Legacy in Cloth S. A. Niessen,2009 Weaving in the Batak region of North Sumatra is an ancient art practised by women and exhibits some of the oldest design and technical features in the Indonesian archipelago Since colonial annexation at the turn of the twentieth century innovative Batak weavers from the Lake Toba region in northern Sumatra have successfully adapted their art to new economic and social circumstances but at great cost In recent decades weaving has fallen into decline and the tradition is threatened while at the same time Batak textiles are highly prized in museum collections around the world Legacy in cloth offers the first definitive study of the woven heritage of the Toba Simalungun and Karo Batak The most complete analysis of Batak textiles ever published it provides a record of more than 100 different design types including archival and contemporary photographs showing how the textiles are woven and how they are used in Batak culture A
