTA) following the COVID-19 pandemic Janet L. Congress. House. Committee on Energy and Commerce. Subcommittee on Health and the Environment, 1988 Congressional Record United States. Congress, 2003 The AIDS Crisis Deborah Dortzbach, W. Meredith Long, 2006-01-01 Over forty million people today are living with HIV AIDS In 2005 three million people died of AIDS and half a million of them were children The reality is dark But in darkness even one small flame of light makes a difference And the church of Jesus Christ is bringing light into the darkness of the AIDS crisis all over the world Like these churches this book is a flame Deborah Dortzbach and Meredith Long offer personal stories up to date statistics and their years of international experience to give us the global portrait of AIDS the roots of the problem and the role of the church They teach us to listen They allow us to observe They help us become informed so that we can become involved partnering with brothers and sisters already at work around the world loving lobbying caring praying The light shines in the darkness and the darkness has not overcome it Jn 1 5 Here is a book to help us see how the light of Christ shining through his church can change the course of the current AIDS crisis Market Audience Ministry organizations Missionaries Laypeople concerned about the AIDS crisis Pastors Features and Benefits Gives a global perspective by national and international experts Gives a biblical perspective Provides the basic facts we need to know in a brief format Provides a great orientation for anyone interested in AIDS Offers concrete ideas for taking action AIDS Crisis in Africa United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Health, Education, Labor, and Pensions, 2003 The AIDS Crisis in Two American Cities United States. Congress. House. Committee on Government Operations. Human Resources and Intergovernmental Relations Subcommittee, 1989 Facing a Pandemic Elias Kifon Bongmba, 2007 The central argument is that the theological motif of the image of God invites a prophetic critique of the social environment in which HIV AIDS thrives and calls for a praxis of love and compassion Emerging Global Population Health Risks: From Epidemiological Perspectives Russell Kabir, Ali Davod Parsa, Ilias Mahmud, 2024-08-22 Public and global health professionals realize that despite significant advances in improving population health and preventing high mortality from communicable and non communicable diseases and managing treating both communicable and con communicable diseases the global population health status remains fragile This is partly due to the global life pattern in the 21st century making world as a global village Individuals movements in global society have been facilitated rapidly and the current advance in travel and trade across different geographical locations allow rapid spread of any newly identified infectious agents Therefore relatively the likelihood of an outbreak and pandemic increases if there is no suitably coordinated active global surveillance in place

Committee on Energy and Commerce. Subcommittee on Health and the Environment,1992      HIV/AIDS: Political Will and Hope Gregory Ejiogu Umunna,2011-05-27 HIV AIDS Political Will and Hope demonstrates that the scourge of the AIDS flourishes within the weaknesses of the Nigerian state and in the deficiencies of socio cultural economic and political constructs The abovementioned structures have nurtured a culture and politics of neglect inequalities and marginalisation of disempowered and subordinated children men and more especially women These disease prone circumstances expose human behavioural weaknesses and the limitations in the government structures as well as poor implementation of policies especially within the health care sector The result is the inefficiencies insufficiencies and inadequacies in the HIV AIDS preventive as well as care and support programmes It therefore makes clear that for the Nigerian state to prove itself in the present scourge of AIDS it would have to exert all its political will in order to construct a proper caring responsibility as a basic attitude for her citizenry in general and for her overwhelming HIV AIDS patients in particular This is a challenge to a health care reform and an adequate caring responsibility for people living with AIDS To do this effectively this book recommends a few steps      Books in Print ,1993-09 V 1 Authors A D v 2 Authors E K v 3 Authors L R v 4 S Z v 5 Titles A D v 6 Titles E K v 7 Titles L Q v 8 Titles R Z v 9 Out of print out of stock indefinitely v 10 Publishers
