Speaking From The Heart A Feminist Perspective On Ethics:

Speaking from the Heart Rita C. Manning, 1992 In Speaking from the Heart Rita Manning has added an important contribution to the growing literature on feminist moral theory and ethics Manning presents an original and ambitious study of the moral practice and moral intuitions which are infused by a commitment to an ethic of care In doing so she challenges the received wisdom about moral philosophy that to reason morally one must appeal to underlying principles rather than one Speaking from the Heart Rita C. Manning, 1992-05-20 Manning successfully argues that theory and s own experience ethics should once again be reunited thorough and provocative THE MIDWEST BOOK REVIEW Revealing Male Bodies Nancy Tuana, William Cowling, Maurice Hamington, Greg Johnson, 2002-05-06 Revealing Male Bodies is the first scholarly collection to directly confront male lived experience There has been an explosion of work in men s studies masculinity issues and male sexuality in addition to a growing literature exploring female embodiment Missing from the current literature however is a sustained analysis of the phenomenology of male gendered bodies Revealing Male Bodies addresses this omission by examining how male bodies are physically and experientially constituted by the economic theoretical and social practices in which men are immersed Contributors include Susan Bordo William Cowling Terry Goldie Maurice Hamington Don Ihde Greg Johnson Bj rn Krondorfer Alphonso Lingis Patrick McGann Paul McIlvenny Terrance MacMullan Jim Perkinson Steven P Schacht Richard Schmitt Nancy Tuana Craig L Wilkins and John Zuern Communication Yearbook 25 William B. Gudykunst, 2001-05-01 Communication Yearbook 25 is devoted to publishing state of the art literature reviews in which authors critique and synthesize a body of communication research This volume contains critical integrative reviews of research on democracy and new communication technologies the Federal Communication Commission's communication policymaking process cognitive effects of hypermedia mediation of children's television viewing informatization world systems and developing countries communication ethics communication in culturally diverse work groups and attitudes toward language In addition it also includes senior scholars reviews of research on imagined interactions and symbolic convergence theory Representing media interpersonal intercultural and other areas of communication this is an important reference on current research for scholars and students in the social sciences Each of the chapters make a unique Policy Practice for Social Workers Linda Cummins, Katharine V Byers, Laura contribution to the field Pedrick, 2023-07-18 The second edition of Policy Practice for Social Workers expands the concept of policy practice in social work settings and illustrates how significant policy change may be achieved at a local community state and national level Guided by an ethic of care approach this textbook is intended to raise readers awareness about policy practice and its fundamental relationship with the aims of the social work profession offers a foundation for key skill development and contextualizes the work of policy practitioners in the larger political economic settings in which they work This textbook is divided into two parts First readers will expand their understanding of policy practice its beginnings and development over the course of social welfare history and the political economic and social drivers that affect policy decisions and undergird the U S political system Readers will also learn about the ethic of care framework and the value based lens it contributes to the policymaking process Later in the book's second part readers will explore the essential skills and values in policy work Detailed coverage and vivid examples offer valuable insight into specific advocacy skills including lobbying community organizing mobilizing advocacy publics coalition building campaigning problem analysis policy analysis and policy evaluation Within its comprehensive overview of policy practice and advocacy the new edition of this text extols a value laden perspective to identify and assess unmet needs and promote a more socially just environment for all Combining these dual aims Policy Practice for Social Workers is an excellent cornerstone of policy and policy work for undergraduate and graduate students in social work Mixed Media Tom Bivins, 2017-09-08 Mixed Media offers students of journalism advertising and public relations the tools for making ethical and moral decisions within their professional disciplines Covering both ethical theory and its practical application to the media professions Mixed Media serves as an indispensable starting point for those seeking to develop an ethical framework with regard to mass media Each media industry is covered with specific attention paid to relevant ethical decision making approaches involving primary concerns such as truth telling constituent obligations persuasion versus advocacy and respect for the consumers of public communication In addition the book covers new media and how ethics affect such concepts as social media word of mouth advertising and the impact of the