The Spectre of Comparisons Benedict Richard O'Gorman Anderson, 1998 A controversial collection from the author of the celebrated Imagined Communities While Benedict Anderson is best known for his classic book on nationalism Imagined Communities many of his most telling and incisive interventions have been made in his essays Those collected in this new book span a range of subjects from Aquino's Philippines where the horses on the haciendas ate better than the stable hands to political assassination in contemporary Thailand where government posts have become so lucrative that to gain them candidates will kill their rivals In these writing the subtle imbrication of politics national imaginings bureaucracy modernization and its agents particularly print culture is brought out in all its complexity and richness The spectre of comparisons was a phrase used by the celebrated Filipino nationalist and novelist Jose Rizal 1861-96 whose work and fate in the national imagination are discussed in these pages In his finely wrought observations on Southeast Asian societies Anderson raises deep questions concerning this spectre about how for instance Manila is changed when it can no longer be seen through a comparison with European capitals and how more broadly nationalism is produced by the process of increasing global connection The Spectre of Comparisons is an indispensable resource for those interested in South East Asia But it also contains important theoretical and historical considerations about nationalism national literature and memory modernization and the prospects for the Left in what Anderson dubs The New World Disorder The Spectre of Comparisons, 2000

Chakravorty Spivak Ella Shohat Robert Stam R Radhakrishnan Bruce Robbins Ania Loomba Haun Saussy Linda Gordon Walter D Mignolo Shu mei Shih and Pheng Cheah are included with contributions by anthropologists Caroline B Brettell and Richard Handler Historical periods discussed range from the early modern to the contemporary and geographical regions that encompass the globe Ultimately Comparison argues for the importance of greater self reflexivity about the politics and methods of comparison in teaching and in research A Coincidence of Desires Tom Boellstorff, 2007-04-25 An anthropological examination of non normative male sexuality outside of the West using Indonesia as a case study

Riddles of Belonging Christi A. Merrill, 2009 Can the subaltern joke Christi A Merrill answers by invoking riddling oral based fictions from Hindi Rajasthani Sanskrit and Urdu that dare to laugh at what traditions often keep hidden whether spouse abuse ethnic violence or the uncertain legacies of a divinely wrought sex change Herself a skilled translator Merrill uses these examples to investigate the expectation that translated work should allow the non English speaking subaltern to speak directly to the English speaking reader She plays with the trope of speaking to argue against treating a translated text as property as a singular material object to be carried across as trans latus implies She refigures translation as a performative telling in turn from the Hindi word anuvad to explain how a text might be multiply possessed She thereby challenges the distinction between original and derivative fundamental to nationalist and literary discourse humoring our melancholic fixation on what is lost Instead she offers strategies for playing along with the subversive wit found in translated texts Sly jokes and spirited double entendres she suggests require equally spirited double hearings The playful lessons offered by these narratives provide insight into the networks of transnational relations connecting us across a sea of differences Generations of multilingual audiences in India have been navigating this Ocean of the Stream of Stories since before the 11th century arriving at a fluid sense of commonality across languages Salman Rushdie is not the first to pose crucial questions of belonging by telling a version of this narrative the work of non English language writers like Vijay Dan Detha whose tales are at the core of this book asks what responsibilities we have to make the rights and wrongs of these fictions come alive age after age has tended to rely on the production of national and local identities which may serve to reproduce and reinforce the logic of modernization in new registers Of particular importance is the legacy of comparativism in our contemporary disciplines Other essays explore the historically specific relations that arise between nation empire and representation Contributors reconsider the alleged particularity of national languages and scripts asking whether the insistence on the particular does not already entail an access to the universal and thus maybe to empire Still other essays question whether the prime characteristics of modern power subjection and sovereignty continue to define power relations within the contemporary world order To what extent is it now possible to think power formations and resistance beyond the modern otherwise than modernity Back cover

Aesthetic Constructions of Korean Nationalism Hong Kal, 2011-05-12 While most studies on Korean nationalism centre on textual analysis Aesthetic Constructions of Korean Nationalism offers a different approach It looks at expositions museums and the urban built environment at particular moments in both colonial and postcolonial eras and analyses their discursive relations in the construction of Korean nationalism By linking concepts of visual spectacle urban space and governmentality this book explores how such notions made the nation imaginable to the public in both the past and the present how they represented a new modality of seeing for the state and contributed to the shaping of collective identities in colonial and postcolonial Korea The author further examines how their different modes were associated with the change in governmentality in Korea In addressing these questions the book interprets the politics behind the culture of displays and shows both the continuity and the transformation of spectacles as a governing technology in twentieth century Korea Aesthetic Constructions of Korean Nationalism is a significant contribution to a study of the politics of visual culture in colonial and postcolonial Korea The book will be of interest to students and scholars of Korean Studies Culture and Heritage Studies and Asian Studies
