Something Tastes Funny A Cookbook:

Does This Taste Funny? Stephen Colbert, Evie McGee Colbert, 2024-09-17 Stephen and Evie Colbert invite you to pull up a chair as they share their favorite recipes from family and friends and offer a glimpse of food and fun in their South Carolina home. Hopefully reading this book and cooking these recipes will feel like hanging out with us at home. We basically live in the kitchen anyway. Evie and Stephen Colbert. As Evie and Stephen explain it, Does This Taste Funny had its beginnings in the Covid lockdown. We were all stuck together and couldn't go out so we cooked. We had all three kids back under one roof for the first time in a long time and we had dinner each night as a family. Cooking together became a major source of entertainment. Now the Colberts invite us into their kitchen and around their dining room table. Sharing Stephen and Evie's favorite recipes as well as those of their family and friends, this book offers everything from Party Food called party food because appetizers implies something to follow when we all know that often this is the only course to Seafood to Poultry and Meat. Evie and I have different relationships to meat. I like it. Evie can take it or leave it and mostly she leaves it to Desserts. This is one of the largest sections of the book. Evie always reminds me that desserts are a great way to postpone clearing up to Drinks. I love cocktail hour. It feels like a reward for having gone so long without a cocktail all tied together with playful dialogue between Stephen and Evie and gorgeous shots of their food, family and home. Something Tastes Funny Sean Donnellan, Naidre Miller, 1997 A practical culinary primer for the novice cook presents more than one hundred easy to prepare recipes for desserts, appetizers, salads, breakfasts, snacks, and main courses accompanied by humorous anecdotes about the art of cooking. Original. The SalviSoul Cookbook Karla Tatiana Vasquez, 2024-04-30 A beautifully photographed cookbook that celebrates the vibrant culture and community of El Salvador through 80 recipes and stories from twenty-five Salvadoran women. A heartfelt tribute to heritage, a testament to the power of storytelling, and an invitation to savor the true essence of El Salvador, one delicious recipe at a time. Hawa Hassan, James Beard Award winning author of In Bibi's Kitchen. ONE OF NPR'S BEST COOKBOOKS OF THE YEAR. In search of the recipes and traditions that made her feel at home, food historian and Salvadoran Karla Tatiana Vasquez took to the internet to find the dishes her mom made throughout her childhood. But when she couldn't find any, she decided to take matters into her own hands. What started as a desire to document recipes turned into sharing the joys, histories, and tribulations of the women in her life. In this collection of eighty recipes, Karla shares her conversations with moms, aunts, grandmothers, and friends to preserve their histories so that they do not go unheard. Here are recipes for Rellenos de Papa from Patricia who remembers the Los Angeles earthquakes of the 1980s for more reasons than just fear. Flor de Izote con Huevos Revueltos, a favorite of Karla's father, as well as variations on the beloved Salvadoran Pupusa, a thick masa tortilla stuffed with different combinations of pork, cheese, and beans. Though their stories vary, the women have a shared experience of what it was like in El Salvador before the war and what life was like as Salvadoran women surviving in their new home in the United States. A Gothic Cookbook Ella Buchan, Alessandra