digital revolution And new to this edition recent concerns in areas such as satire and the dilemma of free speech versus constraint are discussed as well as the quandry of native advertising in journalism Readers will come away with a greater appreciation for moral philosophy and theory as a foundation for decision making and will develop a personal vardstick by which to measure their decisions Citizenship and the Ethics of Care Selma Sevenhuijsen, 2003-09-02 Care and women s emancipation have often been seen as opposed Politicians have begun to look again at the issue of care in the context of new reforms in the welfare state health care policies and family law Using concrete examples taken from parental rights cases health care education and the public health sector Using concrete examples taken from the practice and discourse of care those found in parental rights issues health care education the family and in the public health sector Sevenhuijsen argues for revaluation of care from a feminist perspective Nonviolent Perspectives Andrew Fitz-Gibbon, 2025-02-04 This book is a compilation of essays addressing the central issue of humanity interpersonal violence and more importantly nonviolence as its antidote The essays trace the author's journey from early pacifist convictions influenced by personal experiences with violence to a nuanced understanding of nonviolence rooted in ethics love spirituality and critical theory Spanning over two decades the writings explore various dimensions of nonviolence from philosophical arguments and historical analysis to practical applications in parenting political resistance and care ethics The book brings together previously published works that have been instrumental in shaping the author's thinking making them accessible for scholars students and anyone interested in nonviolence With reflections on the works of Murdoch MacIntyre Gandhi and others it offers a comprehensive examination of nonviolence as both a personal practice and a social imperative The Moral Skeptic Anita M. Superson, 2009-03-13 Anita Superson challenges the traditional picture of the skeptic who asks Why be moral While holding that the skeptic's position is important she builds an argument against it by understanding it more deeply and then shows what it would take to successfully defeat it Superson argues that we must defeat not only the action skeptic but the disposition skeptic who denies that being morally disposed is rationally required and the motive skeptic who believes that merely going through the motions in acting morally is rationally permissible We also have to address the amoralist who is not moved by moral reasons he recognizes Superson argues for expanding the skeptic's position from self interest to privilege to include morally unjustified behavior targeting disenfranchised social groups as well as revising the traditional expected utility model to exclude desires deformed by patriarchy as irrational Lastly she argues that the challenge can be answered if it can be shown that it is in an important way inconsistent and therefore irrational to privilege oneself over others. The Moral Skeptic makes an important contribution to both metaethics moral theory and feminist philosophy and brings feminist thinking into the larger discussion of the skeptical challenge Applied Professional Ethics Gregory R. Beabout, Daryl J. Wennemann, 1993-12-09 This innovative book is written in an accessible compact style that sets forth and explains a sound framework for professional ethics that readers can quickly put into practice in analyzing and writing about cases Through a series of moral conflicts it aims at improving the skills of moral reasoning and achieving moral development Contents List of Diagrams Preface Acknowledgements Introduction What is Ethics The Structure of Moral Development Interest Roles and Principles Rules and Relationships Moral Principles Applying Moral Principles Intention Motive Circumstance Conflicts in Rules and Relationships Context and Character Codes of Professional Ethics How to Write a Case Study Report Examples of Student Case Study Reports Some Works on Moral Theory Some Works that Contain Case Studies Ethics in Community-Based Elder Care Martha B. Holstein, Phyllis B. Mitzen, 2001-10-11 Caring for elders outside of institutions is the fastest growing sector of US health care Building on their research study at the Park Ridge Center editors Holstein and Mitzen together with a team of experts examine the complexities involved in developing an ethics for community based long term care They also challenge policymakers to make home care a more viable option for older people in need Chapters address many of the ethical and practical problems that arise in the care of older people with physical and mental disabilities including how to allocate scarce funds how to keep good caregivers how to balance concerns of autonomy risk and safety and worker stress The volume is an excellent resource for practitioners policymakers and students Intertwinings Gail Weiss, 2008-11-05 Intertwinings presents exciting interdisciplinary scholarship on twentieth century French philosopher Maurice Merleau Ponty The contributors break new ground by bringing Merleau Ponty's work into conversation