GETTYSBURG ADDRESS

NOVEMBER 19, 1863

FOURSCORE and seven years ago our fathers brought forth on this continent a new nation, conceived in liberty, and dedicated to the proposition that all men are created equal.

Now we are engaged in a great civil war, testing whether that nation, or any nation so conceived and so dedicated, can long endure. We are met on a great battlefield of that war. We have come to dedicate a portion of that field as a final resting-place for those who here gave their lives that that nation might live. It is altogether fitting and proper that we should do this.

Abraham Lincoln: the Speeches Abraham Lincoln, 2015-03-01 Abraham Lincoln Speeches Learn more about the views and beliefs of one of America's most respected Presidents Lincoln never wrote a book He dabbled in poetry and journalism but almost all of what composes the standard collections of Lincoln's writings are either letters or speeches But the boundary between his writings and speeches was a porous one In many cases before his election to the presidency in 1860 the speeches are only transcripts taken down in a more or less haphazard fashion by newspaper reporters and editors who heard him speak as they did in the campaign speech he delivered in Worcester Massachusetts in 1848 or his Lewistown Illinois speech on the Declaration of Independence The great debates with Stephen A Douglas in 1858 that made Lincoln nationally famous were unrehearsed and unscripted but they were taken down with unusual precision in shorthand and published word for word in the Chicago newspapers within forty eight hours Abraham Lincoln The Speeches contains six of his greatest speeches including his two inaugural addresses and his Gettysburg speech Abraham Lincoln's speeches are inspiring and essential reading for every American to understand how our country was shaped by the President's ambitious and life changing views Scroll up and enjoy Abraham Lincoln The Speeches today Abraham Lincoln Abraham Lincoln, 1898

INTRODUCTION The lost speech of Abraham Lincoln was delivered at the first Republican State Convention of Illinois at Bloomington on the 29th of May 1856 The excitement caused among the audience by the speech was so great that the reporters forgot to take their notes and for many years it was generally supposed that no record of the speech had been preserved It appears however that Mr H C Whitney then a young lawyer of Illinois did take notes of the speech which he preserved and after a lapse of forty years they were transcribed and were published in McClure s Magazine for September 1896 together with a letter from Mr Joseph Medill of the Chicago Tribune who was present at the Convention and confirms the accuracy of Mr Whitney s report By the kind consent of Mr Whitney and through the courtesy of Mr S S McClure the speech is now reproduced by the Republican Club of the City of New York as a souvenir of Lincoln for its Annual Dinner on the 12th of February 1897

The Most Famous Speeches of Abraham Lincoln

Charles River Charles River Editors,2018-02-20 Includes pictures Includes excerpts from the speeches Includes reactions to the speeches from newspaper reports and audience members Includes online resources and bibliographies for further reading Includes a table of contents Abraham Lincoln was still not considered a real option for the Republican nomination until he delivered a speech at New York City s Cooper Union in February 1860 just a few months before the Republicans convention in May Lincoln had gained a bit of a national profile by debating Stephen Douglas during an Illinois Senate Race in 1858 and though he lost that election Lincoln continued discussing the same themes most notably slavery and Dred Scott in his Cooper Union speech In the hard hitting speech Lincoln both deflected Southern criticisms and attacked them chiding would be secessionists Your purpose then plainly stated is that you will destroy the Government unless you be allowed to construe and enforce the Constitution as you please on all points in dispute between you and us You will rule or ruin in all events Although just 7 000 words long the Cooper Union Address was almost universally praised in the North and biographer Harold Holzer credited it for leading Lincoln to the presidency Had Abraham Lincoln failed at his do or die debut in New York he would never have won his party s presidential nomination three months later not to mention election to the White House that November Such was the impact of a triumph in the nation s media capital Had he stumbled none of the challenges that roiled his presidency would ever have tested his iron will He had arrived at Cooper Union a politician with more defeats than victories but he departed politically reborn When a crowd came to Gettysburg in November 1863 to commemorate the battle fought there 4 months earlier and dedicate a new national cemetery they came to hear a series of speeches about the Civil War and the events of that battle Today it may seem obvious to invite the president to such an occasion but Lincoln was initially an afterthought and though he did come to deliver remarks he was not in fact the keynote speaker Instead the man chosen to give the keynote speech was Edward Everett a politician and educator from Massachusetts Everett had already been a Congressman the 15th Governor of Massachusetts Minister to Great Britain and Secretary of State and by the Civil War he was considered perhaps the greatest orator in the nation making him a natural choice to be the featured speaker at the dedication ceremony Everett is still known today for his oratory but more for the fact that he spoke for over two hours at Gettysburg immediately before President Lincoln delivered his immortal two minute Gettysburg Address Everett would later say I should be glad if I could flatter myself that I came as near to the central idea of the occasion in two hours as you did in two minutes At the time however Lincoln and many others present at the event thought his speech fell flat and was ultimately a failure that would be consigned to the dustbin of history Lincoln wasn't given a chance to finish his work but his thoughts and visions were eloquently saved for posterity in his second inaugural address delivered a month before his death and considered one of America's greatest speeches With the war nearing the end Lincoln struck a conciliatory tone reminding both sides that they prayed to the same God for victory and that neither side could divine God's will With malice toward none with charity for all Lincoln called for peace and reunion his eye clearly on Reconstruction Nobody will ever know if Lincoln could've managed the Reconstruction process in a better way than what actually unfolded but in many respects the second inaugural address was a fitting postscript of sorts to his presidency
