thinking of the people who've been on it. It's fundamental to me. John Graves Writing is a way to keep ourselves more in touch with everything we experience. It seems the best gifts and thoughts are given to us when we pause, take a deep breath, look around, see what's there, and return to where we were revived.

Naomi Shihab Nye: I've said this many times in print: the novel is the middle age genre. Very few people have written really good novels when they are young, and few people have written really good novels when they are old. You just tail off and lose a certain level of concentration. Your imaginative energy begins to lag. I feel like I'm repeating myself, and most writers do repeat themselves.

Larry McMurtry: I was a pretty poor cowhand. I grew up on the Macaraw Ranch east of Crane, Texas. My father tried very hard to make a cowboy out of me, but in my case it never seemed to work too well. I had more of a literary bent. I loved to read, and very early on I began to write small stories, short stories out of the things I liked to read.

Elmer Kelton: CMJ New Music Monthly, 2004. CMJ New Music Monthly is the first consumer magazine to include a bound-in CD sampler. It is the leading publication for the emerging music enthusiast. NMM is a monthly magazine with interviews, reviews, and special features. Each magazine comes with a CD of 15-24 songs by well-established bands, unsigned bands, and everything in between. It is published by CMJ Network Inc.

Whitey From Farm Kid to Flying Tiger to Attorney: Wayne Gordon Johnson, 2011. Whitey From Farm Kid to Flying Tiger to Attorney is the fascinating and riveting story of a boy, the 11th of 14 children of Norwegian immigrant parents who grew up on tenant farms in rural Minnesota during the Great Depression. Johnson describes in graphic detail the harsh conditions under which the family lived and survived. We were poor, but didn't know it. With commendable honesty, Johnson's story illuminates the indiscretions of youth against the backdrop of a rural farm family. His story takes us through the extraordinary journey of one man who has seen more in his life so far than most of us could ever imagine.

Wayne Whitey Johnson enlisted in the Air Corps on 8 December 1941, the day after the Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor. Trained as a fighter pilot in the P-40 Warhawk and the P-51 Mustang, Wayne was sent to China to join the famed Flying Tigers. He was stationed in an area of far eastern China referred to as the pocket, surrounded by Japanese troops less than 50 miles away. He relates the grim realities of war with startling realism, graphically portraying the triumphs and tragedies and the joys and sorrows of young men at war.

Whitey, as part of a flight of 16 P-51 Mustang fighters, participated in the first fighter strike against Japanese airdromes near Shanghai. Coming in at tree-top level and catching the enemy by complete surprise, they destroyed 97 Japanese planes, mostly on the ground, without loss of any Americans. After the war, he became a successful attorney, setting a record as the longest-serving City Attorney in the United States, serving two cities for over fifty years. Continuing his activity in aviation, Johnson was named Mr. Aviation of Minnesota in 1968. He was inducted into the Minnesota Aviation Hall of Fame in 2001. The Silver Bay, MN airport was renamed the Wayne Johnson Airport in his honor in 2005, an honor few living airmen enjoy. He has flown over 60 military and civilian aircraft and piloted his own plane into his mid-eighties.

Back cover: The Inman Diary, Arthur Crew Inman, 1985. Between 1919 and his death by suicide in 1963, Arthur Crew Inman wrote what is surely one of the fullest diaries ever kept by any American Convinced that his bid for immortality required complete candor he held nothing back This abridgment of the original 155 volumes is at once autobiography social chronicle and an apologia addressed to unborn readers Into this fascinating record Inman poured memories of a privileged Atlanta childhood disastrous prep school years a nervous collapse in college followed by a bizarre life of self diagnosed invalidism Confined to a darkened room in his Boston apartment he lived vicariously through newspaper advertisements he hired talkers to tell him the stories of their lives and he wove their strange histories into the diary Young women in particular fascinated him He studied their moods bought them clothes fondled them and counseled them on their love affairs His marriage in 1923 to Evelyn Yates the heroine of the diary survived a series of melodramatic episodes While reflecting on national politics waifs and revolutions Inman speaks directly about his fears compulsions fantasies and nightmares coaxing the reader into intimacy with him Despite his shocking self disclosures he emerges as an oddly impressive figure This compelling work is many things a case history of a deeply troubled man the story of a transplanted and self conscious southerner a historical overview of Boston illuminated with striking cityscapes an odd sort of American social history But chiefly it is as Inman himself came to see a gigantic nonfiction novel a new literary form As it moves inexorably toward a powerful denouement The Inman Diary is an addictive narrative