with literary theory architecture cultural studies critical race studies and current feminist theory and practice Spanning Merleau Ponty's early and late thought this volume focuses on the ontological ethical and political implications of his unique emphasis on the constitutive intertwinings of inside and outside self and other language and gesture body and world and identity and difference Intertwinings affirms Merleau Ponty's insight that we should not eradicate but rather celebrate the corporeal differences that make our encounters with both human and nonhuman others a source of inexplicable richness and endless fascination Care, Autonomy, And Justice Grace Clement, 2018-02-20 This book begins with versions of the ethic of care and the ethic of justice It argues that the ethic of care reveals important problems with the concept of autonomy but that these problems are not present in all Pandora's Box Nancy Lublin, 1998 This is the fourth lesson in the series Little Music Lessons for Kids where you can help your child to learn the space musical notes fast and easy Four musical notes like to meet in a beauty salon every day Day by day these musical notes spend their time painting their eyelashes lips cheeks and eyebrows Suddenly one of the notes reads an ad on a truck From this ad she finds out about free apartments available in the musical house The beauty note jumps out of the salon and runs to the treble staff the other three musical notes follow her But here is the bad news All the apartments are already full The beauty notes come up with an original idea and finally get their new apartments Your child must hear this story Rethinking Masculinity Larry May, Robert Strikwerda, Patrick D. Hopkins, 1996-10-24 Are men naturally aggressive What makes a good father How can men form intimate friendships In the new edition of this popular anthology seventeen philosophers explore these and other questions that relate to what it means to be a man including questions about pornography and homosexuality New essays look at masculinity and violence research on differences between men s and women s brains impotence sexual ambiguity and whether black men have a moral duty to marry black women Relationship Morality James Kellenberger, 2010-11-01 A Moral Ontology for a Theistic Ethic Frank G. Kirkpatrick, 2017-11-22 This title was first published in 2003 This book develops a moral ontology for a theistic ethic that engages the work of contemporary moral and political philosophers and reaffirms the relevance of a theistic tradition of God's relation to the world reflected in the fundamental teachings of Judaism Christianity and Islam Drawing on recent thought in the non religious fields of psychology and political and moral philosophy which build around the concept of human flourishing in community Kirkpatrick argues that a theistic ethic need not be the captive of parochial or sectarian theological camps He proposes a common or universal ethic that transcends the fashionable ethnocentric incommensurate differences in morality alleged by many post modern deconstructionists In the wake of ethnic religious strife post September 11th 2001 this book argues for a common morality built on the inclusivity of love community and justice that can transcend sectarian and Women and Spirituality Carol Ochs, 1997 Written by an acclaimed scholar to enrich and complete parochial boundaries the vision offered by traditional Western spirituality Women and Spirituality demonstrates that women as women have a valuable contribution to make to religion This new edition is revised and updated in light of thirteen years of feminism including new biblical role models and a new chapter on women's special relationship to time Prodding readers to pay attention to their own experiences Ochs challenges traditional religious concepts such as solitary struggle otherworldliness and the spiritual journey to a distant goal and shows how women s spirituality focuses on relationships with others commitment to this world and engagement with the present Social Policy and the Ethic of Care Olena Hankivsky,2004 In this book Hankivsky considers the implications of this ethic for a range of Canadian social policy issues Through a series of case studies she demonstrates the extent to which a care orientation differs from a justice orientation and provides an alternative normative framework for interpreting understanding and evaluating social policy She reveals why Canadian social policy is lacking and how it could be made more effective and robust by the inclusion of an ethic of care Jacket The Power and Vulnerability of Love Elizabeth O'Donnell Gandolfo,2015-02-01 Gandolfo constructs a theological anthropology that begins with the condition of human vulnerability as a site to answer why human beings experience and inflict terrible suffering This volume argues that vulnerability is a dimension of human existence that causes us great anxiety which forms the basis for violence but also affords the possibility of human openness to the redemptive work of divine love Poised paradoxically between tragic and redemptive vulnerability human beings need existential resources and empowering practices to cope with and manage our vulnerability in more compassionate ways
