How Documentaries Went Mainstream Nora Stone, 2023 Since the 1960s documentary films have moved closer to the mainstream thanks to the popularity of rockumentaries association with the independent film movement support from public and cable television and the rise of streaming video services Documentary films have become reliable earners at the U S box office and ubiquitous on streaming platforms while historically they existed on the margins of mainstream media How do we explain the growing commercialization of documentary films and the conditions that fueled their transformation The growing commercialization of documentary film has not gone unnoticed but it has not been sufficiently explained Streaming and the growing interest in reality TV are usually offered as initial explanations whenever a documentary enters the cultural conversation or breaks a box office record but neither of those causes grapple with the overlapping causal mechanisms that commercialized documentary film How Documentaries Went Mainstream provides a more comprehensive and meaningful periodization of the commercialization of documentary film Although the commercial ascension of documentary films might seem meteoric it is the culmination of decades long efforts that have developed and fortified the audience for documentary features Author Nora Stone refines rough explanations of these efforts through a robust synoptic history of the market for documentary films using knowledge of film economics and the norms of industry discourse to tell a richer story This periodization will allow scholars to compare the commercialization of documentary film with other genres Drawing on archival documents industry trade journals and popular press and interviews with filmmakers and film distributors Stone illuminates how documentary features have become more plentiful popular and profitable than ever before

Documentary Storytelling Sheila Curran Bernard, 2015-12-22 Documentary Storytelling has reached filmmakers and filmgoers worldwide with its unique focus on the key ingredient for success in the growing global documentary marketplace storytelling This practical guide reveals how today's top filmmakers bring the tools of narrative cinema to the world of nonfiction film and video without sacrificing the rigor and truthfulness that give documentaries their power The book offers practical advice for producers directors editors cinematographers writers and others seeking to make ethical and effective films that merge the strengths of visual and aural media with the power of narrative storytelling In this new updated edition Emmy Award winning author Sheila Curran Bernard offers New strategies for analyzing documentary work New conversations with filmmakers including Stanley Nelson The Black Panthers Kazuhiro Soda Mental Orlando von Einsiedel Virunga and Cara Mertes JustFilms Discussions previously held with Susan Kim Imaginary Witness Deborah Scranton The War Tapes Alex Gibney Taxi to the Dark Side and James Marsh Man on Wire Asserting Jurisdiction Patrick Capps, Malcolm Evans, Stratos V. Konstadinidis, 2003-09-02 This collection explores the ways in which key European and International legal institutions define the boundaries of jurisdictional competence Mea Culpa: a Way out of Hell Dennis Noel, 2017-07-07 From birth to death we pass the same milestones forks in the road and dead ends Each next step may lead us to disaster Dennis Noel a native of the dual island nation of Trinidad and Tobago shares lessons from his own journey in book one of his life story His prime directive is to show the interconnectivity of everything in the universe between universes and between beings His story is connected to others and their stories are all part of a much bigger story He reveals regrets many of us choose to ignore Some of these lie buried deep in the recesses of our minds to be forgotten or diluted with enough justifications to dissolve any real ownership but he seeks to move toward a more enlightened path He also looks back at the many times in his life that help was given sometimes in the form of angels disguised as strangers or via doors opened with whispers urging him closer to faith

Photoplay, 1924 New Documentary Stella Bruzzi, 2006-09-27 Praise for New Documentary It's refreshing to find a book that cuts through the tired old debates that have surrounded documentary film and television. It heralds a welcome new approach. Sight and Sound Documentary practice changes so fast that books on the subject are often out of date before they are published. Bruzzi's achievement is to have understood the genre as an activity based on performance rather than observation. This is a fresh perspective which illuminates the fundamental shifts that will continue to take place in the genre as it enters its second century. John Ellis Professor of Media Arts Royal Holloway University of London New Documentary provides a contemporary look at documentary and fresh and challenging ways of theorising the non-fiction film. As engaging as the original, this second edition features thorough updates to the existing chapters as well as a brand new chapter on contemporary cinema release documentaries. This new edition includes Contemporary films such as Capturing the Friedmans tre et avoir Fahrenheit 9/11 The Fog of War and Touching the Void as well as more canonical texts such as Hoop Dreams and Shoah. Additional interviews with influential practitioners such as director Michael Apted and producer Stephen Lambert. A comprehensively revised discussion of modern observational documentary including docusoaps reality television and formatted documentaries The work of documentary filmmakers such as Nicholas Barker Errol Morris Nick Broomfield Molly Dineen and Michael Moore and the work of Avant Garde filmmakers such as Chris Marker and Patrick Keiller Gender identity queer theory performance race and spectatorship Bruzzi shows how theories of documentary filmmaking can be applied to contemporary texts and genres and discusses the relationship between recent innovative examples of the genre and the more established canon of documentary

Hitchcock & the Anxiety of Authorship Leslie H. Abramson,2016-04-08 Hitchcock and the Anxiety of Authorship examines issues of cinema authorship engaged by and dynamized within the director s films A unique study of self reflexivity in Hitchcock s work from his earliest English silents to his final Hollywood features this book considers how the director s releases constitute ever shifting meditations on the conditions and struggles of creative agency in cinema Abramson explores how located in literal and emblematic sites of dramatic production exhibition and reception and populated by figures of directors actors and audiences Hitchcock s films exhibit a complicated often disturbing vision of authorship one that consistently problematizes rather than exemplifies the director s longstanding auteurist image Viewing Hitchcock in a striking new light Abramson analyzes these allegories of vexed agency in the context of his concepts of and commentary on the troubled association between cinema artistry and authorship as well as the changing cultural industrial theoretical and historical milieus in which his features were produced Accordingly the book illuminates how Hitchcock and his cinema register the constant dynamics that constitute film authorship

would a modern teenager find classic films enthralling This book presents an eye opening tour of how old movies foreshadowed influenced and continue to shape popular culture in many surprising ways From foreseeing today s image dominated social media landscape to ushering rock music into the mainstream and sparking elements of the MeToo movement classic movies remain relevant and inspiring Despite prevailing attitudes that old films are outdated many dramatically broke boundaries around racism and antisemitism They predicted current trends in divorce and sexual relations They helped shape current icons like Taylor Swift and Lady Gaga as well as foreshadowing more sobering events such as the Covid 19 pandemic A Gen Z age cultural critic author Simone O Elias presents an insider s perspective on the socio cultural impact of classic Hollywood films on a modern generation
