Speaking With Beads Zulu Arts From Southern Africa:

Speaking with Beads Jean Morris, Eleanor Preston-Whyte, 1994 The beadwork designs of the Zulu speaking people of southern Africa have evolved from a craft tradition that developed over many generations Carefully researched and filled with exciting photographs Speaking with Beads presents jewelry ornamental headdresses capes aprons beaded panels and other decorative forms

The Art of Life in South Africa Daniel Magaziner, 2016-11-09 From 1952 to 1981 South Africa's apartheid government ran an art school for the training of African art teachers at Indaleni in what is today KwaZulu Natal The Art of Life in South Africa is the story of the students teachers art and politics that circulated through a small school housed in a remote former mission station It is the story of a community that made its way through the travails of white supremacist South Africa and demonstrates how the art students and teachers made together became the art of their lives Daniel Magaziner radically reframes apartheid era South African history Against the dominant narrative of apartheid oppression and black resistance as well as recent scholarship that explores violence criminality and the hopeless entanglements of the apartheid state this book focuses instead on a small group's efforts to fashion more fulfilling lives for its members and their community through the ironic medium of the apartheid era school There is no book like this in South African historiography Lushly illustrated and poetically written it gives us fully formed lives that offer remarkable insights into the now clichéd experience of black life under segregation and apartheid

Beads of life Marie-Louise Labelle, 2005-01-01 Beads of Life is a fascinating exploration of traditional beadwork from eastern and southern Africa as well as the socio religious principles upon which many aesthetic choices were based The author concludes with an examination of contemporary beadwork as seen in particular through the eyes of Canadians from these regions Published in English

Geometry from Africa Paulus Gerdes, 1999-12-31 This book draws on geometric ideas from cultural activities from Sub Saharan Africa and demonstrates how they may be explored to develop mathematical reasoning from school level through to university standard Paulus Gerdes provides a thoroughly illustrated and researched exploration of mathematical ideas motifs and patterns Many important mathematical points are brought to the fore not via the formal theorem proof method but in a more schematic and diagrammatic manner African artifacts oral traditions sand drawing and other forms of artwork with a geometric basis all provide mathematical ideas for discussion in this unique book Mathematicians and teachers of mathematics at all levels will be fascinated as will anybody with an interest in African cultures

The Art & Tradition of Beadwork Marsha C. Bol, 2020-05-29 A former professor and museum director offers a fascinating in depth look at the culture and history of beaded objects around the world From a beaded dress found in an ancient Egyptian tomb to the beaded fringe on a 1920s Parisian flapper's hem humans throughout history have used beading as a way to express adorn and tell a story Bol explores beadwork across the world and through the ages showing how beading has taken on many different styles forms and purposes for different cultures She looks at children's clothing puberty ceremonies burials emblems of social status and leadership festivals and many other cultural occasions that involve the use of beadwork Images of artifacts and heirlooms as well as photography of people and their beadwork enhance the scholarship of this book for a beautiful enlightening addition to art history multicultural collections everywhere Recipe and Craft Guide to South Africa Melissa Koosman,2011-09-30 Welcome to South Africa the Rainbow Nation a diverse country with a troubled history but a bright future You can explore this country s story through a series of colorful crafts and tasty recipes For a glimpse into the region s prehistory paint your own version of ancient rock art and taste a local grain called millet Next visit the colonialist era when slaves brought by European explorers created the unique Cape Malay cuisine and began a colorful New Year s Day tradition called the Cape Minstrel Festival Journey through the painful period of apartheid strict racial segregation and taste a street food that was created because black people were not allowed to sit in restaurants alongside whites Finally step into the present day and toot a vuvuzela a long noisy horn used for cheering as you learn about South Africa s transition to equality and democracy
