Unified Patent Protection in Europe Winfried Tilmann, Clemens Plassmann, 2018-07-19 The creation of the Unified Patent Court UPC is the most prominent change in the European legal landscape for the last four decades This book explains how the new system works in practice and how to make the best use of its provisions It offers readers an in depth and comprehensive commentary on the legal mechanisms of the upcoming ratified European Patent Law and advice on potential problems that users of the forthcoming regulations may face The book first describes the creation of the Unified European Patent Law and how its four new legislative texts interact The new legislative texts are then explained and commented on in detail rule by rule with diverse approaches and perspectives from a practitioner team comprising patent litigators European patent attorneys law professors and patent judges The Commentary takes into account the practical needs of users of the new system on both the prosecution and enforcement sides addressing substantive and procedural problems This book is the most authoritative text on the Unitary Patent and Unified Patents Court and an invaluable tool for practitioners in this rapidly developing area of law Professionalism in journalism in the era of new media Jacek Sobczak, Jędrzej

Skrzypczak, 2015-12-31 The term professionalization arouses controversies in academic discussion let alone the issue of professionalization of journalism Journalism considerably departs from the ideal model of professionalization There is no structured knowledge that directly applies to journalists although we can talk about defined skills and the practical principles of the journalist s profession Considering the process of the professionalization of journalism we can indicate three significant determinants namely professional autonomy separate professional standards self regulation principles and serving the public interest However it is particularly important to ask about the condition of the journalist s profession nowadays The ongoing technological revolution on the one hand and the political and legal transformations accompanied by market trends such as the tabloidization of the media so called infotainment first and foremost and citizen journalism on the other have all generated great doubts about the status of journalists This calls for a redefinition of the professional position and role of journalists in modern societies All these transformations may pose a serious threat to the model of traditional journalism and the social and professional position of journalists The book introduced here consists of four parts presenting various aspects of professionalization of journalism The first part treats of diverse topics concerning the essence of this issue as well as the legal status of journalist s profession The second part features texts devoted to the issues of digital media Part three deals with the disturbing phenomenon of hate speech The main theme of the last part of the book concerns the issue of lobbying in the process of establishing intellectual property rights The texts presented here have been written by scholars in the fields of law media studies and political science on the one hand and practitioners journalists from several countries of Europe on the other The editors hope that the publication will contribute to the ongoing discussion concerning both the journalists and journalism status in the era of dynamic technological transformation The Patents Act, 1970 India, The Code of Civil
